

SOCIETY

By LOIS STEWART

GREETING GUESTS at the tea given for Mrs. Frank Jennings at the Leslie Rogers home Thursday afternoon were Mrs. J. Hardin Carter, Mrs. William Hagelstein, Mrs. Joanne DeWeese, Mrs. Jennings, Mrs. Rogers, the hostess, and a tea guest, Mrs. Clara Shaw.

ON THE CHURCH STEPS Immediately after their wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sproat Jr. The bride is the former Donna Fife and the ceremony was read at St. Paul's Episcopal church at two o'clock Friday afternoon. Miss Patricia Gallagher was attendant, and Mr. William Blackaby, best man.

LOVELY FALL FLOWERS were used on the tea table at Mrs. Rogers' party for Mrs. Frank Jennings. Mrs. W. O. Smith is pouring while Mrs. John A. Shaw, (left), and Mrs. Laurence Shaw of Tionesta, chat over their tea cups.

IN THE GARDEN at the Shaw home the photographer snapped this attractive group of maids just before guests arrived for tea on Friday. Left to right, Wanda Shaw, Dorothea Ellingson, Merlon Albrecht, Mary Lou Johnson and Mary Jane Drake.

—All pictures by Wesley Guderian of The Herald and News.

COMPLIMENTED AT TEA just before school opened were Miss Wanda Shaw, standing, and Miss Mary Lou Johnson. The affair was an event of last Friday when Mrs. J. Royal Shaw entertained for her daughter and Mary Lou.