

Garden Fresh Fruit Salad Bowl

Here is a simple recipe for this healthful and refreshing fresh fruit salad:

6 Oregon plums
6 Oregon peaches
6 Oregon apricots
1 lb. white grapes

1/2 lb. Oregon Bing cherries
3 bananas
1/2 fresh pineapple
1 head lettuce
Real mayonnaise

Wash fruit and lettuce thoroughly. Line bowl with lettuce and shred balance of head into bottom of bowl. Split pineapple through center leaving green top attached. Slice crosswise in individual servings—do not cut entirely through bottom skin thus preserving the whole appearance of the pineapple. Peel and quarter peaches and bananas, remove apricot and plum pits. Arrange fruits in long wooden salad bowl as pictured. Serve with a generous bowl of real mayonnaise.

STORES FEATURE
'SALAD SERENADE'

Grocers in Klamath Falls are now featuring "Salad Serenade Time," and all stores are literally loaded with large and attractive displays of garden fresh fruits and vegetables, most of which are grown locally. Many other salad-time menu suggestions are also being featured by local merchants.

Salads provide an abundant quantity of vitamins. Home economists and health experts recommend that you serve at least one salad a day.

Your grocer now has available or can secure for you without cost, the special Serenade edition of the "Best Foods Menu Planner." A grand variety of salad recipes, menu suggestions, and other meal-planning information is included in this colorful eight-page menu planner.

M'CUCCLOCH SELLS
AGENCY TO ODELL

The Klamath Automobile Dealers' association will honor Ralph McCulloch, who has sold his local holdings to Robert Odell, at a dinner next Tuesday evening at the Pelican cafe. McCulloch is leaving for Salinas, Calif., where he will be a three county distributor for Studebaker motors.

McCulloch's Studebaker agency will operate as the Odell Motor company. Odell is taking over August 25.

"I plan to continue the same policy which Ralph McCulloch has followed to build up this fine agency," Odell said in announcing that there would be little change of policy or attitude when he takes over.

Former Alaskan
Marshal Passes

ASTORIA Aug. 22 (P)—Henry Jakula, 57, a U. S. marshal in the lawless days of the Yukon gold rush, died here Wednesday.

Jakula, who once presided at a murder trial in the far north in which the murderer was sentenced to leave camp within six hours—equivalent to a death sentence in the severe winter—came here as a youth from Finland and at one time operated an exclusive saloon.

He engaged in fishing and trapping in Alaska in recent years and was an influential member of the Alaska Fishermen's union.

Three Klamath
People Enter
School at Eugene

In spite of the demands that national defense is making upon Oregon youth, to date, over 900 new students and transfers have indicated their intention to attend the University of Oregon this fall.

Almost every state of the union and the territories of Alaska and Hawaii will be represented in this group which will register for classes on September 26 and 27.

Planning to enter the university this fall as freshmen are Bonnie M. Robin and Marjorie Anna Young, both graduates of Klamath Falls high school. Daniel A. Halferty of Klamath Falls is entering as an advanced student, a transfer from Santa Barbara state college.

OTHER PEOPLE
MAY GET U. S.
IN WAR, CLAIM

LONDON, Aug. 22 (P)—Capt. Elliott Roosevelt, son of President Roosevelt, said in an interview Thursday that if the United States were to enter the war it might not be "determined by us but by some other people."

"One of our ships might be fired on," Roosevelt, an officer in the air corps, commented. "We are going to defend our ships and our men."

Asked if American forces felt the allied victory was dependent upon U. S. entrance into the war he replied:

"As far as American forces go I can't speak for the generals, but as far as the rank and file go men feel that the course of the war will be on the side of Britain."

Roosevelt, who came here from the sea meeting between his father and Prime Minister Churchill said he had gained the impression recently that people in Britain and the United States had relaxed their war effort.

"Since entrance into the war of Russia," he said, "there seems to have been a let-up due to a feeling of complacency." Then he added: "I haven't found it to be as marked a let-up here as I had been given the impression."

Roosevelt said he came to London on a mission for the air corps and would leave next week. He said he could not tell how he arrived in Britain, how he would leave or where he would go.
