

Library Club Party Success of Monday

Mrs. R. R. Proebstel Announces Standing Committee Heads at Flower Show and Luncheon

It was a field day for flowers, new fall bonnets, and the renewal of old acquaintances when the first meeting of the season for members of Klamath Falls Woman's Library club was called at one o'clock Monday afternoon in the Willard by the president, Mrs. R. R. Proebstel. A background of lovely fall blossoms, with arrangements, colorful, silly, and gay centering the long luncheon tables, started the year's program off to an excellent start.

Mrs. Sydney Evans was chairman of the interesting flower show where entries showed far more individuality and charm than ever before. Chairman of the luncheon, to which several hundred women responded, was Mrs. Leo N. Huls. To both Mrs. Evans and Mrs. Huls goes a great deal of credit for the success of this year's initial gathering.

Mrs. Proebstel announced her officers and committee members who will serve as heads during the coming year. They include Mrs. A. G. Proctor, vice president; Mrs. C. W. Hornbrook, second vice president; Mrs. R. E. Oakes, secretary; Mrs. E. D. Hamacher, treasurer.

Chairmen: Mrs. Matt H. Rauw, program, (to be found elsewhere in this section); Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt, music; Mrs. Neal Stewart, publicity; Mrs. E. D. Hamacher, membership; Mrs. Andrew M. Collier, hospitality; Mrs. Hugh B. Campbell, decorations; Mrs. D. N. Clemens, scrapbook; Mrs. Beauford E. Hayden, national defense.

One of the most delightful musical programs enjoyed in many a day was that presented by Mrs. Zumwalt who introduced an instrumental trio composed of Mrs. Joseph C. O'Neill, violin; Mrs. William Chilcote, violin cello, and Miss Marie Obenchain, piano. The three played in beautiful harmony and it is hoped they will appear again during the winter on Library club programs. Their numbers were, "Love Song," by Wright; "Oriental," by Cui; "Two Preludes" by Chopin, and "Moment Musicale," by Schubert.

Mrs. Robert Thompson, chairman of Women's Defense Savings, spoke briefly during the afternoon on defense stamps and suggested the stamps be given as bridge awards, gifts, and in various ways.

The next meeting of Library club will be held October the thirteenth at two o'clock in the Library auditorium when Mrs. Victor E. O'Neill will review Forrest Wilson's, "Crusader in Crinoline."
