

Canadians Learn Coastal Landings

WITH THE CANADIAN FORCES SOMEWHERE IN THE UNITED KINGDOM, Aug. 21 (AP) In a week-long invasion exercise

several thousand Canadian troops have been given secret training in sea landings and coastal assault tactics for the day when Britain launches her own offensive against the nazi-held continent. The troops—infantry, engineer, gunner, signal, machine-gun and medical units—were brought here by train and boat to be taught to disembark quickly into bobbing boats and make assault landings on beaches and jetties, and were shown the initial principles of combined operations with the royal army. By the end of the week they were carrying out rapid landings in full battle kit. Why is it that moths seldom make the mistake of eating a patch?

Klamath Youth Promoted in Army

FORT LEWIS, Wash.—In an announcement just made by Captain Howard C. Crawford commanding Antitank Company, 15th Infantry, stationed here, Private Harvey T. Denny son of Mrs. Florence Denny, Box 781, Klamath Falls, has been promoted to private first class. Military authorities at Fort Lewis stated that Private First Class Denny's promotion was based on his attention to duty and soldierly qualities. LOS ANGELES, (AP)—Patrolmen Osborne Rutherford and William McGree puffed through Trail canyon seeking the source of an anguished "Help! Help!" Three hours later they found a lonesome deer hunter. He'd been listening to one of those melodramas on his portable radio.
