

Mary F. Johnson Is Bride in Ceremony

Attractive Tulake Girl Weds in Service Road August the Sixteenth in Presbyterian Church

TULAKE—At a deeply impressive eight o'clock candle-light ceremony on Saturday, August the sixteenth, in the Tulake Community Presbyterian church, Mary Frances Johnson, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. French England Johnson, became the bride of Mr. Donald George Reiben, San Francisco, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Reiben also of Tulake.

The single ring ceremony was read by Reverend Hugh L. Bronson, pastor of the Altamont Presbyterian church, Klamath Falls before an altar banked with masses of white gladioli, ferns, palms and tall white tapers in candelabras.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. E. W. Staunton at the piano, Mr. E. W. Staunton at the cello and Mrs. Robert Cannel, Merrill, on the violin, played "Still As the Night," "Carl Bohn" and "At Dawning," Cadman. They also played the traditional wedding marches. Mrs. Alida Macken, Fresno, sang "Because."

The bride, entering the church on the arm of her father was gown in floor length white taffeta made with fitted waist, puff sleeves and sweetheart neckline. Her double waist length veil of illusion net fell from a coronet of orange blossoms. Her only ornament was a single strand of pearls. The shower bouquet was of white gladioli and bouvardia.

Miss Elna Walldin, maid of honor, wore blue chiffon with a round neck line. Gowns worn by the bridesmaids, Mrs. Raymond Royce and Miss Ardye Brown were of shell pink chiffon. All were in identical mode and all wore matching chiffon bows and sprays of bouvardia in their hair. Each carried a tiny chiffon muff topped with white gladioli and ribbon streamers caught with bouvardia.

Mr. Thorben Reiben, Seattle, brother of the groom was best man and ushers were Mr. French E. Johnson Jr., brother of the bride and Mr. Al Hardman, both of Tulake.

Mrs. Johnson, mother of the bride, wore black crepe with black lace insets, black accessories and a tiny hat of gardenias. Her corsage also was of gardenias.

Mrs. Reiben, mother of the groom, wore a navy sheer with blue hat and gardenia corsage. For her going away costume the bride chose a French blue wool with matching Irish crochet trim, blue accessories and fur coat. Her corsage was of gardenias.

Mr. and Mrs. Reiben left immediately after the ceremony for San Francisco where Mr. Reiben is attending the University of California School of Dentistry.

Mrs. Reiben, a graduate of the Tulake high school, attended the College of the Pacific where she was a member of Tau Kappa Kappa sorority. The groom is affiliated with Delta Sigma Sigma.

Following the ceremony more than two hundred guests were greeted at a reception given at the home of the bride's parents west of town. The beautifully appointed bride's table was graced with a white satin cloth and centered with the tiered wedding cake in white and silver, garlanded with pink rose buds. White tapers in silver candelabras flanked the central appointment.

Mrs. E. W. Staunton, Mrs. Merton J. Brown, Mrs. Alida Macken, Mrs. Muriel Roberts, Miss Elna Walldin and Miss Ardye Brown assisted with serving after the cake was cut by the bride.

Miss Elna Walldin, bridesmaid, caught the bride's bouquet.

Out of town guests for the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Lester Willard, Willows, California, who flew north for the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Willard, Willows; Mrs. Alida Macken, Fresno; Mrs. Harry Knoll, Los Angeles; Raymond Welch, San Francisco; Miss Danni, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Merle Long, Mrs. Muriel Roberts, Eugene; Mrs. Marshall Cornett, Mrs. Eva Long, and Floyd Patty, Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Robert L. Lamson of Rye, New York, spent Sunday and Monday in Klamath Falls visiting her sister-in-law's family, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Ramsey and daughter, Sue, of North Fifth street. Mrs. Lamson left Tuesday for Medford and later will visit in Westwood, California, before returning here with Mr. Lamson in early September.

Mrs. Edna Russell and Mrs. Arthur Porter are home from a week's trip to coastal points, Portland, Dallas and Eugene, having visited with relatives and friends in the latter cities.

Visitor Honored

Mrs. Putnam Pays Visit To Klamath Falls This Week

Mrs. Dorothy Putnam of Eugene, formerly of this city, has been complimented at a number of parties during her visit here this past week. She has been the houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence K. Phelps, 1957 Auburn street. Mrs. Putnam is now serving as secretary to Judge George F. Skipworth of Eugene.

On Friday evening a covered dish supper was enjoyed by a group of friends at the Phelps home. Enjoying the affair were Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Badger and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Terwilliger and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Patterson and daughter, Patricia, of Wenatchee, Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. Gaster and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Southwell, Mrs. R. B. Hough and daughter, Allene, Mrs. C. H. Barnstable, Miss Catherine Jackson, Miss Ruth Pennington, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence K. Phelps and children, Don and Merland.

On Sunday a group of old friends, members of the Epworth league and First Methodist church choir, will honor Mrs. Putnam with a picnic luncheon at Crater lake national park. Mrs. Putnam will spend the weekend at the home of Miss Catherine Jackson of Esplanade.

For the pleasure of Mrs. Putnam, a group of friends have been invited to the Jackson home Saturday evening for an informal get-together.

MRS. FOSTER HONORED BY GROUP THURSDAY

Mrs. Paul W. Foster has been complimented at numerous affairs prior to her departure for Anchorage, Alaska, where she will join Mr. Foster and make their home.

On Thursday evening a group of old friends honored Mrs. Foster at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Blehn of Pine street. They presented her with a traveling kit as a farewell gift.

In the group were Mrs. Roderick Smith, Mrs. Marvin K. Lucas, Mrs. L. A. Murphy, Mrs. Theodore Blanchard, Mrs. Gladys Hogue, Mrs. Stanley Hajicek, and Mrs. C. Jester.

Mrs. Foster and her mother, Mrs. Blehn, will sail from Seattle on August the twenty-eighth, leaving here Monday for the north.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Ferguson of 1932 Erie street, left early Saturday morning for a two weeks' holiday which they will spend at points along the Oregon coast.

ONE YEAR

Garwin is the one-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gaster, 1827 Portland street, and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Winegar and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gaster, well known residents of this city. He observed his first birthday Saturday, August the sixteenth.

—Kennell-Ellis.

JULY BRIDE

Lovely white satin was worn at the wedding of Gertrude Frances Rucker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Rucker of Portland, who became the bride of Mr. Jack Norman Butler of this city, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bertram G. Butler, also of Portland. The ceremony was read July the twelfth in Mt. Tabor Presbyterian church.

—D. Perry Evans photo.

CONGREGATIONAL CIRCLE MEETS FOR MONTHLY SESSION

The Congregational Community circle met Friday afternoon, August the fifteenth, at the home of Mrs. S. R. Berry on Reclamation avenue, with Mrs. E. L. Mitchell, Mrs. Etna Gentry and Mrs. J. O. Harney as hostesses. Dessert was served on the lawn, followed by the business meeting conducted by the president, Mrs. Charles M. Reynolds.

Plans were made to meet each Wednesday afternoon in the Community hall on Garden avenue to do Red Cross sewing, hostesses to be named each meeting for the following week. Mrs. S. R. Berry presided as hostess for Wednesday, August the twentieth.

Visitors Friday were Mrs. Lucetta Cronant of Tacoma; Mrs. E. T. Rindal and Mrs. Alta Randall. Members present were Mrs. A. A. Meyers, Mrs. Carl W. Henry, Mrs. Lee Kennedy, Mrs. Glenn Stivers, Mrs. L. J. Brink, Mrs. W. C. Little, Miss Mary Eckstein, Mrs. A. G. Pearson, Mrs. W. R. Nelson, Mrs. Clayton C. Morris, Mrs. Z. W. Dixon, Mrs. Berry, Mrs. Charles M. Reynolds and daughter, Charlene, Mrs. Etna Gentry and Mrs. Mitchell.

BIRTHDAY OBSERVED ON FRIDAY

Jimmy Cooley, who will be twelve years old on August twenty-ninth, observed his anniversary several days earlier when his mother, Mrs. L. J. Cooley, entertained at luncheon followed by a theatre party for a group of young friends at the family home, 2463 Applegate avenue.

At the luncheon were Donnie Noel, Donnie Eltreim, Jackie Eltreim, Buddy and Bobby Selby, Bobby Steinseifer, Jimmy Flora, Jimmy Boyd, Teddy Otterbein, Jackie Lawson, and the host, Jimmy Cooley.

Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Holloway of Crescent avenue enjoyed a several days' motor trip that took them over the McKenzie highway to Eugene, and return over the Willamette highway.

Altamont Garden Program Slated

First Annual Flower Show Scheduled by Group For Friday, August the Twenty-Ninth

Plans are now completed by the Altamont Garden club for that organization's first flower show to be held in Altamont Junior high school auditorium Friday afternoon, August the twenty-ninth, between the hours of half past one o'clock and five o'clock. It will be given in conjunction with the second annual 4-H flower show, sponsored by the club.

Malin Maid August Bride

Vivian Dagner Becomes Mrs. Story in Ceremony

MALIN—At an informal ceremony at high noon Saturday, August the sixteenth, in the First Presbyterian church in Klamath Falls, Miss Vivian Helen Dagner, only daughter of Mrs. F. M. Trout, Malin, became the bride of Mr. Larkin Alvin Story, Yoncalla, Oregon.

The ring service was read by Reverend Theodore A. Smith in the presence of the bride's mother, Mrs. F. M. Trout, Dr. Trout, Mrs. Earl Blevin and Miss Evelyn Rigor, all of Malin.

The bride, attired in a powder blue crepe with blue lace trim, wore a picture hat in white with blue velvet bows. Her corsage was gardenias.

Miss Dolores Trout, her only attendant, wore a navy suit with navy accessories.

Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Story will reside in Yoncalla.

STUDENTS TO ENTER COLLEGES

TULAKE—A number of students have announced plans for college and university entrance in the near future with Maxine Barks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Barks, to enter the College of the Pacific, Stockton, on September the second, where she will major in speech and dramatics.

Virginia Jones and Peggy Lagan go to the Western school of business which also opens in Sacramento on September the second.

Patricia Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Thomas, goes to Oregon State college, Angeline Galloway goes to Chico State Teachers' college; Bette Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Campbell, goes to Oregon State, as does Maxine Haley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Perry Haley. Enola Edwards goes to Chico and others who plan to leave are Barbara Bentley, Ardye Brown, Lura Osborne and Barbara Kirk.

WRIGHTS ENTERTAIN CALIFORNIANS

Dr. and Mrs. George I. Wright entertained at their Diamond lake summer home this past week for Mr. and Mrs. George Riley of Los Angeles. The visitors left the latter part of the week for their home in the south.

Mrs. Riley is the former Betty Voorhees, born here at the time her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Voorhees made their home in Klamath Falls. Mr. Voorhees served as engineer with the United States reclamation service when it was first opened in the Klamath basin. He then left in 1915 with his family to take the position as supervising engineer with the California state highways from Sacramento south to the Mexican border. Both Mr. and Mrs. Voorhees have passed away in recent years.

♦ ♦ ♦

Visitors at Collier Home

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Collier have had as their guests the past two weeks, Mrs. Collier's sister and her daughter, Mrs. Ralph Walker and Miss Ruth Walker of Whittier, California. Miss Eleanor Engdahl of Pendleton, junior at the University of Oregon, has been the guest this week of Miss Carolyn Collier. The girls left Saturday to spend the weekend at Lake o' the Woods, Miss Engdahl to return to her home in Pendleton on Sunday evening.

Miss Myrtle Danforth is leaving Monday for her home in Spokane, Washington to resume her teaching position after spending most of the summer here as the guest of Mrs. Eva Jenks Olson at her home on North Fifth street.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Sandra Helen Gurtle had her first birthday party on her anniversary last Saturday when she was just one year old. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Gurtle, 2011 Eberlein avenue.

—Kennell-Ellis.

Social Calendar

Monday, August 25
Eulalona chapter, DAR, with Mrs. Bert C. Thomas, 828 Pacific Terrace, 8 p. m.

Friday, August 29
Past Matrons club, OES, to meet at Masonic temple for desert bridge.

Wednesday, September 3
First meeting of ANW club, Mrs. Harold M. Brown, 1937 LeRoy street, 2:30 p. m.

First fall session of Klamath Shrine club, Pelican party room, 6:30 p. m.

Eunice Curtis lecture, library club rooms, 2 p. m. "Design Value of Plant Material." Friday, September 5
Eunice Curtis lecture, library club rooms, 2 p. m. "Holiday Tables and Traditional Wreaths in Variety."

Tuesday, September 2
Eunice Curtis lecture, library club rooms, 2 p. m. Thursday, September 4
Eunice Curtis lecture, library club rooms, 9 a. m., 2 p. m.

Monday, September 8
Annual fall flower show and annual luncheon meeting of Klamath Falls Women's Library club. Willard hotel, 1 p. m.

Opening of city and county schools and schedule of PTA meetings announced.

Saturday, September 20
Benefit bridge tea sponsored by fellowship committee, AAUW. Mrs. J. C. Lemire chairman. Place: Reames Golf club.

MRS. GURTLE HOSTESS ON ANNIVERSARY

Mrs. J. S. Gurtle entertained a group of friends Saturday afternoon at her home on Eberlein avenue in honor of the first birthday of her daughter, Sandra Helen.

Guests were Mrs. George Terrell and Susan, Mrs. Clyde Turner and Phyllis, Mrs. Aaron Porter and Jackie, Mrs. Glen Stiles and Glen Jr. and Diane, Mrs. L. E. Henry and grandson, Michael Hugh Williams, Mrs. Lillian Davis, Mrs. Dodge, Miss Lilly Straley of Seattle, Miss Dillie Ann Porter, Miss Viola Gurtle, Horace Stiles and Mrs. Irving Weston.

Mrs. W. I. Kesterson and daughter, Miss Dorothy, have returned to their home, 716 Roseway drive, following an interesting motor trip which took them through the west coast states with stops at Grand Canyon national park, and in Seattle. Miss Jill Martin of Gold Hill is a guest at the Kesterson home.

Mrs. Sam Roberts has been visiting in Corvallis this past week, a guest of her daughter.

This past week was spent at Lake o' the Woods by Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Wilson and their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Ben Wilson and infant son, Paul, of Chicago. Mrs. Wilson and child drove west with her father, Dr. Knap, and brother, David, who have returned to their home in Chicago.

Mrs. Frances Manning and son, Jimmie, have returned to their home on Roseway drive after spending several days in Portland.

♦ ♦ ♦

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Patterson and daughter, Patricia, of Wenatchee, Washington, former residents of this city, have spent the past week here.

♦ ♦ ♦

A charming visitor in Klamath Falls is Mrs. Frederick Walter Hyde of Marquette, Michigan, here as the guest of her brother, Mr. D. O. Williams.

Marguerite Brown Weds in California

Klamath Falls Maid Is Bride of Garold Herbert Hill in Glendale Services August the Tenth

The marriage of Miss Marguerite Brown, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Harold M. Brown of this city, and Garold Herbert Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Garold E. Hill of North Bend, Oregon, was solemnized at a pretty ceremony on Sunday, the tenth of August, at nine o'clock in the morning at the home of Mrs. Nora Schickler, 618 North Central avenue, Glendale, California. The single ring service was read by Rev. Evert Ezra Ellis of the Community Methodist church of Glendale.

The rooms were beautiful with arrangements of gardenias, white carnations, yellow garden flowers, and palms.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Evert E. Ellis played, "Oh Promise Me." As she followed with the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march the bridal couple met beneath an arch of palms where their wedding vows were exchanged.

The bride was attractive in a jacket frock of navy blue tissue faille with white trim of embroidered organdie with pleated ruffles. The semi-fitted short-sleeved jacket was designed with the sides draped in soft folds to the paneled front which closed with cloth-covered buttons. She wore an all white shoulder corsage of gardenias and wedding flowers.

Miss Kathryn Schickler was the bride's only attendant. She wore a sheer print dress of powder blue and white and a single gardenia.

Mr. George Kadau acted as best man.

Immediately following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the Farm House to the bride and groom, their attendants, and wedding guests. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Hill, Miss Kathryn Schickler, Mr. George Kadau, Mrs. Nora Schickler, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Morris, Mr. Joe Whitehead, and Mr. Charles Hotenstein, all of Glendale, Mrs. John J. Parker of Klamath Falls, and Mr. and Mrs. Emil Walters of Pasadena. For this occasion the bride's costume was completed with a small navy felt hat with grosgrain ribbon trim and navy accessories.

Mrs. Hill was graduated from Klamath Union high school with the class of 1940 and the following year attended Klamath Business College. Mr. Hill graduated from the North Bend high school in 1938. He is with the Lockheed Aircraft plant in the capacity of a radio technician. Mr. and Mrs. Hill are now at home at the Waldorf apartment at 717 North Brand avenue, Glendale, California.

Miss Brown arrived in Glendale on August the seventh and was a guest in the Schickler home before her marriage. Dr. and Mrs. Brown did not go south for the wedding. They plan to visit the Hills late this fall.

GUESTS INVITED TO LAKE O' WOODS

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Ruonich who were married July the fourth in Reno, Miss Nora Rinker has invited a group of guests to her cabin at Lake o' the Woods on Sunday for dinner.

Guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Ruonich, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Brearcliffe, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. White, Mrs. Goldie Kesterson, Mr. J. E. Bodge, and Mr. Wilson Wiley.

BARBECUE SUPPER ON SATURDAY

Miss Nannette Schubert was to entertain Saturday evening with a barbecue supper at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Schubert, the affair given for a group of friends as a "back to school" party. All of the young people will enter high school for the first time.

Following supper both ping pong and croquet will be played. Guests invited include Mary Lou Fowler, Marjorie Schultz, June Dickson, Bobby and Neilan Abbott, Dean Abbott, and Richard Eastman.

Invest in new Beauty!

SAVE 20%

Helena Rubinstein's famous BEAUTY PREPARATIONS

ONCE A YEAR ONLY!

Now you can afford the famous corrective treatments and flattering cosmetics created by this great beauty specialist. If you've never tried them—this is your chance. And for devoted Helena Rubinstein users, this is an opportunity to stock up on the generous large sizes.

All the famous Helena Rubinstein preparations are included—creams, lotions, cosmetics—even the famous beauty masques and exquisite fragrances!

Take advantage of these remarkable savings! Come in tomorrow and let us help you select all the beauty essentials you need, and the luxurious "extras" you've been longing for!

	Regular Price	Sale Price
Pearlized Face Cream	2.00, 1.00	1.60, .80
Beauty Gaine	1.00	.80
Town and Country Night Cream
(Youthifying Thawing Cream)	1.75, 1.00	1.40, .80
Valise Skin Lotion (Skin Toning Lotion)	1.25	1.00
Moisture-proof Face Powder	1.00 to 2.50	.80 to 2.00
Lipstick—Creamy, lustrous	1.00 to 2.00	.80 to 1.60
Waterproof Mascara—New!	1.00	.80
Cosmetics including famous Apple Blossom	1.00 to 2.50	.80 to 2.00
Bathing Powders	1.00 to 2.00	.80 to 1.60

CURRIN'S for DRUGS

"Klamath's Drug and Cosmetic Center"

9th and Main Phone 4814

The TOWN SHOP
Main of Fifth