

Donna Fife Weds In St. Paul's Church

Traditional White Satin Worn by Attractive
Klamath Falls Bride Friday Afternoon

A lovely fall bride was Miss Donna Fife, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Bidwell Fife, whose marriage to Mr. Robert Sproat Jr., took place at two o'clock at a simple ceremony read before a small group in St. Paul's Episcopal church Friday afternoon, September the twelfth. The Rev. Victor E. Newman officiated.

The bride, in traditional white satin, was given in marriage by her father. Her gown was fashioned along princess lines with a sweetheart neckline, snug fitting bodice, long sleeves and a lovely sweeping train. Her long veil of white illusion net fell from a Juliette cap of seed pearls held by a wreath of bouvardia. Her only jewelry was pearls and she carried an ivory prayer book with two lavender orchids.

Miss Patricia Gallagher was the bride's only attendant. She wore a full skirted frock of delphinium blue net with lace inserts in the skirt and bodice and carried a large bouquet of white gladioli and Humboldt bouvardia tied with a white maline bow. On her hair she wore a brief blue net veil.

Mr. William Blackaby of Ontario, Oregon, fraternity brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

Just before the ceremony Mrs. Vernon Kuykendall sang, "O Perfect Love," accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Van Evans who also played the traditional wedding marches. On the altar were white chrysanthemums and lighted candles.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Sproat left on a motor trip for the north and upon their return will be at home on Hillside avenue. The bride is a popular member of the younger set and was feted frequently before her marriage.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Allen of Boise, Idaho, grandparents of the groom, and also his mother, Mrs. Nell Sproat of Portland. Mr. Sproat, son of Mr. Robert Sproat Sr., of this city, is in business with his father here.

ALUMNAE CLUB ENTERTAINED BY MISS DAVIS

Members of Alpha Chi Omega alumnae club met Thursday evening for the usual September gathering with Miss Lillian Davis hostess at her home, 1853 Del Moro street.

Reports from those attending the national convention last July in Pasadena, were heard.

The next meeting of the group will be held at the home of Mrs. Marvin Thomas of Tulake on Monday, October the thirteenth.

An evening of bridge followed the business meeting with high score held by Mrs. Rudy Wolcott, second by Miss Helen Lois Winningham. A guest of the evening was Mrs. Arthur Goldblatt of Tulake. During the refreshment hour a gift was presented from Alpha Chi Omega to Mrs. Bert Schmidt.

MISS GROESBECK TO WED SUNDAY IN EASTERN CITY

Mr. and Mrs. Rollo C. Groesbeck of this city announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Jean Grace Groesbeck, to Mr. Richard Holt Wakefield of Westfield, New Jersey and Truro, Massachusetts, which will be solemnized on Sunday, September the fourteenth, at Truro. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph C. Wakefield, also of Westfield and Truro.

Miss Groesbeck, who has many friends here, her former home, is graduating Monday from Hartford Retreat at Hartford, Connecticut, where she has been taking a special course in psychiatric nursing for the past year. She is also a graduate of Stanford university and of the Stanford School of Nursing.

DREHER-HALL NUPTIALS SET SEPTEMBER 15

Invitations to the wedding of Miss Martha Ann Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. LeRoy Hall of Portland, and Dr. James R. Dreher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Dreher of Prineville, have been received here by old friends of the Dreher family, former residents of this city.

The ceremony will be read at eight o'clock the morning of September the fifteenth, in St. Francis church in Portland. The young couple will reside in Portland.

Final Plans Made for Tea

Reames To Be Scene
Of AAUW Benefit
Party Saturday

Lovely fall flowers in shades of bronze and yellow will serve as the background for the first big benefit party of the year when the Klamath county chapter of the American Association of University Women entertain Saturday afternoon, September the twentieth, at Reames Golf and Country club. Cards will be in play at a quarter to two o'clock.

Mrs. J. C. Lemire, chairman of the fellowship committee, is completing arrangements for the affair aided by the following members: Mrs. Mahr Reymers, Mrs. Robert Thompson, Mrs. James Busch, Mrs. J. T. Runyan, Mrs. John Fowler, Mrs. Louis Serruys, Mrs. Burge Mason Jr., Mrs. George Clark, Mrs. Howard Barnhisel, Mrs. James Kerns Jr.

Mrs. G. A. Krause will arrange the tea table flowers as well as flowers throughout the room.

Asked to pour during tea hours after four o'clock have been Mrs. Ralph Waldo Stearns and Mrs. Godfrey C. Blohm, the latter this year's president of AAUW.

Proceeds from the party will be placed in the fellowship fund for use by local, state and national organizations in both the fellowship and scholarship funds for higher education. Each year many young women are aided in continuing their studies through such funds as maintained by AAUW chapters.

Reservations for the party may be made by calling either Mrs. Mahr Reymers, 7343, or Mrs. Burge Mason Jr., 4202. Members of the committee will greet the guests during the afternoon and Mrs. Lemire, chairman, has announced reservations for but fifty tables will be accepted. Contract will be played with awards made at the close of the afternoon.

Miss Janice Bubb returned this week from studying at Stanford university summer school and will leave next week for the University of Oregon.

SNAPPED AT THE LIBRARY CLUB FLOWER SHOW

A background of lovely flowers featured the first meeting of the year for the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club. Officers at the head table, left to right, Mrs. Carleton W. Hornbrook, second vice president; Mrs. A. G. Proctor, vice president; Mrs. R. R. Proebstel, president, and Mrs. Matt H. Rauw, program. Below, Mrs. Syd Evans, (left), with Mrs. Jacques J. Steiger, admire the Christmas wreaths on display. Mrs. Evans was show chairman. Amused at the "silly" arrangement entered by Dr. E. D. Lamb were Mrs. D. N. Clemens, (standing), scrapbook chairman for the year, and her mother, Mrs. Marion Hanks (left), and Mrs. David Noble of Hill City, Minnesota, here visiting her daughter, Mrs. L. D. Cass.

—Pictures by Wesley Guderian of
The Herald and News.

Miss Patricia Gallagher left Saturday morning for Walla Walla, Washington, where she will resume her studies at Whitman college. She has visited here this past week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Robert Olds of Riverside.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Pickering of Marysville, California, are weekend guests of Dr. and Mrs. Albert O. Roenicke.

Betrothal Announced

Sylvia Hopkins to Wed
In Home Ceremony
October 4

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sumner Hopkins announce the coming marriage of their daughter, Sylvia Lucille, to Mr. William Tomlinson Jr., of Portland.

The wedding will take place Saturday evening, October the fourth, at half past six o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents in the Henley district. The Rev. Victor E. Newman of St. Paul's Episcopal church will read the service.

Miss Hopkins is a popular member of the younger group here and following her graduation from Linfield college at McMinnville has served as assistant county librarian. At school she was a member of Phi Beta Mu sorority and also Alpha Psi Omega, national dramatic sorority. Mr. Tomlinson is a member of an old Portland family and is in business in the north where the young couple will reside. He is also a graduate of Linfield college.

AAUW OPENS YEAR WITH LUNCHEON MEET

Members of the Klamath county chapter of the American Association of University Women enjoyed the first meeting of the year in the Pelican party room when luncheon was served at one o'clock. Mrs. Godfrey C. Blohm, president, conducted the meeting.

Mr. Arnold Gralapp, superintendent of Klamath Union high school, spoke to the group. Mrs. Marvin Nersest of Chiloquin sang a group of solos accompanied by Mrs. George W. McIntyre. Arrangements for new study groups were announced, details to be told later.

Mr. and Mrs. Don C. Fisher of Lava Beds national monument, have had as their houseguests for two weeks Mr. and Mrs. Harry Woodruff of Balboa, Panama Canal Zone. The Woodruffs left for New York City from where they will sail for their home in early October. Mrs. Woodruff and Mrs. Fisher are sisters.

Mrs. Arnold Gralapp Honored With Tea

Stanley Woodruff Home Scene of Interesting
Affair on Saturday Afternoon

One of the most interesting of this week's many parties was the tea given Saturday afternoon between the hours of half past two and half past four o'clock at the Stanley Woodruff home, 2056 Lawrence street, complimenting Mrs. Arnold Gralapp, a newcomer to Klamath Falls.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Woodruff, Mrs. Dwight French, Mrs. Raymond Cooney, and Mrs. Joseph W. Peak, wives of faculty members of Klamath Union high school. Mrs. Gralapp is the wife of the school superintendent.

The party was planned as a greeting for women of the faculty and faculty wives as well as members of the school board.

Silver was the theme used on the prettily arranged tea table where a silver bowl held fall flowers in shades of brown and yellow, and tall white candles burned in silver candlesticks. Fall flowers were also used about the living room where Mrs. Woodruff and Mrs. Gralapp received.

Pouring during the first hour were Mrs. Frank Z. Howard and Mrs. Lloyd B. Emery, and during the second hour, Mrs. Victor E. O'Neill, and Mrs. Percy Murray. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Harold Teale and Mrs. Charles Stanfield.

DEFENSE STAMPS GIVEN AT REAMES FOR AWARDS

National defense stamps were given to the winners of bridge at Reames last week when women of the club played following luncheon and golf. High scores were held by Mrs. Hiram Murdoch and Mrs. Lloyd Goble.

Hostesses for this past Friday were Mrs. Wesley O. Smith and Mrs. George H. Merryman Jr.

In the two-ball foreshore Mrs. Guy Hancock and Mrs. Merryman Jr., tied with Mrs. William Grove and Mrs. Wilfred E. Lamm.

AU REVOIR PARTY GIVEN J. T. RUNYAN

Friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Truman Runyan on California avenue Wednesday evening to bid au revoir to Mr. Runyan who left that night to report at Fort Lawton, Washington, with the second air force interceptor command. He will serve as a first lieutenant.

Following the cocktail party the guests accompanied Mr. Runyan to the train.

Nile Honors Past Officers

Luncheon Given Saturday
for Club by Zuleima Temple

Past presidents of the Klamath Falls Nile club were honored at the Tuesday luncheon at the Elk hotel, the first meeting of the fall season after a summer vacation, when they were presented with corsages and favors.

Those honored on this occasion were Mrs. A. B. Epperson, Mrs. R. P. Ellingson, Mrs. E. M. Chilcote, Mrs. George A. Massey and Mrs. J. H. Poppy. Mrs. Epperson responded in behalf of the presidents to the welcome given by Mrs. Gus Anderson who is now serving as president.

A delightful musical program was presented by Mrs. J. C. O'Neill, violinist, Mrs. William Chilcote, cellist, and Miss Marie Obenchain, accompanist. The trio played "Love Song" by Wright, "Tango" by Albeniz, "Moment Musical" by Schubert and "Estrellita," a Mexican folk song. "America" was sung by the entire group with Mrs. Louis Serruys at the piano.

Bridge followed the business meeting, at the close of which Mrs. John Kenoffel was presented the award for high, Mrs. Ted Shoop, the low, and Mrs. Massey, the special prize.

A number of the Klamath Falls Nile club members motored to Medford on Saturday when the club was honored at luncheon by Zuleima temple, Daughters of the Nile. A regular meeting of the temple in the afternoon followed the luncheon and entertainment.

Those attending from here included Mrs. Harry Bathiany, Mrs. E. H. Balsiger, Mrs. Wilbur Arnold, Mrs. John Kenoffel, Mrs. Jerry Ricker, Mrs. J. C. O'Neill, Mrs. Charles Joseph Martin, Mrs. A. B. Epperson, Mrs. Leo N. Huls, Mrs. J. H. Poppy and Mrs. Ted Shoop.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Hickcox and Mr. William Hickcox of San Jose, California, returned to their home Wednesday morning after a visit here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Horace E. Getz of Pacific Terrace.

Mrs. Frank Jennings Honored at Tea

Mrs. Leslie Rogers Entertains at Lovely Fall
Fair on Thursday Afternoon

One of the most charming affairs of the early fall was the large tea over which Mrs. Leslie Rogers presided at her home on Pacific Terrace Thursday afternoon complimenting her houseguest, Mrs. Frank Jennings, who has visited here during the summer months.

Tea Given For Maids

Dorothea Ellingson
Hostess on Saturday Afternoon

Complimenting four attractive maids leaving this coming week to enter their first year at school, Miss Dorothea Ellingson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Ellingson, entertained Saturday afternoon at the family home, 820 Pacific Terrace, with a prettily appointed tea. Seventy-five guests were bidden between the hours of three and five o'clock.

Honor guests were Miss Jean Wiesendanger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wiesendanger who leaves for Oregon State college; Miss Virginia Ellen Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Smith, and Miss June Van, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Van who also will enter Oregon State college, and Miss Janice Bubb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest M. Bubb, who enters the University of Oregon.

Assisting about the rooms were Miss Merlon Albrecht, Miss Mary Lou Johnson, Miss Mary Jane Drake, Miss Ann Mueller and Miss Virginia Howard.

Pouring during the afternoon were Mrs. Victor E. O'Neill, Mrs. Frank Z. Howard, Mrs. Howard Strode, and Mrs. Robert Parcher Ellingson Jr. Assisting at the tea table was Mrs. Walter Wiesendanger.

The tea table was particularly lovely in all white with white fall flowers, petunias, baby chrysanthemums, and gladioli, and white candles in crystal candlesticks. Fall flowers were used about the rooms.

High score was held by Mrs. Guy Hancock, second high by Mrs. Fred Shallock, and Mrs. Jennings was presented with a guest prize. Others present were Mrs. Leslie Rogers, Mrs. Lyle O. Mills, Mrs. Godfrey C. Blohm, Mrs. E. D. Lamb and the hostess.

Mrs. Jennings has been the summer house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Rogers and has enjoyed meeting with many of her old friends.

Mrs. Jennings left Friday evening for southern California and San Francisco, later planning to winter in Arizona and Florida before returning to Honolulu. During her stay here she accompanied Mrs. Rogers on a three weeks' motor trip through British Columbia.

Old friends and new greeted Mrs. Jennings between the tea hours of three and six o'clock. Opening the door were Miss Mary Lou Johnson and Miss Dorothea Ellingson, Mrs. Rogers and Mrs. Jennings receiving in the living room.

The tea table was especially lovely with a mass arrangement of lavender chrysanthemums and asters, and presiding at the silver coffee and tea services were Mrs. E. D. Johnson and Mrs. Hardin Carter the first hour, Mrs. Guy Hancock and Mrs. Wesley O. Smith, during the second hour, and from five to six o'clock, Mrs. Thomas B. Walters and Mrs. Charles L. Moore poured.

Salmon pink gladioli with white petunias and white salpiglossis were used in the effective arrangements about the living room, the flowers done by Mrs. Walters. Assisting during the afternoon were Mrs. William Hagelstein, Mrs. Joanne DeWeese, Mrs. Scott Warren, Mrs. Charles W. Warren, and Mrs. Harry Ravisa.

MRS. HEFFNER SPEAKS TO CLUB MEMBERS

Mrs. Daniel Heffner of Portland, president of the Oregon Federation of Garden clubs, met with the Klamath Falls, Altamont and Lost River clubs immediately following the Library club luncheon in the Willard hotel Monday afternoon. The three groups are affiliated with the state federation through the Siskiyou district of which Mrs. Ernest D. Lamb is vice president.

Mrs. Heffner discussed problems of the organization and answered many questions put to her by the members present. Reports of the various club presidents, and plans for the 1941-42 program, were heard.

On Tuesday Mrs. Heffner, accompanied by Mrs. Lamb and Mrs. A. G. Proctor, who is state slide chairman, motored to Ashland where the Siskiyou district meeting was held. Plans are being formulated for the district meeting to be held in Klamath Falls this coming May.

Mrs. James Bishop Foster and daughter, Phyllis, left Tuesday evening for a brief stay in San Francisco before Miss Foster resumes her studies at the University of Oregon.

"SHEER MAKE-UP for sheer beauty"

Translucid
(GLOWING THROUGH)
by HOUBIGANT

Tomorrow, see the beauty you've dreamed of come true with Translucid make-up. Translucid promises a new you.

NEW!

Translucid
BUDGET BOX

A once-in-a-blue-moon opportunity to get three of the famous Translucid make-up preparations — Foundation, Lotion, Face Powder and Rouge — for only $1.50! These are generous... the value amazing. You'll want several for gifts... but hurry! Limited Time Only!

$1.50

CURRIN'S FOR DRUGS

Ninth and Main

Dial 4814