

CHARMING SUMMER VISITOR in Klamath Falls this week is Elizabeth Louise Mushen of San Francisco, guest of her brother and sister-in-law, the Samuel A. Mushens of High street. —Kennell-Ellis.

SOCIETY

By LOIS
STEWART

HOME AGAIN, after a delightful two months spent in Klamath Falls, goes Marilyn Bell, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schollock. Marilyn was met by her mother, Mrs. H. O. Bell of Santa Maria, early Friday when she arrived in San Francisco. Picture by Wesley Guderian of The Herald and News.

PATRICIA AND NANCY NORTH, of Eau Claire, Wisconsin, will leave next week after a visit here with their sister, Mrs. Oliver Moen of North Seventh street. Patricia (left), will return home through California, Nancy planning to leave for Juneau, Alaska, where she will teach. Picture by Wesley Guderian of The Herald and News.

FROM PORTLAND comes Mrs. Anna M. Cook, (right), visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James Kerns Jr., of 449 Laguna street. A number of informal affairs were given for Mrs. Cook during her stay here these past few weeks. Picture by Wesley Guderian of The Herald and News.

BON VOYAGE was the farewell to Mrs. Paul W. Foster who leaves for Anchorage, Alaska, to make her home. Thursday evening a no-hostess party was given at Sari's for Mrs. Foster, (center). At her left, Mrs. Roy Rakestraw, on her right, Mrs. Mitchell Tillotson, who were among the guests. Picture by Wesley Guderian of The Herald and News.