

ARMY WITHIN 50 MILES OF RED CAPITAL

resisting in this sector, and red army counter-attacks near Kalinin, 95 miles northwest of Moscow, were reported to have thrown the nazis back across the Iver river.

The German high command said nazis and Italian troops smashing into Russia's vital Donets river industrial basin, source of rich supplies of iron, coal and manganese, captured Stalino yesterday.

Stalino, a city of 435,000 population, lies on one of the two main rail lines between Moscow and the great Caucasian oil fields.

A bulletin from Adolf Hitler's field headquarters, describing Stalino as one of the most important armament centers in the Donets basin, said nazis forces took the surrounding region yesterday and that "Stalino itself was taken by Alpinists." These might be either German or Italian troops.

"The reich's war flag is flying from one of the most important industrial plants in this city," the German high command said.

Nazi military commentators reported that the southern axis armies were led by picked units of Hitler's own elite guard. They indicated that Rostov, gateway to the Caucasus, soon would probably become the pivot for a gigantic new encirclement movement to take the Donets basin.

On the bloody central front before Moscow, the German high command said Gen. Petrov, identified as commander in chief of the Russian 50th army and a member of the supreme soviet council, had been found dead on the battlefield east of Bryansk, 200 miles south of Moscow.

In the north, German military dispatches reported that red army troops counter-attacking around Lake Ladoga, near Leningrad, had suffered heavy losses. The Germans acknowledged, however, that the soviet counter blows had been launched on a broad scale with great ferocity.

Resumption of Oregon-OSC Battle Viewed

PORTLAND, Oct. 21 (AP)—Claude Buchanan, president of Oregon and Oregon State the Oregon Taxpayers' federation a battle over science and commercial courses.

He said the matter was to come up at the state board of higher education meeting at Ashland next Monday and Tuesday.

"The university covets the department of pure science that was allocated to the college by the survey commission, enjoined by state law in 1929. No doubt the college will counter by requesting that commerce, that was developed at the Corvallis institution, and allocated to the university, be restored to the college. All of which will mean restatement of the principle of duplication of courses at the separate institutions and defeat of the principle for which the unified system was created," Buchanan said.

"Taxpayers are entitled to know why the board has chosen to receive the chancellor's recommendation and take action on this important matter at the meeting in Ashland—as far as possible from the interests involved," he added. Buchanan said he was making his statement in an effort to call the board's action to public attention.

which Britain stepped into Iran and Iraq. Remember the story earlier this week that Afghanistan has apparently been brought into the British-Russian front along this general line.

Don't forget that INDIA lies behind this front and that General Wavell, who licked the Italians in northern Africa, has been busy for many months organizing India for war.

It is beginning to look as if the British aid for Russia that is being so loudly clamored for may develop in this area.

regarded the Lehigh incident as offering further grounds for the arming of American merchant vessels.

The Lehigh was flying the American flag. She went down in approximately 8 degrees north 14 degrees west, the president reported, about 9 p. m. Sunday.

At first Mr. Roosevelt said he did not care to comment on the sinking, as the facts spoke for themselves. A reporter asked whether it was known who had sunk the Lehigh and he replied scoffingly by inquiring, who do you suppose?

Certainly it wasn't a British, an American, French or Argentine submarine, he declared. The process of elimination, he added, is sometimes useful in writing for newspapers.

Reminded that Secretary Hull, in discussing the torpedoing of the Kearny, had said he would not waste words on international pirates, Mr. Roosevelt said he would ditto that statement.

Farmer Faces Charges for Chaining Wife

VANDALIA, Ill., Oct. 21 (UP)—An information charging false imprisonment was filed in Fayette county court Monday against Neal Cahoon, 62-year-old farmer whose arrest Saturday resulted in discovery that he chained his 19-year-old wife head and foot to a bed each time he left his 112-acre river bottom farm.

Cahoon was held in lieu of $1000 bond on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon. The accusation was filed by three railroad section workers who claimed Cahoon, at the point of a gun, forced them to sign confessions to intimacy with his 19-year-old wife, Rosie.

Sheriff C. F. Chesier discovered the imprisonment Saturday when he went to the river bottom farm to arrest Cahoon. He found the house padlocked, but Mrs. Cahoon shouted from the inside her husband was "in town."

Arrested later in Vandalia, Cahoon refused to give Chesier the keys to his home until the sheriff threatened to break down the door.

Chesier, after unlocking padlocks and chains on three doors, found Mrs. Cahoon in a bedroom, a log chain around her neck binding her to the head of an iron bed. Another chain wound through the foot of the bed and was attached to a 60-pound piece of iron. At her side was her two-month-old son, Nealus.

"He treats me all right," Mrs. Cahoon told the sheriff when she had been freed from her chains. "He's just afraid I'll run off."

When she was asked to accompany Chesier to Vandalia, she said: "But I can't go this way. My clothes are locked up in the corn-crib."

Chesier, working through three other sets of padlocks and chains, finally obtained her clothing from the crib, 200 feet north of the house.

Actual paving began on the big main runway at the Klamath municipal airport Monday.

The ex-president had been in jail since his voluntary return last Tuesday from Cuba, where he was at the time of the bloodless coup of Oct. 9 which displaced him. His departure had the approval of the new regime, which had let it be known he would be freed if he would leave the country.

Meanwhile the new government of Dr. Ricardo Adolfo De La Guardia reversed one of Arias' last decisions as president by authorizing ships flying the flag of Panama to arm against raiders.

Many of the ships are United States-owned and ply to Britain and her empire.

Deposed Panama President Chooses Voluntary Exile

PANAMA, Oct. 21 (AP)—Arnulfo Arias, deposed president of Panama, left his home today by a Pan American Airways plane scheduled to stop in Nicaragua, apparently having come to a sudden decision to go into exile.

He arrived at Managua, Nicaragua at 7:30 a. m. by a special plane which carried an escort of three Panamas police.

The ex-president had been in jail since his voluntary return last Tuesday from Cuba, where he was at the time of the bloodless coup of Oct. 9 which displaced him. His departure had the approval of the new regime, which had let it be known he would be freed if he would leave the country.

Meanwhile the new government of Dr. Ricardo Adolfo De La Guardia reversed one of Arias' last decisions as president by authorizing ships flying the flag of Panama to arm against raiders.

QUAKE POSSIBLE CAUSE OF WAVES

NEWPORT, Oct. 21 (AP)—A theory that the Oregon's coast battering by the sea Saturday was the result of an off-shore earthquake was advanced today. W. W. Jones, former Bonneville dam geologist, said a light earth shock of a second's duration was felt at Seal Rocks, 11 miles south of here, Sunday night.

He said that earlier, unfelt shocks, centering in a fault on the continental shelf about 100 miles offshore, where other disturbances have been reported in recent years, might have caused the huge waves that washed out two bridges and damaged docked boats.

DEPOE BAY, Oct. 21 (AP)—The ocean quieted yesterday after its Saturday coastal bombardment but managed to slow up road construction. Huge waves threw spray to record heights from the spouting horn. The resultant salt-laden mist floated across the seawall, irritating workmen trying to oil a roadbed.

SALEM, Oct. 21 (AP)—The De Lake bridge over the D river, washed out Saturday by high tides, will be rebuilt immediately, the state highway commission said today.

The broken bridge was 190 feet long and of wood construction. The new bridge will be similar. Traffic on the Coast highway now is being detoured in that area.

"If this detail is attended to now, it will have a great deal of congestion later on," said the clerk.
