

Many Enjoy Benefit Party on Saturday

Wednesday Club of St. Paul's Entertain at Willard With Lovely Autumn Affair

One of the loveliest of early fall parties was the benefit bridge, fashion show and tea sponsored Saturday afternoon at half past one o'clock in the Willard hotel by the Wednesday club of St. Paul's Episcopal church. A charming setting of autumn fruits, flowers and vegetables completed the fall theme stressed at the party.

Cards were under way at half past one o'clock with more than seventy tables in play. At four o'clock Whittall's presented charming fall fashions from morning through cocktail time and evening wear. Mr. Emile Buzaid played during the show.

A clever center arrangement of fall flowers and fruits was used on the pretty tea table where yellow candles were burning in silver candlesticks. Presiding at the coffee and tea services were Mrs. Victor E. Newman, wife of the rector of St. Paul's, and Mrs. R. Henry Anderson, past president of the guild. Assisting at the table were Mrs. Marvin K. Lucas, Mrs. Clark Rawlings, and Miss Hazel Morrison.

Awards in cards were presented through the courtesy of Moe's, the Art and Gift shop, Garcelon's, and Your Store.

Members of Wednesday club making arrangements for the party were Miss Jean Whitney, president; Mrs. John S. Coppage, Mrs. Marshall Farmer, Miss Lillian Redkey, Mrs. Vernon Kuykendall, Mrs. John Schubert, Miss Connell Napier, Mrs. Marvin K. Lucas, Mrs. Clark Rawlings, Miss Olive Wilson, Miss Orpha Hudson, Miss Hazel Morrison, Mrs. Victor E. Newman, Mrs. James Swensen Jr., and Mrs. Harold Shaffer.

DATE NAMED FOR BENEFIT BRIDGE TEA

Officers and committee chairmen of the Lion's auxiliary met Wednesday noon for luncheon at the Willard hotel to discuss final plans for their fall benefit tea which will be held on Saturday afternoon, November the eighth, at the Willard hotel.

Mrs. Edward S. Robinson, chairman of the function, appointed Mrs. Paul Skeen and Mrs. Al Penzel to serve at the tea table. Mrs. Penzel is chairman of the eye conservation committee. Mrs. Ted Shoop will have charge of reservations for the afternoon event and those wishing early reservations may call 3481.

Those present at the luncheon were: Mrs. Herick Wheeler, Mrs. Walter Wiesendanger, Mrs. Ted Shoop, Mrs. F. Cecil Adams, Mrs. Victor Vehringer, Mrs. George P. Davis, Mrs. Edward S. Robinson, Mrs. Paul Skeen, Mrs. Matt Finnigan, Mrs. Allen Otto, Mrs. Myrie Adams, Mrs. Vern Owens, Mrs. Gene Hooker and Mrs. Carl Mason.

MRS. HICKMAN HOSTESS TO BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. Edward Hickman of Weyerhaeuser entertained for members of her bridge club on Tuesday evening of this past week. Supper was served after several hours of cards with high score held by Mrs. Russell Peterson, second by Mrs. Robert Harwood.

Guests included Mrs. Thomas Neely, Mrs. Harwood, Mrs. William Westover, Mrs. Estel Atfield, Mrs. Peterson, Mrs. Carl Williams, and Mrs. Robert P. Ellingson Jr.

Smorgasbord Set October 25th

Persons enjoying Swedish food, and who doesn't, may visit the smorgasbord planned by the Ladies Aid of the First Covenant church in the church building Saturday evening, October the twenty-fifth. The hours are from six o'clock until eight o'clock. Features will be choice Scandinavian dishes, pickled herring, home pickled pigs' feet, ham, various assorted other meats, several kinds of cheese, puddings and other delicacies. The public is cordially invited.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Calhoun will be interested to learn they are happily located on Menlo avenue in Los Angeles and Mr. Calhoun is busy as one of the assistant coaches on the University of Southern California athletic staff. They spent some time here this summer as guests of Mrs. Calhoun's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. King of Alameda street.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Lott of Skamokawa, Washington, are visiting at the home of their niece and family, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hammer of North Eighth street.

Nile Members Visit Valley

Temple Ceremonial at Grants Pass Attended by Nile

A number of members of the Klamath Falls Nile club were in attendance at the ceremonial of Zuleima temple, Daughters of the Nile, held at Grants Pass Saturday afternoon, October the eleventh, which was preceded by a luncheon at half past twelve o'clock and followed by a tea.

Among those present from here were Mrs. Lawrence Bertram, Mrs. J. C. O'Neill, Mrs. Delos Mills, Mrs. Harry Panning, Mrs. Paul Matthews, Mrs. M. W. McVay, Mrs. J. H. Poppy and Mrs. Jerry Ricker.

The October meeting of the Nile club was held at the Elk hotel last Tuesday afternoon, followed by a no-hostess luncheon. Particularly attractive were the tables, arranged in U-shape and decorated with the autumn foliage of Virginia creeper, elderberries and bowls of French marigolds.

The hostess committee for the afternoon were Mrs. A. B. Epperson, Mrs. Leo N. Huls, Mrs. H. A. Nitschelm, Mrs. E. M. Chilcote and Mrs. Laura F. Willis. Awards in cards went to Mrs. E. H. Balsiger and Mrs. J. H. Poppy who were presented with defense stamps. Mrs. J. H. Carter received the special prize.

Benefit Party Plans Made by Auxiliary

Affair Scheduled for Thursday Evening in Willard Hotel With Fashion Show as Fall Feature

The American Legion auxiliary is sponsoring a benefit card party to be held in the Willard hotel Thursday evening, October the sixteenth, at eight o'clock. As an interesting attraction Moe's will feature a fall fashion show displaying the new autumn apparel.

Proceeds of this benefit are to be used for community service and for the annual gift table which the auxiliary sponsors at the Veterans' hospital at Roseburg. Every disabled veteran is allowed to select a gift for each member of his family at Christmas time, these gifts are wrapped and packed, with gift card enclosed and sent to the veteran's family. Playing cards, books, magazines and various other items are also purchased and sent to the hospital to help make life pleasant for the boys who have been confined since our last war. All materials used in various handicraft work is either purchased or donated by the units and sent to the hospital to be used by the veterans in occupational therapy.

The public is cordially invited to attend. Tables for bridge or pinochle may be reserved by calling 4487, 5690 or 3898. Prizes are being arranged for bridge and pinochle. Mrs. Robert Ross is serving as general chairman and Mrs. George P. Davis is acting as style show chairman. Mrs. H. C. Foster, Mrs. Fred Heilbronner and Mrs. A. P. Heup are in charge of tea table and arranging for refreshments, and Mrs. George H. Rogers and Mrs. A. Peterstainer have charge of reservations.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Wellington and Mr. and Mrs. Roderick Smith left Friday evening for Corvallis where they will spend the weekend on the Oregon State college campus visiting their sons, Bert Wellington Jr., and Donald Smith. They will also attend the OSC-Stanford game and the men will be guests at Father's day festivities.

Reception Is Given at KUHS

Freshmen, Parents Given Welcome at Program Wednesday

A reception given by the faculty and the Parents and Patrons club of KUHS honored the freshmen students and their parents on Wednesday evening, October the eighth, at the high school.

A vocal solo by Mr. Guy Bates opened the evening's program, and this was followed by a welcome from Frank Ganong, student body president, and a response from Bill Wilson, freshman class president.

A short talk was given by Mr. Malcolm Epley, a song by Miss Patricia Brown, and the address of the evening was presented by Superintendent A. L. Gralapp. After a short intermission, refreshments were served in the cafeteria.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Tindall of 2337 Garden avenue were the first freshmen parents to take out memberships in the Parents and Patrons club this year.

Mrs. Walter Eschebeck acted as master of ceremonies for the reception. Other members of the faculty served on the committee. Members of the Parents club on the committee were Mrs. Harry E. Goeller Sr., president; Mrs. Charles King, treasurer and chairman of the membership committee, Mrs. C. H. Underwood, Mrs. Charles Schaaf and Mrs. Arch G. Proctor.
