

From MIDFIELD

by Bob Leonard

THE SCORE

Over the weekend W. E. Guessen plucked 30 winners from a hatful of 37 for a .811 average. For not picking Oregon State, Guessen was penalized by our pushing three of the games into the loss column. Season average is .773 which is figured from 85 winners out of 110 attempts.

OVERSIGHT

Concerning that Stanford business, Guessen can't say he wasn't warned. City Editor Art Bremer tossed this at him last Thursday:
The Stanfords and their touted "D"
Are doomed to fold before the "D"
In Durdan-Dethman-Day we see
A Beaver "D for Destiny"

FROM THE CUFF

Hank Nilsen, head coach of the Bend Lava Bears, was drafted last Thursday. His place has been taken by Andy Hurney, former Oregon athlete. . . . Pete Kmetovic, injured in Saturday's end-of-the-road at Corvallis, is reported to be variously suffering from a bruised leg and a chipped spinal bone. Press service reports assert it's only a leg but a trio of Indians who stopped here for lunch Sunday feared it was a back injury. Which, if true, will probably keep him out for the balance of the season. . . .

Quentin Greenough, Oregon State captain Saturday and mainstay of the Beaver line, will be out of action for six weeks due to the dislocated knee suffered against the Indians. . . .

BOWERMAN SAYS . . .

Bill Bowerman, Medford pilot, was in the stands Friday night as the Pelicans crushed the touted Ashland Grizzlies.

He said:
That Klamath displayed a "very fine line, four good backs and potent blocking and tackling."

And added:
"Klamath took the game strictly in stride. They didn't show any of their pet plays and tossed only one forward pass. I believe their blocking and tackling were excellent, and I saw enough to realize that we are going to have a whale of a job on our hands next Friday night."
Bill, incidentally, has successfully passed his army physical exam and may be called at any moment.

FOSTER LEADS

Goggled Ralph Foster's two Friday touchdowns pushed him into the scoring lead in the Southern Oregon loop, topping Ashland's Bud Provost by five points. Tied for third is practically every back in the circuit. Christensen and Mast included.

Here it is:

	Td	Fg	Pat	Tdt.
Foster, KF	2	0	0	12
Provost, Ash	1	0	1	7
Christensen, KF	1	0	0	6
Mast, KF	1	0	0	6
Caton, Ash	1	0	0	6
Elam, Ash	1	0	0	6
Wray, Med	1	0	0	6
Dippel, Med	1	0	0	6
Jones, Med	1	0	0	6
Marshall, GP	1	0	0	6
Edmundson, KF	0	0	2	2
Hopkins, Med	0	0	1	1
Jandreau, Ash	0	0	1	1
Prosser, GP	0	0	1	1

Four Grade School Grid Teams Play

Bidding for a share of the football lime light four teams of grade school footballers met on Modoc field Saturday morning to do battle in the opening games of the city elementary school league.

In the first game of the morning Fremont won from Mills 12 to 0, with Roosevelt-Fairview's combined team defeating Riverside 9 to 0.

John Linman's sparkling 35 yard run won the game for Fremont, with Ray Craig recovering a fumble for the clinching score in the last quarter.

Rod Murray intercepted a Riverside pass on the 50 yard line and with the aid of some pretty fair blocking scored without a man touching him. Roosevelt-Fairview had previously scored 2 points on a safety.

Portland Pups Named Best Brace

PORTLAND, Oct. 13 (AP)—Two Cocker Spaniels, owned by Frank C. Bell, Salem, were named the best brace of dogs in the show as the Pacific International Livestock Exposition closed Saturday.

Bell also exhibited the best sporting dog, a cocker, Windridge Stormy Squire.
Geraldine Meek, Molalla, won a Hampshire ewe for scoring high in 4-H club sheep contests.

Stanford Drive Falls

Led by Vucinich (32) Stanford's halfback Pete Kmetovic (17) sweeps around right end but Oregon State's G. Peters is right there and stops him with no gain in their game played at Corvallis, Oregon. Oregon State upset Stanford 10 to 0 before 22,000 fans.

Sports

Midland Empire

PAGE SIX October 13, 1941

Unbeaten Prep Ranks Cut to Six Elevens

By MATT KRAMER
Associated Press Staff Writer
Powerful Salem and Klamath Falls cut the ranks of major unbeaten Oregon high school football teams to six during the week-end by walloping conference opponents.

Salem, unscored on in three games, toppled the previously high-flying Albany team, 20 to 0, to assume leadership of the no-name league. Klamath Falls crushed Ashland, 20 to 0, and moved to the top in the southern Oregon conference.

Rolling along on their unblemished ways were Milton-Freewater, which ran wild over Baker, 32 to 7; The Dalles, 14 to 0 winner over Bend, and Hood River, 18 to 6 victor over McMinnville. Medford, also unbeaten, was idle.

Two of the minor powers also kept slates clean. Myrtle Point's T-formation team came from behind to nose out Coquille, 13 to 6, and Vernonia shoved Rainier aside, 19 to 0. Surprise games of the week-end were Hermiston's 7-7 tie with Pendleton, a team much respected in eastern Oregon, and Corvallis' 40 to 0 drubbing of Oregon City. Corvallis, off to a slow start this season, had not been expected to develop that much power.

In other major games Marshfield defeated Grants Pass, 7 to 0, Vancouver, Wash., trimmed Eugene, 19 to 0, and Roseburg downed Lebanon, 13 to 7.

Scores included:
Molalla 13 Silvertown 6, Tillamook 0 Milwaukie 0, Woodburn 49 Sherwood 0, Forest Grove 6 Seaside 6, Hill Military (Portland) 7 Clatskanie 0, Springfield 20 Sweet Home 7, Staying 0 Mill City 0, Parkrose 13 Canby 0, Sandy 34 Estacada 0, Amity 19 Monmouth 0, Chemawa 6 Gresham 0, Dallas 25 Willamina 0, Independence 19 Sheridan 0, Toledo 13 Siuslaw

FOOTBALL

WEST
Oregon State 10, Stanford 0
Southern California 9, Oregon 20
Washington State 13, Washington 23
California 9, Santa Clara 13
Cal Aggies 21, Humboldt State 0
Eastern Oregon College of Education 21
University of Portland Freshman 13
Pomona 6, Whittier 14
Metzger Field 26, California Ramblers 4
USC Fresh 6, Stanford Fresh 15

EAST
Dartmouth 10, Colgate 6
Yale 12, Penn 20
Harvard 0, Cornell 7
Syracuse 6, Holy Cross 9
Brady 41, Temple 9
Army 27, VMI 15
NYU 7, Texas A. & M. 49
Maryland 21, Virginia Tech 13
New York Aggies 10, National Farm 8
W. & A. 7, Dickinson 6
Maryland 41, Temple 9
Haverford 21, Susquehanna 0
Swarthmore 20, American University 9
Hamilton 27, Hobart 12
St. Anselm 13, American International 9
Northwick 20, Mass. State 0
Dartmouth 10, Colgate 6
Wesleyan 7, Connecticut 0
Penn State 27, Bucknell 13
Rutgers 20, Northwestern 9
Middlebury 6, Union 9
B. own 14, Rhode Island 7
Dartmouth 10, Colgate 6
Tufts 15, Bates 13
Colby 12, Vermont 0
Middlebury 6, Union 9
Maine 7, New Hampshire 7
West Virginia 20, West Virginia Wesleyan 0
A. & S. 14, Virginia State 13
Lockhaven Teachers 13, Slippery Rock Teachers 0
West Virginia Tech 12, Shepherd State 0

MIDWEST
Michigan State 12, Marquette 7
Northwest 41, Wisconsin 14
Michigan 40, Pittsburgh 6
Indiana 14, Texas Christian 20
Minnesota 24, Illinois 6
Nebraska 21, Kansas 6
North Dakota 14, South Dakota 7
DePaul 12, Hanover 9
Oman 25, Simpson 0
Indiana State Teachers 6, Franklin 9
Wabash 14, Earlham 6
Clemson 12, Knox 9
Marquette 7, Mt. Union 12
Lake Forest 20, Carroll 12
Clemson 12, Knox 9
Bowling Green 20, Miami (O.) 9
Woroster 10, Denison 2
North Dakota State 25, South Dakota 0
James Millikin 33, Illinois College 9
Birmingham Teachers 34, Duluth Teachers 9
Dubuque 19, Iowa Wesleyan 7
Cornell College 17, Beloit 13
Luther 25, St. Olaf 0

SOUTH
North Carolina 14, Furman 27
Georgia Tech 9, Notre Dame 20
Kentucky 15, Vanderbilt 20
Clemson 21, Boston College 13
Howard 5, Alabama 41
Duke 20, Maryland 7
Villanova 6, Florida 0
Wofford 12, Erskine 6
Auburn 24, Louisiana Tech 9
Tennessee 12, Dayton 0
Fish O. Ten. A. & I. State 0
Virginia 44, Richmond 7
William & Mary 16, VPI 7
Wake Forest 4, South Carolina 4
LSU 9, Mississippi State 9
Morgan 23, Virginia University 9
E. Tenn. State Teachers 4, Emory Johnson 0
Western Maryland 24, Mt. St. Mary's 11
Morehead Teachers 25, Davis Elkins 7
Georgia State 1, C. 12, Voorhees 4

Texas 40, Oklahoma 7
Rice 10, Tulane 9
Adams State 9, Pueblo JC 9
Flagstaff Teachers 24, Silver City Teachers 0
Arkansas A. & M. 13, Alcorn 9
Baylor 20, Arkansas 7
Weatherford Teachers 3, Oklahoma City University 0
SMU 24, College of Pacific 9
ROCKY MOUNTAIN
Colorado College 20, Montana State 7
Utah 50, Wyoming 6
Colorado 11, Utah State 7
Arizona State 9, New Mexico State 9
Western State 8, Idaho (Southern) 13
Trinidad, Colo. JC 12, Ft. Lewis Aggies 9

Granstrom Named PNSA Head, 1941-42 Tourney Card Set

ELLENSBURG, Oct. 13 (AP)—Allan Granstrom of the Seattle ski club was elected president of the Pacific Northwest Ski association at its annual meeting here yesterday afternoon. Granstrom defeated the incumbent, Otto Sanford, of the Washington ski club in Seattle, in a hotly contested election.

Other officers named were C. E. Gustafson, Portland, 1st vice president; Herbert Lonseth, Seattle, retained as secretary; Earl Morrison, Spokane, treasurer, and "Arroch Crookes of Portland, representing the Sun Valley ski club, executive committee.

Chosen to be delegates to the national ski association convention in Milwaukee were Granstrom, Lonseth, Crookes, Alfred D. Lindley, Minneapolis; Fred H. McNeil, Portland; Peter H. Hostmark, Seattle, and John Ellertson, East Stanwood.

association's region into seven zones to improve competition. The following schedule was adopted for the 1941-42 season:
Dec. 7 — Arnold Lund downhill, Mt. Hood
Dec. 22 — Portland Bay downhill, Mt. Hood
Dec. 29-30-31 and Jan. 1 — Intercollegiate ski jumps, Bon Valley.
Jan. 11 — PNSA ski patrol contest, Snoqualmie pass.
Jan. 17-18 — Jeffers cup competition, Sun valley.
Jan. 25 — Open jumping contest, Snoqualmie bowl.
Jan. 31, Feb. 14 — Way junior championships, Paradise Valley.
Feb. 1 — Leavenworth open jumping, Leavenworth.
Feb. 8 — PNSA cross country championships, Snoqualmie summit.
Feb. 14-15 — Class A PNSA men's, women's championships downhill slalom, Mt. Spokane.
Feb. 15 — Class B, C men's downhill, slalom, combined all Oregon, Tillamook, Ore.
Feb. 22 — Sun Valley ski club downhill and slalom championships.
Feb. 22 — NSA classic combined championships, Beaver Lake.

WIELAND'S HAS THE FLAVOR!

where you must be pleased!

WEBB KENNETT
MEN'S CLOTHING • 701 MAIN ST.

OSC Triumph Over Stanford Tops Grid Upsets; Ducks Win

Indian T Stopped in Rain, 10-0

Durdan, Dethman Lead Staters Attack in Stunning Win Over Champions.

By JACK F. GALE
CORVALLIS, Ore., Oct. 11 (UP)—The "rags-to-riches" saga of the Stanford university grid-CORVALLIS, Ore., Oct. 13 iron machine ended here Saturday when a mighty Oregon State college team powered and passed to a 10-to-0 victory before 22,000 wild fans.

The Stanfordites, with Frankie Albert leading the push for their 13th straight victory, ran into 11 smooth-working, husky, orange-clad Oregon Staters and couldn't score a single point.

Dethman, Durdan Star
Bob Dethman and Don Durdan, as clever a pair of backs as can be found on the Pacific coast, maneuvered in the first period to the 18-yard line for a placement.

Then, to wrap up the game, Oregon State picked up a fumble on the 13-yard line in the third period, from where the Oregon Staters scampered to a touchdown.

The defeat ended Stanford's spectacular streak of victories on unucky 13.

As rain thundered down, the boys from Oregon State tied up the gunshot arm of little Albert, pushed back the surging forward wall of the Stanfordites, and throughout the game played the champions to a standstill before a wildly partisan crowd.

Not Albert, but the team of Durdan and Dethman, which last week swept Oregon State to an upset victory over the University of Washington, stole the show.

It was midway in the first quarter that the Staters began to show power.

Taking the oval on their own 34, OSC began to march. Dethman made six, a penalty against Stanford added five more and then Durdan got 5. Thus it went, Dethman and Durdan, ripping off yardage, with Choc Shelton, the fullback, adding his quarter's worth. The parade ended on the 16-yard stripe, from where Warren Simas, saved for just such an occasion by Coach Lon Siner, calmly booted the ball between the uprights for three points.

The title was decided this year by an elimination tournament conducted during the past ten days. To reach the finals the Fremont boys won a 2 to 2 victory over Riverside and upset Pelican school 13 to 10 in a close contest. Roosevelt reached the finals by winning from Fairview 3 to 0 and dumping the strong Mills team 7 to 2.

Fremont won the final game from Roosevelt by superiority in the air. The passing game of the blue-shirted boys baffled the Teddies through the entire game with Fremont winning 15 to 3.

ENGLISH PANCAKES

In England, one method of eating pancakes is to roll them up like ladyfingers, flavor with a sprinkling of sugar and lemon juice and eat them one by one.

Wildcats Drop Third Game to Yreka, 32-7

The hapless Klamath Wildcats lost their third straight football game of the season to the Yreka Miners Saturday night at Modoc field, Yreka skyrocketing the score 32 to 7.

Klamath's only score came when Stone intercepted a Miner pass and scooted down the sidelines for 60 yards. Try for extra point was good.

All points chalked up by the Yreka eleven were marked by long runs. In the first quarter Slingley romped 40 yards to a touchdown, Thomason ran 58 yards for a scorer, and the last three touchdowns were scored by Moran of the Miners, all runs ranging over 30 yards.

Tulane Toppled By Rice in Reversal; Colgate Whipped

By JACK CUDDY

NEW YORK, Oct. 13 (UP)—The thunderous toppling of Stanford and Tulane reverberated throughout the football lapid today after one of the wildest shakedown Saturdays in years.

Almost as startling and important as Stanford's loss was Tulane's 10-9 defeat by Rice at Houston, Tex., by virtue of a 22-yard field goal in the last quarter. Tulane, regarded as a Southwestern titan, had gone into this game a lopsided favorite because of its awe-inspiring victories over Boston college and Auburn. The green wave with its heavy, powerful ball carriers, seemed headed straight for one of the major bowl games. They pushed the lighter Rice Owls all over the field, but wound up on the wrong end of the score.

Notable Upsets
Many other major schools suffered their initial defeats, most of them in their first important games. However, Marquette and Colgate were victims in notable upsets. Marquette's Golden avalanche, which loomed like a mid-western power after last week's victory over Wisconsin, succumbed to Michigan State today, 13-7, largely because of two hard-running backs, Dick Kieppe and Bob Sherman. This was unexpected because Michigan State had been downed in its opening game, 19-7, by Michigan.

Andy Kerr's Colgate Red Raiders, who looked like an eastern threat after victories over St. Lawrence and Penn State, were humbled 18-6 by an alert Dartmouth eleven which gave New Coach Tuss McLaughry his first major victory at the green Indians' helm.

Texas Wins, 40-7
A talent feature of competition was the strength shown by southwestern teams in inter-sectional contests. In addition to the Rice upset over Tulane, Texas A. and M. invaded New York U. and crushed the Violets 49-7; Texas Christian belted over Indiana, 20-14, and Texas rolled up a surprisingly large score, 40-7, over Oklahoma.

Fordham lived up to expectations in defeating North Carolina, 27-14, and Notre Dame likewise in blanking Georgia Tech, 20-0. Minnesota and Northwestern continued to stand out as Big Ten threats by beating Illinois, 34-6, and Wisconsin, 41-14, respectively.

After the downfall of Stanford, the Pacific coast is left with but one major unbeaten team, the Santa Clara Broncos, who belted California, 13-0. New England is in the same fix, with only Dartmouth retaining an unscuffed block on Washington's 35 and a pass from Sewell to Fletcher was good for the score. Sewell converted.

The Huskies made their first touchdown in the opening seconds of the third period. Barrett plunged over for the counter after paving the way with a 25-yard run from WSC's 32. Berg converted.

Washington repeated a few moments later after taking a WSC kick on the WSC 28. Brooks scored after Barrett plunged to the WSC three. Berg made the extra point.

Washington opened the last period with its final score. Stackpool stepped over after a power drive from midfield and the try for point was good, making the score Washington 23, Washington State 13, the final count when the gun ended the game a few minutes later.

Washington's score came in the third quarter after a pass from their halfback to one of their fast ends. They failed to convert. Coach Paul Deller named some of the stars for the Klamathites for their first encounter. They were Dick Eastman, Harry Tindle, Delbert Lynum, Bob Perkins and Buddy Beane.

Huskies Turn on Power in 2nd Half, Whip WSC, 23-13

By DAVE DRYDEN
PULLMAN, Wash., Oct. 13 (UP)—The University of Washington turned on the power in the second half of a Pacific Coast conference football game Saturday, to defeat Washington State college 23-13 before a homecoming crowd of 15,000.

It was a field day for Washington, in pursuit of its first conference victory of the season. After trailing 13-2 and seemingly outplayed during the first two quarters, Washington turned on the power and pushed over three touchdowns in the second half.

WSC's first touchdown came early in the second period when Sewell threw a long pass from the mid-stripe to Fletcher who scurried to Washington's two. Londons made the score.

A blocked kick minutes later set up the second touchdown drive. Kennedy snagged the blocked ball on Washington's 35 and a pass from Sewell to Fletcher was good for the score. Sewell converted.

The Huskies made their first touchdown in the opening seconds of the third period. Barrett plunged over for the counter after paving the way with a 25-yard run from WSC's 32. Berg converted.

CY CHAGNY SEZ:

There's many a good listener, that's too dumb to talk!

Everybody's talking about Lombard's — where you see the difference in SERVICE!

LOMBARD MOTORS
DODGE - PLYMOUTH
DODGE - JOB - RATED TRUCKS
414 SOUTH 6th ST
PHONE 3136 - KLAMATH FALLS

Mecham's Passes Drop USC, 20-6

Webfoots Win First Victory Over Trojans Since 1915 by Way of Aerials.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 13 (UP)—University of Oregon's heavy football team, with a reputation for powerhouse tactics, unexpectedly took the airlines Saturday for three touchdowns passes that netted the Oregonians a 20 to 6 win over the University of Southern California.

Forty thousand spectators sat in Memorial coliseum and watched Curt Mecham, a 21-year-old Bakersfield, California, youth—who went north to Oregon for his education—do his home state wrong all afternoon. Mecham, a lefthander, threw all three of the spectacular passes which meant victory for Oregon.

Mecham Intercepts
Mecham, a right halfback, went to work after the teams had played scoreless ball until a few minutes before the half was to end. Mecham intercepted a long forward pass by Bobby Robertson, the Trojan quarterback, on the USC 41-yard line.

Passes by Mecham and plunging by Fullback James Newquist, worked the ball to a first down on the Trojan eight. Mecham then passed over the goal line to End Bill Regner for the score. Newquist converted from placement.

All of the remaining touchdowns of the battle came in the third period with Oregon chalking up two additional markers before USC could score.

Roblin Scores
The second Oregon touchdown came after Oregon took the ball on USC's 41-yard line after an exchange of kicks.

Newquist passed to Anthony Crish, right end, for a first down on the USC 17-yard line. On the next play, the flashy Mecham dropped back and passed to Halfback Tom Roblin for a touchdown. Newquist kicked the extra point.

Trailing 14 to 0, the desperate Trojans immediately started passing and Mecham contributed his most spectacular play of the day when he intercepted Bobby Robertson's pass on the Oregon 40-yard line and raced 53 yards to the Trojan seven. Mecham almost made the entire distance but was nipped from behind. Mecham plunged two yards, and on the second down of the series shot a pass to Russell Nowling, sub right end, who made a leaping catch in the end zone. Newquist's attempted place kick for the extra point was wide.

This time Casanega was not to be denied. Catching the ball on his own 34, he skipped past the California tacklers to the eastern sideline and ran, straight as a string, down the field to score.

After the downfall of Stanford, the Pacific coast is left with but one major unbeaten team, the Santa Clara Broncos, who belted California, 13-0. New England is in the same fix, with only Dartmouth retaining an unscuffed

Santa Clara Rides Over Cal, 13-0

MEMORIAL STADIUM, BERKELEY, Calif., Oct. 13 (UP)—Two spectacular runs in the second half gave University of Santa Clara a well deserved 13-0 win over University of California in the resumption of their football relations before 60,000 fans in Memorial stadium Saturday.

Kenny Casanega, Santa Clara's swift breakaway threat, and Al Santucci, the Santa Clara sturdy center, made the touchdowns. Tackle Al Braun kicked one conversion for the other point.

Casanega Scores
Casanega's touchdown thrust was a 66-yard tight-rope sprint down the sidelines returning a punt in the third period.

Three plays before Casanega had run 51 yards on a punt to give Santa Clara a first down on California's 4. A fumble by a teammate nullified the run, however, and California took the ball on its 20.

This time Casanega was not to be denied. Catching the ball on his own 34, he skipped past the California tacklers to the eastern sideline and ran, straight as a string, down the field to score.

Boxing ARMORY

Tues., 8:30 P. M.

Thrills and Spills

PHONE FOR TICKET RESERVATIONS
The Rialto Phone 5777
Waggoner's Drug Phone 3263
Louie Polin's Phone 6863