

Marshal Pleads Guilty to Charge Of Slaying Ex-Wife

PENDLETON, Oct. 15 (AP)—James Carson, former Free water marshal, entered a plea of guilty to a charge of second degree murder in connection with the death of his former wife, Lucile, at Freeport, July 18, in circuit court here Tuesday. Mrs. Carson's body was found

Sept. 9 buried beneath the floor of a garage. Carson was arrested immediately after her body was found and admitted that he buried the woman but said her death was accidental. Sheriff Bob Goad said today that Carson had not made a confession and the changing of his plea of not guilty to first degree murder to guilty of second degree murder came as a surprise to officers. Circuit Judge C. L. Sweek set Thursday morning at 10 a. m. as time for sentence. Sentence of life imprisonment is mandatory. Read the Classified page.
