

Society

By LOIS STEWART

Klamath Falls, Ore.

October 25, 1941

HOME IN PORTLAND. Mrs. Harry Weimar and daughter, Ann, are now at home at 3911 Northeast Thirty-ninth street, where they have joined Mr. Weimar.

LEAVING KLAMATH FALLS are Mr. and Mrs. John Cusick and their two children, John and Sally. Their address will be Bend after November the first.

SERVING AT SOJOURNERS' party Wednesday was Mrs. Marshall Farmer. Standing, left to right, Mrs. James Cronin, Mrs. Robert Parcher Ellingson Jr., Mrs. Ralph Mahoney Stearns, (in the background), Mrs. H. Hardesty, and Mrs. Stanley Miller.

AFTERNOON TEA at the Sojourners party this week, enjoyed by Mrs. Greer Glascoe, left, and Mrs. J. H. Nealy.
—Weimar picture by Kennell-Ellis. All others by Wesley Guderian of The Herald and News.

THEODORA STEALS THE SHOW! This really is a meeting of the Reames dance committee planning Saturday's party, but little Theodora Medford is the center of attraction. Committee members, left to right, Mrs. George H. Merryman Jr., chairman, and hostess at the morning coffee; Mrs. T. M. Medford and daughter, Mrs. Mahr Reymers, Mrs. Charles V. Rugh, Mrs. Martin Swanson, and Mrs. William Hagelstein.