

Society

By LOIS STEWART

August 30, 1941

AT CAROLINE DAGGETT'S announcement party Thursday evening, these guests learned of her betrothal to Mr. Paul Crapo. Seated, left to right, Mrs. Melvin McCollum, Miss Phyllis Foster, Miss Caroline Daggett, and standing, Miss Barbara Johnson, Miss Rosemary Sloan, Miss Virginia Bubb, Miss Margaret DeBolt, Miss Jane Eyerley, and Miss Marjane Daggett, hostess for the evening. (above).
—Picture by Wesley Guderian of The Herald and News.

MAKING PLANS FOR GOING away to school are these three young women—(left to right)—Miss Ella Tatlow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Tatlow who will attend Open Vista at Seahurst Park, Washington, Miss Joan Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Campbell, who enters her senior year at Annie Wright seminary in Tacoma, and Miss Barbara Osborn, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Dean Osborn, first year student at Annie Wright. (below).
—Picture by Wesley Guderian of The Herald and News.

LEAVING FOR THE SOUTH is Mrs. Ralph McCulloch who, with Mr. McCulloch will reside in Salinas, California. Mrs. McCulloch has been entertained prior to her departure for the south. (above).
—Kennell-Ellis.

READY FOR SCHOOL is Barbara Beane (left), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Beane of Pacific Terrace, helped with her packing by her cousin, Miss Winifred Grady of Yakima. Barbara will enter Oregon State college, and Winifred goes to Washington State this year. (center).
—Picture by Wesley Guderian of The Herald and News.

FROCKS OF ANOTHER DAY were worn at the old fashioned luncheon given for Betty Ree Martin on Tuesday. Left to right, Letty Linman, Eleanor Thomas, Waiva Jean Salisbury and Betty Ree. (below).
—Picture by Wesley Guderian of The Herald and News.

