

Carolyn Griffith To Wed On Sunday

Well Known Klamath County Girl to Become Bride of Ernest Breithaupt at Orem Home

Miss Carolyn Faye Griffith, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Griffith of the Merrill highway, will become the bride of Mr. Ernest Breithaupt, in a ten o'clock ceremony to be read Sunday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ira F. Orem near Merrill.

The bride, to be given in marriage by her father, will wear a royal blue chiffon velvet afternoon frock with a corsage of white blossoms. The Rev. T. E. Griffith of Roseville, California, uncle of the bride will officiate.

Miss Margaret West, aunt of the bride, will be her only attendant and has chosen wine velvet with a corsage of pink roses and white gardenias.

Mr. Paul Breithaupt, brother of the groom, will be best man.

The fireplace in the living room of the Orem home, where their niece will plight her troth, will be banked with large white chrysanthemums, and smaller ones as well. Tall white candles placed before palms, will also be used. Just before the ceremony Mrs. Gerald West will sing, "I Love You Truly," accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Dorothy Jackson who will also play Lohengrin's processional.

Following the ceremony an informal reception was to be held and the bride to cut a beautifully decorated cake, later to be served by Mrs. Kenneth G. Klahn. Mrs. L. A. West will preside at the coffee urn. Miss Geraldine Manning will assist at the table, lovely in all white and silver, with a low bowl of chrysanthemums flanked on either side by tall white candles.

Mr. and Mrs. Breithaupt will leave immediately after the reception for a wedding trip which will take them to San Francisco. Upon their return they will reside in their new home in Poo Valley.

Mrs. Breithaupt was graduated this spring from Henley high school. She is a member of a pioneer Klamath county family. Mr. Breithaupt is the son of Mrs. William J. Breithaupt and the late Mr. Breithaupt and attended school in Yakima, Washington, and was later graduated from Bonanza high school.

VISITOR HONORED AT BRIDGE PARTY

Mrs. M. D. O'Neill and Mrs. Richard Hayden entertained at the O'Neill home Wednesday evening with a prettily appointed bridge party honoring Mrs. Dean Houston of Hollister, California, visiting here this week with relatives and friends.

High score in cards went to Mrs. Ben Pernigotti, low to Mrs. David Totton, and traveling to Mrs. Edward Kliever. The Halloween motif was used in favors and tallies.

Guests included Mrs. Pernigotti, Mrs. Kliever, Mrs. Totton, Mrs. Embert Fossum, Mrs. Homer Ellis, Mrs. Howard Hanville, Mrs. Ray Rueger and Mrs. Ross Dodge, and the honor guest, Mrs. Houston.

A no-hostess dinner was given for Mrs. Houston at Sari's on Friday evening. At the table were Mrs. Houston, Mrs. C. E. Peterson, Miss Elenora Weatherford, Miss Pat Livingston and Miss Jane Garcelon.

GAITY CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. DALE

Mrs. R. C. Dale entertained at her home on North Seventh street Thursday evening for members of the Gaiety club. Bridge was followed by coffee.

Mrs. Arthur K. Bryant received high score in cards. Others present included Mrs. John Houston, at whose home the group will meet in a fortnight, Mrs. Bryant, Mrs. David R. Vandenberg, Mrs. E. M. Igl, Mrs. Floyd Henriot, Mrs. G. C. Lorenz and Mrs. Mike Lav-enik.

OFFICERS TO BE HOSTESSES TO PAST MATRONS

Newly elected officers of the Past Matrons club will preside as hostesses at the October meeting scheduled for next Friday afternoon at the Masonic temple. Luncheon will be served at one o'clock. Those entertaining will be Mrs. E. E. Smith, president; Mrs. Charles Joseph Martin, vice president, and Mrs. A. B. Epperson, secretary and treasurer, assisted by Mrs. Laura Willis and Mrs. Jessie Mo-myer.

Au Revoir Parties

James Rogers Honored at Affairs During Past Week

A number of affairs were given this past week honoring James Evan Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Rogers, who has left for San Diego where he will enter his training with the United States marine corps.

Before continuing south, James was the honor guest at dinner Friday evening given by members of his fraternity, Phi Delta Theta, on the Oregon State college campus, and Saturday night attended the all-campus formal at Corvallis. This weekend he is spending with friends in Portland before leaving Tuesday for San Diego.

On Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Rogers entertained with a family dinner honoring James at their home on Pacific Terrace. Covers were laid for ten around a center arrangement of fall flowers.

On Wednesday evening Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Johnson honored James with a large dinner at their home on Pacific Terrace. Covers were laid around a centerpiece of yellow and bronze autumn flowers with tall yellow candles burning on either side.

Again on Thursday evening friends complimented James when Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Underwood entertained at dinner for both the Underwood and Rogers families. The marine colors were used in the center arrangement on the prettily appointed table.

VENTURE CLUB MEMBERS SEW FOR RED CROSS

Tuesday, October the fourteenth, the Venture club of Klamath Falls met at the home of Mrs. Rose Poole. The evening was spent in sewing on layettes for the Red Cross. Final plans were made for the annual convention of Venture clubs and Soroptimists which was held in Spokane, Wash., October the eighteenth and nineteenth. The delegates to this convention were Dorothy Teed, Dorothy O'Sullivan and Margaret West, president of the club. Mrs. Poole and Mrs. Lamm, two of the club's advisors, also attended. At the next regular meeting of the Venture club, October the twenty-eighth, Margaret West will give a full report on the convention.

The delightful evening spent in sewing was a profitable one and members took the various articles home to finish.

Saturday, November the eighth, has been set for members of Wednesday club of St. Paul's Episcopal church for the bake sale and tea towel sale at Carter's market on Pine and Seventh streets. Many interesting holiday foods will be offered.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Shoop left early Friday for Seattle to see the University of Washington-Stanford football game played Saturday afternoon.

HERE WE ARE!

And they make an attractive pair, children of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Carothers of Bonanza. Dale is the boy and Carol is the girl.

—Kennell-Ellis.

RESIDENTIAL WORKERS PLAN CAMPAIGN

Ready to start on the annual Red Cross roll call, this group of workers gathered in the party room of the Pelican on Thursday at one o'clock. A story appears on this page giving details and dates of the drive.

—Picture by Wesley Guderian of The Herald and News.

Autumn Party Given

Mrs. Inman, Mrs. Coffey Entertain on Wednesday

A gay autumn party was that given in the pine paneled room of the Elks club on Wednesday evening of this week when Mrs. Glen Inman and Mrs. Lester Coffey entertained a group of friends with cards and coffee.

Chrysanthemums and autumn leaves were used about the attractive room. In bridge high score went to Mrs. Sheldon Brumbaugh, second to Mrs. Gus Anderson, low to Mrs. Earl Gardner, and the traveling award to Mrs. LeRoy Carter.

Guests bidden to the affair included: Mrs. Henry Conradi, Mrs. LeRoy Carter, Mrs. Phil Fahlander, Mrs. A. C. Backes, Mrs. Harry W. Bathiany, Mrs. Martha McCollum, Mrs. Lynn Rasmussen, Mrs. Erle Hamilton, Mrs. A. D. Lambert, Mrs. Phil Brixner, Mrs. Earl Gardner, Mrs. B. C. Purcell, Mrs. Gus Anderson, Mrs. Wallace Uerlings, Mrs. Harvey Ayres, Mrs. Edward Dalmer, Mrs. Bud Etherton, Mrs. Charles Shinn, Mrs. Lloyd B. Emery, Mrs. Everett Vanderpool, Mrs. John Holzgang, Mrs. Herbert Hemingsen, Mrs. Sheldon Brumbaugh, Mrs. Howard Hanville, Mrs. Ralph Howard, Mrs. Arthur Skinner, Mrs. Samuel P. Konnie, Mrs. Carl Schubert, Mrs. Paul Campbell, Mrs. C. G. Reymers and Miss Gertrude Tolle.

SUPPER EVENT BEFORE GAME FRIDAY NIGHT

Just before each of the home games played on Modoc field this football season, a group of friends have met for supper at the various homes. The last home game on Friday evening, when the Pelicans played Eureka, found the group enjoying dinner in the blue room of the Willard hotel with Mrs. Martha McCollum, Mrs. Harry W. Bathiany and Mr. H. E. Jones as hosts.

Covers at dinner were laid for Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Lorenz, Mr. and Mrs. William Lorenz, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Backes, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eaton, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Britt, Mr. and Mrs. Erle Hamilton, Mrs. McCollum, Mrs. Bathiany and Mr. Jones.

Gardiners Pay Visit to City

Mr. and Mrs. George Gardiner, and their young daughter, Joyce, were greeted by many old friends upon their arrival here Tuesday evening to spend the remainder of the week visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. Fred Flock, and Mrs. Gardiner's sister, Miss Virginia West. They plan to leave Sunday morning by motor for their home in Clatskanie, after a vacation trip which included a stay in California. Mrs. Gardiner will be remembered as the former Le-Laine West of this city.

Mrs. Edward Hall Pike left the early part of the week for a stay of several months with relatives in Santa Cruz and San Francisco.

Mrs. Edward Hickman will entertain at her home on Tuesday evening for members of her bridge club.

Luncheon Meeting Attended by Group

Workers of Residential Section in Annual Red Cross Roll Call Gather in Pelican Party Room

An interested group of women gathered for luncheon in the Pelican party room Thursday at one o'clock to make plans for the annual residential campaign for the Klamath county chapter of the American Red Cross. Residential activities this year are headed by Mrs. Nelson Reed who presided at the luncheon.

During the afternoon the workers heard from Miss Elizabeth Baker who is executive secretary of the Klamath chapter, and Miss Baker outlined the plans for the coming drive.

The campaign will get under way Tuesday, November the eleventh, as Armistice day has for many years been named as the first day of the drive. It will continue for almost three weeks, ending promptly on November the thirtieth.

The territory which will be canvassed by the following group, includes both city and suburban areas. Workers are Mrs. Matthew H. Rauw, Mrs. Godfrey C. Blohm, Mrs. B. F. Hogue, Mrs. Robert Booke, Mrs. J. A. Ustick, Mrs. L. A. McCullough, Mrs. Roland Wright, Mrs. Ross Dodge, Mrs. George Adler, Mrs. Virgil Velthe, Mrs. Harry L. Brown, Mrs. L. F. Orrell, Mrs. Robert A. Mitchell, Mrs. Paul Hilton, Mrs. Keve E. Hutchinson, Mrs. A. J. Lyle, Mrs. A. G. Prickett, Mrs. J. Percy Wells, Mrs. Coleman F. O'Loughlin, Mrs. Edward Bjorklund, Mrs. I. A. Anderson, Mrs. R. E. Quick, and Mrs. Charles Nelson. Also at the luncheon were Mrs. Reed and Miss Baker.

Book Club to Hear Review

The afternoon book section of the American Association of University Women will meet Tuesday afternoon, November the fourth, at two o'clock at the home of Mrs. Hugh Campbell, 1245 Pacific Terrace. At this hour Mrs. J. Royal Shaw will review, "Precious Bane," by Mary Webb.

BIRTHDAY

Playmates enjoyed birthday cake last week with Theodore Youngren, son of Mr. and Mrs. Knute Youngren of 1944 Lowell street, when he observed his ninth anniversary on Thursday.

—Bruno.

Plans Made For Dance

Hard Times Party Slated by Elks November The First

From "10 to 2" is the time set for the Halloween party and hard times dance to be enjoyed in the Elks temple on Saturday evening, November the first, the affair officially opening the party season for the lodge members and their ladies.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester E. Smith are chairmen of the affair, and members of their committee include Mr. and Mrs. Glen L. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Teale, and Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Brosterhouse.

Wives of the committee members will be in charge of tables and the turkey dinner, to be served at the close of the dance in the dining room, is under the direction of Chef Paul Roberts and Mr. Glen L. Evans. Mr. Teale is arranging publicity, and Mr. Brosterhouse is in charge of ticket sales. Dance arrangements are being made by Mr. Ward and Mr. Angus Newton has been named to take charge of the decorations which promise to be gay and clever.

Special features are planned for the dancing hours and Baldy Evans' orchestra will play. Much fun is anticipated in the balloon dance as well as the "tag," scheduled along with the rest of the evening's gaiety.

The committee has definitely announced old clothes as the proper wearing apparel—older the better. There will be awards for the most appropriate hard times costumes.

Delta Gamma Chapter to Meet

Members of Delta Gamma chapter of Delphinia will meet at a quarter to ten o'clock Tuesday morning at the home of Mrs. F. L. Weaver. The topic will be, "Religion in America," and the leader, Mrs. A. M. Collier.

Mr. and Mrs. Don R. Drury and children, and Mr. R. Paul Roberts are spending this weekend in Seattle.

COMFORT
Make the Famous
CANTILEVER
Shoes the favorite health shoe for thousands of women

★ Ideal combination last No. 74
★ Full tread and toe room
★ High cut flexible arch
★ Straight inner line

★ White Elk
★ Black Elk
★ Black Crush Kid
★ Brown Elk

"There must be a reason why doctors recommend the Cantilever shoe."

Stewart & Smith
827 Main St.

Arts and Crafts to Be Winter Project

University Women Sponsor Class Which Will Meet for Interesting Study Subjects

A study group which promises to enjoy an interesting program throughout the winter months, has been organized under the banner of AAUW, and on Thursday the first meeting was held at the home of Mrs. John H. Harris Jr., who will serve as leader of the project. Arts and crafts will be the subjects studied and the group plans to meet twice each month.

Holiday Benefit

Bazaar, Cards, Dinner On Altar Society Slate

Plans are being completed for the annual St. Mary's Altar society bazaar, bridge party, and dinner, which will be given the night of Saturday, November the fifteenth, in the armory. Mrs. Francis Manning, president of the Altar society, announced the following duties taken over by the four groups within the parish:

Group One, of which Mrs. William McKale is head, will have charge of the needle work booths. Group Two, Mrs. Dick Miller in charge, will make arrangements for the cooked food. Mrs. Lloyd Low, head of Group Three, will direct the apron sales, and Group Four, with Mrs. Roy Pickett as chairman, will have charge of the doll booth.

Catholic Daughters of America will have arrangements made for the successful bridge party which is always the afternoon event. Mrs. Samuel P. Miller heads this organization.

Mrs. Raymond Weinberg is chairman of the dinner and she is assisted by Mrs. C. A. Williams and Mrs. A. J. McDonald.

Proceeds from the big affair go to the parish. The public is cordially invited to attend all activities planned for both the afternoon and evening.

Problems of individual member will be discussed and a wide variety of subjects will probably be covered. The next meeting will have to do with braided rugs.

Those who have signed up for the course included Mrs. Harris, leader; Mrs. Harold Teale, Mrs. Percy Murray, Mrs. Frank Jenkins, Mrs. Godfrey C. Blohm, Mrs. George H. Merryman Jr., Mrs. Charles V. Rugh, Mrs. Don R. Drury, Mrs. Robert Hart, Mrs. Kenneth A. Moore, Mrs. Louis Mann, Mrs. E. D. Lamb, Mrs. Howard Listoe, Mrs. Beverly Thomas, Mrs. Robert Shaw of Tionesta, Mrs. Frank Drew, Mrs. John Shaw, and Mrs. Embert Fossum.

DISCUSSION GROUP TO BE ORGANIZED

A discussion group will be organized Monday evening, October the twenty-seventh, in room 17 at the Fremont school at eight o'clock to discuss and study America's policy in regard to foreign affairs.

The group is sponsored by the League of Women Voters, which extends a cordial invitation to all women of the county interested in this subject and especially to business women and teachers who are unable to attend the league's afternoon meetings. Subjects for discussion at this meeting will be "What Every Voter Should Know About Foreign Policy" and "Should the Neutrality Act Be Modified or Repealed?" Mrs. Fred Rueck will lead the group.

Klamath Falls' Newest and Smartest Ladies' Ready-to-Wear Shop! Locally Owned and Operated!

Whytal's

DISTINCTIVE APPAREL
Phone 8222 901 Main

A ONCE - A - YEAR Presentation

— for a few days only — of these large special sizes of Internationally Famous

Alexandra de Markoff

Facial Preparations

Many women indeed have reached the Road to Loveliness through Alexandra de Markoff "Facial Preparations Beyond Compare."

Alexandra de Markoff facial preparations are made from treasured formulas which have proven their merits through the centuries!

Large Special Sizes

Represent Savings of $1 each from 20% to over 100%!

(Plus Tax)