We've benched FROM MID-FIELD for the nonce, readers, while we take over the city desk until City Editor Art Bremer's return from vacation. Meantime we'll turn you over to Eddie Briets and company—B. L.)

By SID FEDER
(Pinch-Hitting for Eddie Briets)
NEW YORK, Aug. 21 (The Special News Service)—You hear the strangest things... Like the Saratoga story that Eddie Arca's perfume is one of the reasons he and Whirlaway get along so well... Every time he's been on Whirly, Eddie's used a lot of it, and when Little Wacko gets a whiff, he forgets all about running crooked... Then there's the whisper going round the American league that Bobby Feller's depending so much on his curve these days because he's lost—or mislaid—his fast one.

Old-timers around St. Loo watched young Howie Pollet check in with a four-hitter, and recalled a guy named Dizzy Dean bowed into the big leagues with a three-hit whitewash job 'way back in 1930... And right in the middle of a hot flag fight, too... You can laugh off those stories that Light-heavy Champ Gus Lesnevich is having weight troubles for his fight with Tami Maurilio in the garden next Tuesday... Word from New England is Chalcedon will end his winning in the Pacific in time to try some running again at Narragansett's fall meeting.

Don't believe a word of that yarn about Yankee Coach Art Fletcher getting the job as Detroit manager... He's turned down a lot better bossing jobs than the Tigers can offer... The Dodgers, who raised that beef about extra man on the Cubs' roster, have it right in their own laps now... And Judge Landis has given 'em 10 days to cut from 26 to 23... When you're talking about eastern grid prospects don't overlook Navy... The word is the sailors are really loaded this time... The Army's getting ready to grab Don Schiffer, who handles all the National league statistics for Al Munro elias... But will wait 'till after the season's over and the batting averages are out.

Ladies Night at Armory Set for Next Tuesday

All ladies are permitted free to next Tuesday's armory matches at the Klamath armory, it was announced Thursday by Mack Lillard, boxing and wrestling promoter of the local mat wars.

Plus ladies' night there will be an all-star card with new faces and probabilities of a few re-matches which ended in draws last Tuesday evening.

Changing the regular past grid, it was also announced that an all boxing card will be slated containing about five or six mitt clashes.

Lillard is trying to get a rematch between shifty Ural Snapp and Lefty Harris, which ended in a draw in the last meeting. Another grudge bout which is hanging in the air is a rematch with Roundhouse Johnny Miller and Baby Face McGill. McGill called for another try at Miller in the ring during last Tuesday's activities after being kayoed in the fourth by Jabbin' Johnny.

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 21 (UP)—Seattle whittled down Sacramento's Pacific Coast baseball league lead to six games Wednesday night when the Rainiers scored a 2-0 victory on Les Webber's four-hit pitching.

The victory was the second straight in the series for Seattle which remained tied for second place with San Diego.

Seattle scored both its runs in the second. Les Scarsella and Bob Collins singled and tallied when Second Baseman Bob Blattner's throw home went wild. Blattner had stopped Dick Gyselman's drive and attempted to pick off Scarsella at the home plate.

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 21 (UP)—The San Diego Padres nosed out the Portland Beavers, 8 to 7, in a free-hitting game at Lane field Wednesday night.

San Diego took the lead in the first inning, scoring two runs on Ed Pellagrini's single, George MacDonald's double and Art Garibaldi's double. In the second frame the Padres scored one more on two singles and a fielder's choice.

In the third, Portland scored four runs on five hits, including three singles, a double by Al Wright and Danny Escobar's triple.

OAKLAND, Aug. 21 (UP)—Hollywood and Oakland halved a Pacific Coast baseball league doubleheader Wednesday night, the Oaks taking the opener and the Stars the nightcap, both winning by 1-0 shutouts.

The Oaks scored their run in the curtain-raiser when Pete Chapman doubled to left and later tallied after Bill Conroy's

60-Day Duck Season, 10-Bird Limit Set

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21 (UP)—Secretary of Interior Harold L. Ickes today announced the 1941 rules for hunting migratory game birds, including 60-day duck seasons throughout the country and a daily bag limit of 10 ducks.

Changes in the rules removed canvasbacks and ruddy ducks from the species that are limited to three in the daily bag; legalized in 15 states the possession of one wood duck; provided an open season for Puerto Rico; transferred Ohio to the northern zone and New Mexico to the southern zone; and prohibited the use of cattle, horses or mules as blinds.

Other new rules closed the season on Wilson's snipes (jack-snipes); reduced the mourning dove season to a maximum of 42 days; increased the blue-goose bag limit to six a day if no other geese are taken; closed the season on snow geese in Idaho to prevent hunters from killing the rare trumpeter swan which is sometimes confused with the snow goose; and provided special three-a-week bag limits for geese in heavy concentration areas in Hyde county, N. C.; Alexander county, Ill.; and Siskiyou county, California.

Seasons:
The 60-day waterfowl season begins on:
Oct. 1—In Wyoming and Montana.

Oct. 16—In Colorado, Utah, Idaho, Nevada, Washington, Oregon and California.

Oct. 1—In fur districts one and three of Alaska, and on September 1 in the rest of the territory.

The mourning dove season, shortened to a maximum of 42 consecutive days, extends from:
Sept. 1 to Oct. 12 in Arizona, California, Nevada and New Mexico.

Sept. 1 to Sept. 10 in Idaho; Sept. 1 to Sept. 15 in Oregon.

The season on rails and gallinules, except coots, is from Sept. 1 to Nov. 30, inclusive. California, Hawaii, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, Oregon and Washington have no open season.

Band-tailed pigeons: Sept. 16 to Sept. 30 in Arizona, New Mexico and Washington; Dec. 1 to 15 in California; Sept. 1 to 15 in Oregon.

Bag limits:
Ducks—Ten a day, or 20 in possession, the same as last year. However, one wood duck may be included this year. Three buffleheads or three redheads or three of these species together, may be in the daily bag, and six among the ducks possessed. Canvasbacks and ruddy ducks, formerly grouped with the redheads and buffleheads, were restored to the list of species with the 10-bag and 20-possession limits.

Geese and Brant (except snow geese in Idaho, snow geese and brant in Atlantic coast states, and Ross' geese throughout the country, all of which may not be hunted)—three a day, or six in possession. In addition hunters may take three blue geese a day, and they may have six blue geese in possession, in addition to the general six-geese limit. The original three or six may also include or consist entirely of blue geese, and it is thus possible for a hunter to take six blue geese a day or have 12 in possession, if he takes or possesses no other kinds of geese.

The special three-a-week geese limit in Hyde county, N. C., Alexander county, Ill., and Siskiyou county, Calif., is an "experiment in federal game management which will be closely watched," Ickes said. Records show that in recent years the goose kill in these counties have been altogether too heavy.

Rails and gallinules (except sora and coot)—15 in the aggregate of all kinds; sora, 15; coot, 25; woodcock, four; mourning and white-winged doves, 12 in the aggregate of all kinds; band-tailed pigeons, 10.

Possession limits on sora, coot, rails, gallinules, doves and pigeons are the same as the daily bag limits, but hunters may have eight woodcocks, or two days' bag in possession.

If all the St. Louis Cardinals had to do to win the National league pennant for 1941 was to out-hit-out-pitch, and win more games than the Brooklyn Dodgers, they might stand a 50-50 chance of landing in the world series this fall.

As it is, there's one obstacle they cannot hurdle this season and that's the injury jinx. So consistently they have injured riddled the playing ranks of the Red Birds, that for no more than five games in a row have they fielded a lineup complete with regulars at every position.

Terry Moore, fleet picketman who has been steering all season both at offense and defense, was the latest casualty Wednesday as the Cards defeated the Boston Braves, 2-0 in the first game of a doubleheader.

Moore was beamed over the left ear in the third inning by Boston Southpaw Pitcher Art Johnson. He was taken to the hospital where it was found he was suffering from a cerebral concussion.

Cards Win Pair
Howard Pollet, former Houston southpaw, won his first game for the Cardinals, as he pitched his mates to a 3-2 decision in the nightcap. The victory, besides being a brilliant four-hit job, cut the leading Brooklyn Dodgers' edge to 13 games as the Flatbush forces defeated Pittsburgh, 7-6.

The Cincinnati Reds ran their current record to 11 victories in 13 starts by posting twin shutouts over the Philadelphia Phillies, 2-0 and 3-0. Johnny Vander Meer won his fifth straight and 13th victory of the year by holding the Phils to three hits in the first game.

The Chicago Cubs hammered four pitchers for 16 hits and a 9-4 triumph over the New York Giants.

Yanks Blanked
Tommy Bridges handcuffed the New York Yankees with two hits over 10 innings as the Detroit Tigers registered a 1-0 triumph.

Johnny Rigney held the Philadelphia Athletics to three hits as the Chicago White Sox scored their ninth straight victory and third successive shutout, 9-0.

The Washington Senators defeated the Cleveland Indians 6-3. It was the Indians' eighth loss in a row and their 13th in 15 games, including a tie.

Bitsy Grant, Partner Win Net Grueler

By TOM NOONAN

CHESTNUT HILL, Mass., Aug. 21 (UP)—Bryan Grant, supposedly near the end on the tennis trail, turned in perhaps the finest performance of his career Wednesday to carry partner Russell Bobbitt to victory in the longest match in the annals of the national doubles championships.

Grant and Bobbitt, a newly-formed tandem from Atlanta, Ga., conquered Edwin Amark of San Francisco, and Robin Hippinstiel of Los Angeles, 14-12, 15-17, 6-4, 4-6, 13-11 in a terrific four-hour battle before a scant few hundred tennis addicts at famed Longwood Cricket Club.

Tournament Committee Chairman Irving Wright said the 102 games necessary to settle the issue constituted a new record for national doubles competition though he was unable to recall the previous mark.

Defending Titlists Jack Kramer and Ted Schroeder, 20-year-old Californians, were forced to uncock their best strokes to eliminate Arthur Marx of Beverly Hills, Calif., 20-year-old son of comedian Groucho Marx, and Budge Patty of Los Angeles, national junior titlist, 4-6, 6-3, 6-4, 6-4.

Only 15 games remained to be played for the circuit to complete its full round-robin slate, and only one of those, the Weyerhaeuser-Pelican Bay contest, was expected to have any bearing on the final rankings of the clubs.

Weyerhaeuser, winner of the district tournament in Medford early this week and an entry in the Oregon state softball tournament, was named the official league champion with the Knights of Columbus, 1940 champs, designated as the second-place team and runner-up in this year's race. The Timbermen were defeated in 10 games, registering nine wins and one tie. The Knights had seven wins, one tie and one loss in nine league games.

Kalpine Plywood and Pelican Bay took the third and fourth spots, respectively, in the final loop tabulations. The Plywooders had one more win than the Pelican outfit, 8-7, and each suffered defeat three times. Kalpine trounced the fourth-place Lumbermen, 17-0, when the two clubs met.

Algoma Lumber company with nine losses and one tie won undisputed possession of the cellar position.

Best Man? Chapman Says He's the Guy

OMAHA, Aug. 21 (UP)—Dick Chapman, national amateur golf champion, arrived Wednesday at the Omaha Field club, scene of the 1941 amateur tournament next week, sized up the course and named the man to beat—none other than Dick Chapman.

After surveying the narrow, tree-studded fairways over which the championship will be determined, Chapman said his chances for repeating were "about doubled."

Accompanying the champion were his wife, the former Eloise Sheaffer of Philadelphia, whom he married last May 7, and Leo Walper, diminutive Washington professional, who has taken over the job of polishing Chapman for his title defense. Chapman figures his toughest competition will come from Frank Stranahan, Toledo, O., former protégé of Byron Nelson.

"This Ohio youngster has everything it takes to win except experience," Chapman said. "Of course, there always will be Bud Ward, Ray Billows and Harry Todd to deal with."

Aiello Enlists For Training In Navy Reserve

James John Aiello, active local sports enthusiast and employe of Fluhrer's Bakery here for the past four years, has enlisted in the naval reserve through the local recruiting station.

Jimmy is a former basketball player and a member of the local softball league. He was picked for the all-star basketball squad in the Klamath basketball league and graduated from the High School of Commerce in Portland.

He enlisted in class V-6 and will take the entrance examination for the stenography school to become a yeoman in the navy.
