

Martha Shops and Shops

Everyone was ready for Fall when I was in San Francisco this last weekend . . . Quite a few women were wearing fur coats in the evening . . . And the warm dark shades of suits, hats and wool dresses were worn everywhere, day and night.

Garcelon's

SALE on all table lamps is the interesting news I learned at Garcelon's this week . . . Modern-shaped silk or washable shades. Pottery, wood and crystal bases . . . And really sensational reductions. There are living room and bedroom lamps . . . And the larger ones are on sale for $2.98, while the smaller ones are $1.49. The crystal bases are on boudoir lamps, of course . . . There are several fine English pottery bases . . . And one with Italian pottery base that still had its price tag of $8.00 dangling from a string . . . Even that one is only $2.98. At Garcelon's.

Wool Jersey is expected to be extremely popular for Fall clothes.

Cal-Ore

BRADY NAREY has a trick of going around Cal-Ore and asking people how they like the music . . . After they say it's swell, he says, "All right, but now tell me what you really think" . . . And he usually gets the lowdown. This espionage system, if you can call it that, was a break for Jimmy Amato and his orchestra . . . Because the verdict was so favorable that Brady persuaded them to stay on a little longer. Jimmy Amato and his orchestra originally were scheduled to play only until September 1 . . . But the enthusiasm of the dancers, (plus the fact that even musicians like appreciation), has resulted in an agreement to stay two weeks longer. The fact that the orchestra is built around the electric guitar is part of their success, I think . . . The music can't get too loud and spoil the enjoyment of the customers at the tables. If you've ever been in a chummy little group at a table and happened to be telling some gossip when the music stopped . . . And in the sudden silence heard your own voice shouting a name just as the subject passed by . . . You'd realize what loud orchestras can do to a person . . . The moral really is: don't gossip . . . But the orchestra is a good thing to blame.

Asked to describe the new Fall fashions, a famous New York designer replied: "Lines are softer, fabrics are friendlier, colors echo the autumn scene."

Currin's

There are just a few days left to stock up on Rubinstein products during the 20 per cent discount sale at Currin's For Drugs . . . Every aid to beauty put out by Helena Rubinstein, Inc. is included in the sale . . . Even the kits that girls going away to school would love to have!

Another nice item for young girls is the Keys to Beauty . . . The darling little set of three lipsticks, each a different color, on a key chain.

And anyone troubled with ragged cuticle or chipping fingernails will find the Fingertip Masque the answer to a prayer . . . Especially at a saving of 20 per cent . . . I use this wax treatment myself and know it is everything it is claimed to be.

Collarless jackets and coats are coming back in great style . . . They provide comfort when worn with fur jackets or stoles . . . And without furs they have a very smart, tailored look.

Shaw Stationery

With so many thoughts turning to the beginning of a new school term, naturally I had a look-around myself to see what students are interested in.

Shaw's have those zippered leather notebook covers that high school and college students adore . . . And grade school students yearn for and sometimes get, too!

They come in maroon, brown and black leather . . . Real leather, because the wear and tear on them is terrific, especially if the student actually studies . . . But even if he (or she) doesn't, notebooks are carried around a lot and the covers should last for years.

You'll find these zippered notebook covers at Shaw's priced from $1.50 . . . All those that cost over $3.00 can have the name engraved in gold free. And the pen sets for study desks are a boon to students who go away to school . . . Especially the ones that have a chain attached to the pen to the ink stand, so no roommate can borrow it and carry it away . . . Shaw's desk pen sets are from $2.75 and up.

English Wary, Curious on Issue of U. S. Corn on Cob

LONDON, Aug. 27 (AP)—The London newspapers discovered today that an intrepid English farmer is growing 1½ acres of sweet corn, which will go on sale for cob eating at 15 cents per ear, and one writer undertook to explain it this way: "Corn is a favorite food in America where it is grown largely in the southern states. It is also regarded as a great delicacy by Anglo-Indians throughout the east. The cob is boiled for 15 minutes and served like a potato in its jacket. The leaves are removed, butter or margarine is spread over the corn and it is sprinkled with pepper and salt. Then, holding it at the end, you nibble the corn like a rabbit."

For small airports a new safety device has been developed. The field's lighting system is turned on automatically at the first sound and vibration of a plane's engine. Nickel-silver is an alloy of nickel, copper and zinc, and contains no silver.

Foresters Find Place to Throw Used Razor Blades

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Aug. 28 (AP)—The problem of what to do with old razor blades was tentatively solved Wednesday by the Foresters of America.

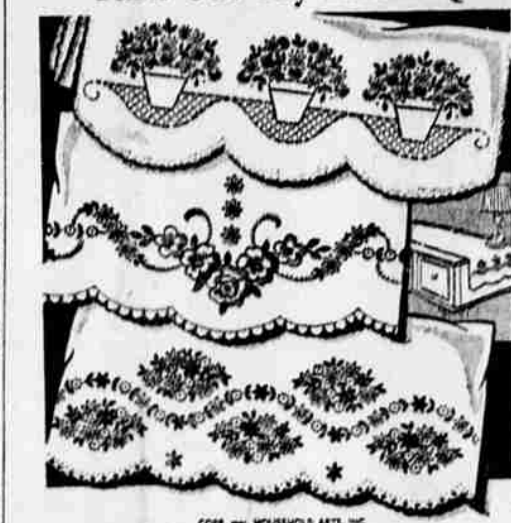

The fraternity resolved at its annual convention that old blades should be collected by the organization's national officers and turned over to the federal government to help cope with the steel shortage. The lodge's 250,000 members were asked to gather up their old blades immediately.

Turpin Holds PCL Pitching Pace

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 28 (AP) Hal Turpin of Seattle paces the Pacific Coast league pitchers, but a Coast of San Diego Padres are pressing for the honors. Turpin's 18 victories and 4 defeats give him top percentage. Wally Hebert of San Diego is pressing with a 21-7 mark and Yank Terry, also of the Padres, has 21-8 and leads in strikeouts with 138. Al Hollingsworth of Sacramento dropped to fourth with 18-7.

DEMOCRATIC ABOUT IT
NEW YORK—Danny Litwiler of the Phillies slammed a home run at the Polo Grounds to become first player to connect for circuit in every National league park this season.

NEW YORK—Seventeen varsity lettermen and a like number of freshmen numeral winners are available for football service at New York university.

A lot of people are dreaming because they don't realize the seriousness of this situation where we are up against a world movement and unusual steps are required.—Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd.

Seeded Stars Win Way to Quarters

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 28 (UP)—Four seeded stars had little trouble Wednesday in winning their way through the quarter-finals of the girls' national tennis championships at the Philadelphia Cricket club. Doris Hart, Miami, southern women's and Florida state high school champion, defeated Gertrude Morgan, Santa Monica, Calif., 6-0, 6-3.
