

Holidays Shorten 'As September Nears

Many Visitors in Klamath Falls and Last Minute Vacations Scheduled by Busy People

A great many Klamath Falls people are having a last fling at vacation hours as a look at the calendar shows but a few weeks are left before dutiful parents must turn toward problems of school, music lessons, teeth straightening and a tonsillectomy here and there. School, incidentally, starts the second week in September and not the first! Hooray!

Dr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Stearns and two children are spending this weekend at their summer home at Lake o' the Woods. Mrs. Stearns, "Perky" and Frances will probably remain at the lake for several days if good weather is on the calendar.

A reunion of sisters is going on at the R. R. Proebstel home on Washington street. Mrs. Proebstel's sisters are Mrs. H. B. McCann of Los Angeles, Mrs. Myrtle Hanley of San Francisco, and Mrs. George James of Portland. Also guests are Richard McCann, Mrs. B. R. Burroughs Jr., and son, Michael, residents of Stockton, daughter and grandson of Mrs. Hanley.

Cards from Mrs. Leslie Rogers and Mrs. Frank Jennings have reached friends this week. The two are enjoying a stay at the Empress hotel in Victoria. While in Victoria Mrs. Rogers and Mrs. Jennings enjoyed seeing other Klamathites, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Waters, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moore.

Visitors in town this past week have included the houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Teale, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Davis of Englewood, New Jersey, Mr. R. E. Swift of New York City, and Miss Marjorie Swift of Princeton, New Jersey.

Greeting the new baby, Richard Davis Vehringer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Vehringer of 2027 Earle street, were Mr. L. C. Davis, the maternal grandfather, and two maternal aunts, Helen and Edith Davis. Miss Edith Davis is remaining at the Vehringer home for a while, the others having returned to their home in Portland.

Right in the middle of the summer Mary Awdry Radcliffe breaks her left ankle. Mary Awdry is doing seed analysis at Oregon State college this summer and while preparing flowers Saturday evening for the Episcopal church in Corvallis, slipped and fell. Her sister, Helen, is with her for a time. They are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. R. Heber Radcliffe of Pacific Terrace. Driving north with Helen on Sunday morning was Miss Hazel Morrison who will vacation in Tacoma with friends.

Lake o' the Woods has called a number of vacationists this past week. At the George H. Merryman cabin for the month of August are Dr. and Mrs. L. L. Hennegar, daughter Betty who is a Stanford sophomore, and son, Robert. Also at the Merryman cabin as guest of the Hennegar family is Miss Granville. They all live in Pasadena.

Last week at the Merryman cabin a group of close friends enjoyed a visit with Tom Dixon, former resident of our town. Mr. Dixon now lives in Great Falls, Montana.

Mrs. C. Jester left Saturday morning by motor for a two weeks' holiday which she will spend with her mother, Mrs. Margaret Hermann of LaGrande. A journey through eastern Oregon is the plan.

Summer visitor at the James Kerns Jr., home on Alameda street is Mrs. James Kerns' mother, Mrs. Anna M. Cook of Portland. A number of informal parties have been given for Mrs. Cook during her stay.

A motor trip to beautiful Vancouver Island, a stay in Victoria and in Vancouver, is on the vacation schedule of the Charles A. Hendersons who left Sunday with their two young daughters, Jean and Ann, for a fortnight's holiday. They will drive through the peninsula and down the coast highway.

In St. Vincent's hospital this week messages of "get-well soon" are being sent to Mrs. A. C. Backes, recovering nicely from a major operation.

Another patient at St. Vincent's is Mr. Henry N. Moe. During his convalescence, Mrs. Moe is at the Heathman hotel in Portland.

Mrs. H. O. Allen of Goldendale, Washington, is the August guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dayton E. Van Vactor of Pine street.

Camping at Big Cultus lake, which is south of Bend and a beautiful spot, are Mr. and Mrs. Burge Mason Jr., and their two children, John and Clarissa. They were expected home this Sunday.

Mrs. O. M. Faulconer of Sheridan, Oregon, left Saturday after spending three weeks with her daughter's family,

Mrs. Foster Honor Guest

Young Matron to Make Home in Anchorage Soon

Complimenting Mrs. Paul W. Foster who leaves August the twenty-eighth from Seattle to make her home in Anchorage, Alaska, a group of friends enjoyed a no-hostess dinner party at Sari's Thursday evening. Later bridge was played at the home of Mrs. Marvin K. Lucas on Pacific Terrace.

Mrs. Foster will be accompanied by her mother, Mrs. George Blehn, when she sails for the north to join Mr. Foster. Mr. and Mrs. Lucas and son, Marvin Jr., Mr. Blehn and Mrs. James Howard will accompany the two to Seattle.

Those attending the Thursday supper were Mrs. Foster, Mrs. Lucas, Mrs. David R. Vandenberg, Mrs. Samuel P. Miller, Mrs. George Clark, Mrs. Dick Reeder, Mrs. Harry W. Bathiany, Mrs. Albert O. Roenicke, Mrs. Byron L. Hardenbrook, Mrs. J. Hardin Carter, Mrs. Roy Rakestraw, Mrs. James Howard, Mrs. Jacques J. Steiger Jr., Mrs. T. E. Shoop, Mrs. R. D. Eller, Mrs. Mitchell Tillotson, and Mrs. Neal Stewart. Mrs. Foster was presented with a bon voyage gift by the group.

BRIDE-ELECT COMPLIMENTED WITH SHOWER

Miss Virginia Kennedy entertained with a cleverly arranged shower Thursday evening honoring Miss Barbara Bigger whose betrothal to Sergeant Richard Hugh Gallagher was made known last week. The affair was given at the home of Mrs. A. P. Oldham of Weyerhaeuser.

Gifts were concealed throughout the rooms and found by the honor guest. Bridge was the diversion of the evening and guests included Miss Bigger, Mrs. Kenneth Ulrich, Mrs. Myra Bigger, Mrs. Raymond Bigger, Mrs. Joe Kennedy, Mrs. John Gallagher, Mrs. G. N. Gibson, Mrs. Oldham and Miss Karlene Schubert, Miss Jean Merrill, Miss Barbara Lee Jacobs, Miss Margaret Horton, Miss Faye Steinselmer, Miss Betty Dunivan, Miss Rose Gallagher, Miss Virginia Gibson, Miss Glyn Gibson, and the hostess, Miss Kennedy.

MISS BUBB VISITING IN PRINEVILLE

Miss Virginia Bubb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Bubb of High street, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Junior Daggett of Prineville as the guest of their daughter, Lisbeth Ann. Mr. and Mrs. Bubb plan to leave Tuesday for Prineville and will return here with Virginia who enters the University of Oregon again this fall.

Miss Janice Bubb is remaining at Stanford until September the first. She was graduated from Klamath Union high school this past May, and plans to resume her studies in college winter term. She has studied this summer at Palo Alto.

the Dwight Frenches of Washington street.

A stay of a month or six weeks is planned by Mrs. Herbert E. Hauger who left Thursday night by train for Portland, going from there to Chicago and St. Thomas, Ontario, to be the guest of her sister and brothers.

Mr. and Mrs. John Coppage and young son, Johnny, left Thursday by motor for Lewiston, Idaho, where they will be guests of Mrs. Coppage's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. King. They will be joined by John's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Coppage of Minneapolis who will continue with their son and daughter-in-law for a visit in Seattle and Victoria. Johnny will stay with the Kings during his parents' vacation trip. Later the two families will return to Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Edward Hall Pike has returned from a stay of several days at Lake o' the Woods where she was the guest of Mrs. Claude H. Daggett and her two daughters, Carolyn and Marijane.

HONORED AT SUMMER TEA

Mrs. Carl Nitz, who has recently come to Klamath Falls with the Rev. Nitz and their family, was honored at tea given this week at the Joseph Huck home in St. Francis park. Left to right, Mrs. H. W. Leitzke, Mrs. Carl Nitz, and Mrs. Huck.

—Picture by Wesley Guderian of The Herald and News.

"Yoo-Hoo" Party for Suzanne Michelson

Younger Set Don Shorts and Follow Camp Rules At Affair Given Thursday Evening

One of the cleverest affairs of the week was the "Yoo-Hoo" party given for Miss Suzanne Michelson on the occasion of her birthday Thursday evening, August the fourteenth, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Michelson, 1936 Fremont street.

You've guessed it, the girls wore shorts and the theme of the party was "write a letter to your feller at camp." The prize for the best letter went to Margie Elliott, for the "worst" to June Van. The draft number award went to Betty Merrill. The patriotic theme of red, white, and blue, was used.

Honoring Suzanne were Johanne Siemens, Janice MacDonald, Mary Jane Drake, Mary Lou Johnson, Dorothea Ellingson, Merlon Albrecht, Betty Buchanan, Dorris Weinberg, June Van, Virginia Ellen Smith, Betty Merrill, Marlys Steinselmer, Mary Ellen Hotchkin, Barbara Beane, Marjean Larson, Frances Foster, Peggy Keating, Roberta Tucker, Wanda Shaw, Bonnie Robin, Wilmae Lehto, Beverly Siemens, Allie Lee Dean, Virginia Howard, Margie Elliott, Jeannette Bayless, Barbara Adams, Janice Bubb, Patty Schupp, Marian Campbell, Phyllis Emigh, Jane Worthington, Helen Cox, Phyllis Aubrey, Jean Wiesen-danger, and June Michelson.

Miss Zeta Hughart of Nampa, Idaho, was a houseguest of Mrs. Lloyd Young, 1951 Erie street, this past week.

AUGUST BRIDE

Mrs. Jack Priestley Napier is the former Ruth Ann McAllister of this city, well known in teaching circles here. The ceremony took place August the fourth in Reno.

—Kennell-Ellis.

Prominent Couple Wed

Gaylord - Brumbaugh
Marriage Solemnized
On August 8th

Friends received announcements by mail this week telling of the marriage of Miss Catherine Gaylord and Mr. Sheldon Brumbaugh on Friday, August the eighth. Both are well known in Klamath Falls and many are the best wishes extended to them.

The ceremony was performed Friday morning at nine o'clock at the First Christian church by the Rev. Arthur Charles Bates, in the presence of only the two attendants, Mrs. Clara Shaw and Mrs. Ann Nelson, now of Prineville, both close friends of the bride and bridegroom.

Following a short trip to the coast, Mr. and Mrs. Brumbaugh returned here and will be at home after the middle of September in their new home that is just being completed on the Meadow Lake road.

For a number of years, Mrs. Brumbaugh has been identified with the Kennell-Ellis studios in this city and has taken a prominent part in business and social circles. During his residence here of the past several years, Mr. Brumbaugh has been a designer, affiliated with the architectural firm of Howard R. Perrin.

SISTER HONORS GUESTS IN CITY FROM WISCONSIN

The Misses Nancy and Patricia North of Eau Claire, Wisconsin, who are spending the summer in Klamath Falls, were complimented last Friday evening, August the eighth, when their sister, Mrs. Oliver Moen, was hostess at a bridge evening at her home on North Seventh street.

Three tables of contract were in play with Mrs. Don Kenyon receiving the award for high and Mrs. George Sprague the second high. Guest prizes were presented to Miss Nancy and Miss Patricia.

Those enjoying the evening were Mrs. George Sprague, Mrs. William Bratton, Mrs. Pat Maginnis, Mrs. Victor Reginato, Mrs. Fred Konschot, Mrs. John Hess, Mrs. Melvin McCollum, Mrs. Don Kenyon, Miss Dorothy Teed, the honored guests and the hostess.

MRS. JOHNSON COMPLIMENTED ON VISIT HERE

Mrs. James Johnson (Virginia Moore) who was a visitor in the city last week from Portland, Mrs. Willard Dryden entertained at a lovely shower on Thursday evening, August the seventh, at her home, 1842 Portland street.

The guest of honor was the recipient of a number of beautiful gifts from her friends. Flowers and the decorative motif of the refreshment table were carried out in pink and blue.

Those present were Mrs. Ruth Brooks, Mrs. Rudolph Jeschke, Mrs. Robert Fulton, Mrs. Claire Grantham, Mrs. James Hawkins, Mrs. Vernon Moore, Mrs. Hans Hansen, Mrs. A. B. Moore, Mrs. Puterbaugh, Mrs. James Johnson, Miss Helen Lois Winningham, Miss Doris Steinselmer and the hostess.

Mrs. Johnson returned north the latter part of the week after visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Moore, and with other members of her family.

AAUW CLASSES SCHEDULED FOR FALL

Announcement was made this week of the flower arrangement classes for the American Association of University Women to be started September the eleventh. There will be eight meetings on Thursday mornings in the director's room of the chamber of commerce.

Members of AAUW and friends, who wish to attend, are asked to call Mrs. G. A. Krause, chairman. The class will be limited due to space. It is asked that those wishing to attend make reservations before the first meeting.

Daughter Born Wednesday

Dr. and Mrs. T. Frederick Farley are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, their first child, at Hillside hospital on Wednesday, August the thirteenth. The little girl has been named Carole Lynne. Mother is the former Geraldine Houston. Dr. Farley's mother, Mrs. W. F. Farley of Holden, West Virginia, is visiting at her son's home on Pacific Terrace.

Marilyn Bell Leaves For Home in South

Santa Maria Maid Enjoys Two Months' Visit at Fred Schallcock Residence Here

After spending two months in Klamath Falls with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schallcock of Pacific Terrace, Miss Marilyn Bell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Bell of Santa Maria, left Thursday evening for her home in the south. She will be met Friday morning in San Francisco by her mother.

Mills Home Party Scene

Betty Ree Martin Honored at Supper Friday Evening

One of the prettiest parties of the late summer was that given Friday evening of last week at the Lyle O. Mills home in the Pine Grove district when Mrs. Miles and Mrs. John Linnman entertained for the pleasure of Miss Betty Ree Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin, who leaves the first of September to enter the Annie Wright seminary in Tacoma.

The young guests were served supper under the trees at seven o'clock. The "grown-ups" were guests at the DeLos Mills, where covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Martin, the Linnmans, Lyle O. Mills and DeLos Mills families.

Honoring Betty Ree were Letty Linnman, Eleanor Thomas, Shirley Mason, Jean Underwood, Sally Mueller, Barbara Kvern, Naomi Kinzie, Barbara Osborn, Barbara Reeder, and Ted Igl. Walter Beathune, Donald Kelly, Dean Mason, George Underwood, Bill Wilson, Jimmy Case, Raymond Schultz, John Lewis, Buddy Martin, and George Long.

MID-SUMMER LUNCHEON AT BULLIS'

Mrs. David Bullis entertained with a luncheon Friday afternoon at one o'clock at her home on Hillside avenue. The fiesta motif was used with gay pottery on the luncheon table, favors and tallies in the Mexican shades.

Guests were Mrs. Everett Dennis, Mrs. Frank Tarr, Mrs. Frederick W. Hamilton, Mrs. Phil Fahnlander, Mrs. Warren Bennet, Mrs. Ralph M. Stearns, Mrs. Dean T. Bradley, Mrs. Hans Norland, Mrs. Helen Mueller, Mrs. DeLos Mills, Mrs. Rudy Walcott, and Miss Orpha Hudson.

Junior Guild
ORIGINAL

More sparkle than a cocktail at a party! This Junior Guild Original black Nepe suit has soft blouse with stitching 'round the collar, a plunging neckline and two enormous rhinestone buttons for glitter!

29.50

Long's

719 Main Klamath Falls