credit administration; Ramon L. Kent, area supervisor, soil conservation service; John Sarginson, chief ranger, U. S. forest service, and C. A. Henderson, county agricultural agent.

On Thursday, October 16, this committee will meet in the morning with representatives of the state USDA defense board, to be followed by a meeting in the afternoon with agricultural committees and heads of agricultural organizations, to completely outline plans for carrying out this program in the county.

The commodities in which Klamath county is particularly interested and for which large increases have been established, includes—a milk increase of approximately 15 per cent over the 1936-40 average. This will put the 1942 production of milk to an all-time high of 125 billion pounds. Eggs likewise show a considerable increase, being approximately 20 per cent above the 1936-40 average for an expected goal in the nation of four billion dozen. The national hog production showed 63,196,000 hogs slaughtered each year from 1936-40 with a total expected goal in 1942 of 79,300,000. Incidentally, hog production in 1941 was already 8,000,000 hogs above the previous 5-year average. Production of beef and veal is to be upped from 1936-40 average of 24,850,000 animals slaughtered to 28,000,000. Chickens 644,000,000 to 750,000,000, with 5 per cent increase in lambs and mutton.

In order to bring about this increase in milk, poultry and meat products, increases in feed grains and hay were established. The national oat crop is to be upped from 37 million acres to 40 million; barley from approximately 13 million to better than 14 million; hay from 1936-40 average of 69,000,000 acres to 74,000,000. Other crops showing increases are flax seed, commercial vegetables, fruit, and lumber products.

Crops to be decreased from the 1936-40 average are: corn, production remaining about the same as 1941 but 6,000,000 acres below the average; wheat with 1936-40 average of 72,049,000 acres, decreased for 1942 to 50 or 55 million acres as compared with production in 1941 of 63,500,000. Cotton and tobacco are both substantially decreased, while the potato acreage is to remain approximately the same. The 1936-40 average acreage of potatoes in the nation is 1,132,000. The 1941 acreage was approximately 2,988,000 and 1942 goal has been established as 3,060,000 acres. Under recent legislation the secretary of agriculture is ordered to use the machinery of the national farm program to maintain prices on farm products for which he finds it necessary to encourage expansion and production. This provides for a government-supported price to be maintained at not less than 85 per cent of parity.

This program provides for a total farm production of 15 per cent higher than the 1924-29 average and the greatest production in the history of the nation. It is estimated that of this production 6 or 8 per cent is required to take care of the needs of Great Britain and total exports, including lease-lend shipments, may amount to as much as 8 to 10 per cent of the total production. As soon as preliminary county plans are completed on October 16, every farm will be visited and the producer requested to take an inventory of his farm plans in order to see what increases can be made in present production and production during 1942.

INSURANCE MEN PLEDGE BOOST FOR BOND SALE

The Life Underwriters Association of Southern Oregon pledged its whole-hearted support to the sale of defense savings bonds and stamps at a luncheon held at the Willard hotel Wednesday noon, with members of the county defense savings committee present as guests.

Speaker of the day was John C. F. Merrifield, state general agent of the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance company of Portland, who outlined methods by which the underwriters can assist in promoting defense savings.

He recalled that in the World War, the National Life Underwriters association was responsible for the sale of $1,000,000,000 in liberty loans. As good a job is to be done by the underwriters again in this present emergency, he asserted.

He told how life insurance men are working effectively as interviewers to assist in salary allotment bond sales in Portland, and discussed other plans for similar work. He said the association will set aside one day a month for promotion of defense savings. He advised life insurance men to buy bonds themselves.

Lynn Roycroft was chairman of the day in the absence of President Paul Winter. Paul Robertson introduced Chairman Andrew Collier of the county defense savings committee and several members of the committee and sub-committee who were present as guests.

Bands of Chetniks, guerrilla fighters, and armed farmers were declared to have taken part in the attack on the town, which has a population of about 12,000 and which lies only 40 miles west of Belgrade, former Yugoslav capital.

A number of persons have been executed in the German-occupied sections of former Yugoslavia in recent weeks for acts of sabotage and other opposition.

Dienst said one section of Sabac which surrendered to the rebels was laid waste and all males were sent to concentration camps. Men in neighboring villages who resisted the advance of troops moving against the rebels also were reported sent to labor camps.

thing as a TEAM in Quebec. There is certainly no such thing as a two-horse wagon or a two-horse buggy on the streets or on the roads.

But buggies and hacks (the hacks being of about the vintage of the Democrat wagons of the United States) are numerous in the extreme. Outside the cities, they are practically the rule.

If you are familiar with the border between the United States and Mexico and the differences that exist on the two sides thereof, you will jump at once to the conclusion that the people of Maine can afford automobiles whereas the people of Quebec can't.

In this writer's humble opinion, you will be WRONG.

The boundary between the United States and Mexico divides two radically differing economic systems. In Quebec and in Maine the economic systems are substantially the same. The forms of government are more or less identical—not only in theory but in actual flesh-and-blood reality.

And it is perfectly obvious that on the Quebec side of the line the people are just as prosperous as on the Maine side.

IT must go deeper than economics or government.

The racial traditions of these rural people of Quebec must be such as to cause them not to WANT automobiles (and similar evidences of ultra-modern civilization) as compellingly as the people of adjoining Maine and New York want them.

At least, that is as close as this writer can come to figuring it out.

war with soviet Russia to conserve German resources in manpower and equipment for an all-out assault on Great Britain.

The news agency warned that if the war with Russia is extended over a long period the axis powers may be faced with a dearth of materials because, it said, they are a union of "have-nots."

Britain and America, on the other hand, the agency declared, may become stronger because they represent a union of "haves."

In this writer's humble opinion, you will be WRONG.
