

Kathryn Baxter Is Lovely Fall Bride

Dunsmuir Minister Weds Klamath Falls Girl in First Methodist Church Tuesday Evening

In a candlelight ceremony read at eight o'clock Tuesday evening, August the twelfth, in the First Methodist church, Miss Anna Kathryn Baxter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baxter of this city, became the bride of the Rev. Thomas J. Cuddy of Dunsmuir, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Cuddy of Upper Darby, Pennsylvania.

The Rev. Victor Phillips read the ceremony in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends of the young couple, many coming from Dunsmuir for the wedding.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attractive in a costume suit of deep blue with a red fox collar framing her face. Her hat was a small felt and accessories were of rust with a corsage of yellow rosebuds and gardenias worn at the shoulder.

The bride's only attendant was her sister, Elaine, who wore an afternoon frock of Boston tea with brown accessories, a large off-the-face hat, and a corsage of Tallman rosebuds.

Mr. James Lockart of Dunsmuir was the best man. Just before the ceremony Mrs. Edwin J. Schnebeck sang, "O Promise Me," and "I Love You Truly." Lohengrin's wedding march was played by Miss Betty Yaden. The altar was banked with lovely fall flowers, many shaded gladioli, marigolds, and greens. Tall white candles were lighted just before the ceremony, and also framed the outer aisle.

Following the service a reception was held in the church rooms with parents of the bride receiving with the wedding party. Mrs. Baxter chose a dress of teal blue print with a navy redingote and navy and white accessories.

The bride's cake, which she cut, centered a beautifully decorated table where yellow was used in both the cloth, flowers, and candles. Mrs. Robert Hough and Mrs. Lela Laurensen presided at the coffee urns, and assisting about the rooms were Miss Alene Hough, Miss Myrtle Carter, and Miss Janet Baxter of Ashland, Miss Winnifred Wood, Miss Helen Hough, Miss Dorothy Laurensen, and Miss Dorothy Baxter.

The young couple left immediately after the reception for a motor trip to the east coast. En route they will visit at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Robert Schultz, the former Frances Baxter of this city, who now resides in Grand Forks, North Dakota. After a stay in Pennsylvania, Rev. and Mrs. Cuddy will return here and later go to Dunsmuir where Rev. Cuddy serves the Methodist church of that city.

Guests at the wedding who motored from Dunsmuir for the occasion included Mr. and Mrs. James Lockart, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Simington, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Rolston, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Eachus, Mr. and Mrs. August Silberstein of Winters, California, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Bonderson, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Woodward, Mrs. B. M. Coon, Mrs. R. D. McBride, Mrs. W. J. Leland, Mrs. A. C. Ashby, Mrs. H. G. Edgerton, Mrs. H. W. Waldron, Mrs. George Woodward, Mrs. Earl Babcock, Mrs. John Canata, Mrs. Forest Beane, Mrs. Ode Nichols and son, Mrs. William Pearson, Mrs. Minnie Lockart, Mrs. Elsie Dilley of Mount Shasta, Mrs. C. A. Leach of Redding, Miss Mildred Rehhardt, Miss Vera Bonderson, Miss Martha Yoder, Miss Frances Edmundson, Misses Marie and Mildred Eachus, James and Robert Eachus, and Mr. Fred Tims.

FORMER RESIDENTS PAY VISIT

Visitors here the past two weeks have been Mr. and Mrs. Samuel J. Coull and son, Tommy, of San Luis Obispo, guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Seruilly at their ranch on the Merrill highway. The Coulls are former residents of this city.

A number of informal affairs were given for the visitors during their stay and prior to their departure this past Friday. Mr. Murray Schoolman entertained for the Coulls and a gathering of friends at Cal-Ore tavern Sunday evening, the occasion being the Coulls' seventeenth wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Clara Shaw entertained the Coulls at dinner Thursday evening of this week.

The first meeting of the year of the Klamath Shrine club will be held at the Willard hotel Wednesday evening, September the third, at half past six o'clock. It was announced by the president, Mr. E. H. Balsiger.

Visitors At Fleet Home

Former Paris Residents Enjoy Stay in Klamath Falls

Interesting visitors in Klamath Falls this past week were Mrs. A. Beatrice Prather and Miss Marian Jessup, both of New York City, who were houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fleet at their home on Alameda street.

The two women have resided eighteen miles out of Paris for the past twenty-five years and were among the thousands who fled from that part of the time of the German invasion. The chateau owned by Mrs. Prather is now occupied by some fifty German officers, she has since learned.

Both Mrs. Prather and Miss Jessup were decorated by the French government for their work in the anti-aircraft division, and many heart-breaking ones, describing the evacuation of French and American people from the invaded area.

Also recent guests at the Fleet home were Mr. and Mrs. John McKean of Tacoma. The visitors left the early part of the week after enjoying motor trips to various lakes in this part of the country.

BRIDGE PARTY GIVEN FOR MRS. MASSEY

Mrs. Rudolph L. Jacobs entertained Tuesday afternoon at her home, 2035 Del Moro street, with a dessert bridge party and shower complimenting Mrs. George DeWoody Massey. Mrs. Jacobs was assisted in serving by Mrs. Merle Swansen.

High score in cards was held by Mrs. George A. Massey, low by Mrs. Joe F. Evans. Pink sweetpeas and snapdragons were used about the rooms and at the small tables where dessert was served. Guests were Mrs. George DeWoody Massey, Mrs. George A. Massey, Mrs. William Kuykendall, Mrs. Dick Reeder, Mrs. Samuel A. Mushen, Mrs. Richard Hibbs, Mrs. Joe E. Evans, Mrs. Merle Swansen and Miss Elizabeth Mushen of San Francisco.

ROTARY PICNIC SCHEDULED

On Friday evening of this coming week members of Rotary and their wives will enjoy the annual summer picnic on the Big Lawn on Conger avenue. The hour is half past five o'clock, and women of the First Methodist church are in charge of preparing and serving the picnic supper.

The Friday meeting takes the place of the regular weekly luncheon of Rotary.

"SO BIG—"

Little Karen Lee Lavenik, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Lavenik of 2235 Radcliffe street, is just eight months old.

—Kennell-Ellis.

Cook Book Available

Bundles for Britain Unit Issues Calls for Knit Articles

Quite a bit of interest has been aroused in Klamath Falls over the publication of the Bundles for Britain cook book, edited by the women of Portland and to be distributed throughout the state.

The cook books will be available here within a week or so and may be had through the offices of Mrs. Robert Odell. Proceeds, of course, will go into the Bundles for Britain fund. The Klamath chapter will be credited with the number of books sold in this area.

A number of pieces of knit goods have been shipped out of Klamath county the past week or two, including sea boot socks, sweaters and scarves. As usual, they are finding their way safely to the British Isles where appreciative letters tell of their constant use.

FRIENDS ENJOY BRIDGE EVENING AT LAKESHORE

As a courtesy to her sister, Mrs. Stanley Biehn of Seattle, who has been visiting here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Robertson, and other relatives, Mrs. John Sandmeyer invited a number of friends to her home on Lakeshore drive on Thursday, August the seventh, for an evening of contract.

Honors at the close of play were awarded to Mrs. William Bratton for high and to Mrs. George Sprague, second high. A lovely guest prize was presented to Mrs. Biehn. The refreshment hour proved particularly enjoyable, when guests were seated about a long table, covered by a lace cloth, set with crystal and centered by pink sweet peas and lighted tapers.

Those honoring Mrs. Biehn besides the hostess were Mrs. Oliver Moen, Mrs. William Bratton, Mrs. George Sprague, Mrs. Harold Robertson, Mrs. Pat Maginnis, Mrs. Charles Tilton, Mrs. Bob Henry, Mrs. Don Kenyon, and Misses Nancy and Patricia North of Eau Claire, Wisconsin.

DINNER AT SARI'S FOR MRS. DOUGLAS

Marion Douglas, who has been in the employ of the Balisger Motor company for a number of years, was honored by a group of young women employees on Monday evening, August the eleventh, when a dinner party was given for her at Sari's. Mrs. Douglas has recently resigned her position. A gift was presented from the group.

Honoring Mrs. Douglas were Louise Kelly, Audrey Pomel, Norma Earnest, Hilma Hegg, Helen Cox, Olive Robinette, Neva Geijlsbeek, Helen Czmowski, Elsie Scott, Mary Baker, Hazel Shepherd, Virginia Hood, and Mary Whitby.

THOMPSONS ENTERTAIN AT LAKE

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson are entertaining with a house party at their summer home at Lake o' the Woods this week end, with members of their firm as guests.

Enjoying the party are Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Sinclair, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lemire, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Nancarrow, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Shinn, Miss Merle Chapelle, Miss Mildred Crawford, Mr. Clarence Nelson, Mr. Jack Dempsey and Mr. Robert Erlandson, and the Thompsons.

RECENT BRIDE HONORED AT LINEN SHOWER

Mrs. W. E. Urmon entertained Friday evening at her home, 518 Eldorado street, for Mrs. Noel Becar, the former Marion Roberts. The recent bride was complimented with a linen shower during the evening.

Guests honoring Mrs. Becar were Mrs. George Clark, Mrs. Wyatt Padgett, Mrs. W. Hart Jones, Mrs. Mary J. Clark, Mrs. Karl Urquhart, Miss Shirley Beger of Reno, Nevada, and Miss Ina Bullack of McMinnville.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Dunn, formerly of this city, were greeted by many of their friends during a stay here of several weeks, guests at the Hotel Hall. A number of informal affairs were given for them and Mrs. Dunn also entertained friends informally. Mr. Dunn is now serving an eleven-state territory as a lumber inspector.

CHURCH CEREMONY.

The Rev. and Mrs. Thomas J. Cuddy of Dunsmuir, pictured before the altar of the First Methodist church where they were married this week. Mrs. Cuddy is the former Anna Kathryn Baxter of this city.

—Kennell-Ellis.

Garden Tour Plans Set by Study Group

Members and Prospective Members Anticipate Visits to Homes on Wednesday Morning

Wednesday, August the twentieth, is set for the annual late summer garden tour by members and prospective members of the garden group of the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club. Fair weather is promised by the weatherman who has been a little on the cool side this year.

Instead of going to Moore park for the paper bag lunch originally scheduled, Mrs. George Massey has invited the group to bring their picnic to her garden at Esplanade and Pacific Terrace. Each person is asked to bring her own thermos as well as lunch.

The tour will start from the Carleton W. Hornbrook garden on Pacific Terrace at ten o'clock and continue as follows: visits to Dr. Dean Osborn's garden, Mrs. Lafayette Stephens, Mrs. T. B. Watters, Mrs. Albert O. Roenicke, Mrs. Guy Hancock, and from Pacific Terrace to Conger avenue where the gardens of Mrs. Howard Barnhisel, Mrs. Rose Poole, and Mrs. George Ulrich will be enjoyed.

After lunching at the Massey home, the group will continue to the garden at the home of Mrs. Merle S. West, and from there to the C. S. Elliot home on Washington street, ending at the Andrew Collier country home on the Olene road.

It was announced that dues to both Library club and garden group are now due and representatives of each club will be at the luncheon to accept any money turned in.

FAREWELL DINNER GIVEN FOR YOUTHS

A farewell dinner was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Young, 243 Sequel street, honoring their son and nephew, Leslie Young and Kenneth Finnell who left Thursday evening for service with the U. S. navy.

Covers were laid for Spencer Ericson, Richard Eccles, Claude Hill, Leslie Young, Louis Young, William Young, Kenneth Finnell, Mrs. E. M. Caldwell, Mrs. Golda M. Finnell, Miss Jessie Caldwell, Mrs. L. A. Moss of San Jose, California, and the host and hostess.

Penrods Return From Motor Trip

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Penrod returned home Thursday evening from a fortnight's motor trip which took them to Monmouth where they were joined by their daughter, Alma, summer school student at Monmouth. The three continued to Fort Stevens where they visited Alma's twin brother, Robert, stationed there. After a journey through eastern Oregon and the coast points, Mr. and Mrs. Penrod journeyed back to Klamath Falls.

Dr. and Mrs. George Goehring and two children, George and Adelle, have enjoyed a holiday this past week. A part of their vacation was spent in San Francisco, returning here to motor to Diamond lake for several days' fishing.

Shower for Miss Bowne

Kitchen, Linen Gifts Presented to Bride-Elect

Miss Sybil Bowne, bride-elect whose marriage will be an event of late August, was complimented at a prettily arranged shower last week in the pine paneled room of the Elks club. Hostesses were Mrs. A. C. Olson, Mrs. Arthur Porter, Mrs. Leroy Carter, Mrs. J. F. Penrod, and Mrs. Phil Brixner.

Games were played for several hours and after Mrs. Francis Savidge told Miss Bowne's fortune, she was presented with gifts of linen and kitchen ware.

Supper was served at small tables from a large buffet which stressed the all white theme in candles, flowers and linen. Thirty guests were bidden to the affair.

BIRTHDAY OBSERVED THIS WEEK

Nancy Ann Woolington observed her second birthday anniversary with a party and picnic at Moore park this past week. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Woolington of 18 Waring street.

Guests invited to share Nancy Ann's birthday cake included Milton and Charles Bally, Joyce and Joanne Windle, Tommy Milne, Emily Ann Carter, David and Dickie Weatherford, Mary Ellen and Bobby Lee, Gary Kliever, Laura Mae Courtney, Mary Ann Hallinan, and Anita Christianson.

MISS BUCHANAN COMPLIMENTED ON BIRTHDAY

Miss Betty Buchanan was the honor guest at a birthday party given Monday evening, August the fourth, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Greer Drew on Lowell street.

Lanterns lighted the garden where refreshments were served to Miss Buchanan, Janice MacDonald, Marjorie Botens, Marcell Reynolds, June Van, Betty Merrill, Betty Jane Sanders, Marguerite Collard, Virginia Ellen Smith, Dorris Weinberg, Dale and Gale Moyle, Suzanne and June Michelson, and Laura Kimball.

BIRTHDAY OBSERVED AT HENLEY

HENLEY-MT. LAKE—Little Patricia Mueller celebrated her seventh birthday Sunday with a party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mueller. Sharing birthday honors with Patsy was her little nephew Fred Joe Jacob of Fort Klamath who was one year old.

Those enjoying the afternoon with Patsy and Fred Joe were Eleanor and Evelyn Berry, Mary Louise Enman, Winifred and Betty Lou Guber, Donna Dixon, Eleanor Ann Jackson, Barbara Matney, Burt Mack, Richard and Robert Hill, Dale and Henry Williams, and David Lyons. Mrs. Frances Jacob assisted Mrs. Mueller in serving refreshments.

Mrs. Pearson Hostess at Tea

Mrs. A. G. Pearson entertained with a neighborhood tea for members of the Congregational Community circle at her home on Owens street Friday afternoon, August the eighth, when those present spent several hours sewing for the Red Cross.

Tea was served by the hostess to Mrs. A. A. Meyers, Mrs. Carl W. Henry, Mrs. E. H. Love, Mrs. Etna Gentry, Mrs. E. L. Mitchell and daughter, Louise, Mrs. W. C. Little, Miss Mary Eckstein, Mrs. W. R. Nelson, Mrs. C. M. Reynolds and daughter, Charlene, Mrs. Eugene V. Haynes and Mrs. Lee Kennedy.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Jay, former residents of Klamath Falls, who were guests this week at the Oscar Peyton home, have taken an apartment at Merrill where they will make their home until early spring. The Jays have left for their home in San Jose, California, motoring south over the Redwood highway, but will return to Klamath within a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rakestraw plan to leave next Saturday by motor for the north. They will visit in Astoria, Portland, Seattle and Victoria before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Josephson, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Ricker and Mrs. Otto Kenschot were among those from Klamath Falls attending the Shrine picnic at Lake o' the Woods last Sunday.

First Benefit of Year Scheduled

Fellowship Committee of University Women Announce Date of Fall Bridge Party at Reames

Plans are being made by members of the fellowship committee of the American Association of University Women for the first benefit affair of the season which AAUW will sponsor Saturday afternoon, September the twentieth, at Reames Golf and Country club.

Lectures Slated

Eunice Curtis To Give Lessons in Arrangement Here

Women of the county who are interested in flower arrangement, and they come from far and near, will have a wealth of information passed on to them during the visit of Eunice Curtis of Seattle, recognized on the Pacific coast as an outstanding authority on this subject.

Following is the schedule arranged by Mrs. Curtis by the garden study group of the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club sponsoring her appearance in this city.

Wednesday, September the third, two o'clock, and Friday, September the fifth, two o'clock. Topics: "Design Value of Plant Material, (Wednesday)," and "Holiday Tables and Traditional Wreaths in Variety," (Friday).

Members will be admitted to lectures on membership cards, others will be asked to pay a small fee.

The course of three lessons in flower arrangement will be given as follows: Tuesday, September the second, two o'clock; Thursday, September the fourth, nine and two o'clock. All lessons and lectures will be given in the small club rooms of the city library. There is a charge for lessons, to both members and non-members of the garden study group.

Says Virginia Bren of The Seattle Times: "Our nomination for one of the most enthusiastically discussed women of the week is Eunice Curtis—because she is doing some smart things on a subject dear to our heart—for she is the talented artist who is giving a world of practical suggestions on holiday table decorations, wreaths and greens—." And that should bring out a crowd to hear Eunice Curtis as she officially launches the fall program.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy L. Evans are expected here Sunday for a short visit with Mrs. Evans' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Evans, and family before returning to their home in Portland. On Saturday they were guests of Mrs. Evans' family, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cornany, in Medford.

Fellowship chairman is Mrs. J. C. Lemire, (Virginia Fick), and she will be assisted by Mrs. Mahr Reymers, reservations; Mrs. James Busch, Mrs. John Fowler, Mrs. Robert Thompson, and Mrs. J. Truman Runyan.

A meeting Monday evening at the home of Mrs. LeMire in the Roosevelt apartments will complete plans for the benefit. A part of the money is retained by the local group for use in fellowship and a scholarship work, and a part goes to the national and state fellowship and scholarship funds.

The year's program of AAUW will start Saturday, September the thirteenth, with a luncheon in the Pelican party room. In the future the luncheons will be served at the Pelican, it was announced. President this year is Mrs. Godfrey C. Blohm.

WOMEN ATTEND BOARD MEETING IN PORTLAND

Mrs. Ernest D. Lamb and Mrs. A. G. Proctor left Thursday morning by motor for Portland to remain until Sunday. Mrs. Lamb, Siskiyou district vice president of the Oregon Federation of Garden clubs, attended a meeting of the state board held Friday at two o'clock at the home of the president, Mrs. Daniel J. Heffner.

Mrs. Proctor also attended the meeting. She is state chairman in charge of obtaining pictures and slides of gardens and wild flowers.

Circle Members Do Red Cross Sewing. Members of the Congregational Community circle met Wednesday afternoon, August the thirteenth, at the Community hall on Garden avenue with Mrs. Carl W. Henry as hostess.

The afternoon was spent in sewing for the Red Cross and later dainty refreshments were served to Mrs. Ralph Weise, Mrs. E. L. Mitchell, Mrs. A. G. Pearson, Mrs. A. A. Meyers, Mrs. W. C. Little, Mrs. S. R. Berry, Mrs. Sidney Weinstein, Mrs. Charles M. Reynolds and daughter, Charlene.

Miss Sarita Johnson, who is spending the summer with her mother in Ashland, visited this past week with Clara Ann Landrum of 533 North Sixth street.

Which type figure have you?

Extra size? Full bust?

Other slips have been a compromise between these five shapes. Today we can fit each one, perfectly, with the new

Laros DIMENSIONAL SLIP

4 gore-fashioned, alternating bias. Your comfort, your appearance, your pocket-book . . . all are affected by the slip that fits better, looks better, wears better. After measuring your hips and bust, computing your height and weight, we can give you the perfect slip for you. Why be satisfied with anything less?

THE TOWN SHOP

Main at Fifth