

Holiday Party Plans Made By St. Paul's

Children and Grownups Included in Program Outlined for All Parish Festivities

Very gay plans, indeed, are being made by the women of St. Paul's Episcopal church for the annual Christmas bazaar to be held Saturday, December the sixth, in the parish house. The program is made to include all members of the parish families from the small fry to the fathers.

Interesting arrangements are being made for the children's hour from ten o'clock to twelve o'clock noon, at which time youngsters will attend the party. A Christmas movie, puppet show, fish pond, clowns and a hurdy-gurdy, will add to the holiday cheer. Mrs. Roy Lee is in charge of the morning party, assisted by Mrs. W. R. Hibbs, Mrs. P. D. Schroeder, Mrs. Dale C. Smith, Mrs. John Coppage and Mrs. John Shaw. Mrs. John B. Cashin will be in charge of the fish pond. Mr. Wyatt Padgett will show the movie.

Mrs. Edward P. Livingston has written a brand new puppet show around the hero, "Henry," and his puppet family. Mrs. Livingston will be assisted by Mrs. Hans Norland and members of the Girls Friendly society.

Bazaar booths will be filled with attractive holiday gifts, aprons, tea towels and in the good food line, English plum puddings, fruit cakes and other delicacies. In charge of the sewing booth will be Mrs. W. B. Hendrickson, assisted by Mrs. LeRoy Tyrrell, Mrs. John Robinson, Mrs. L. E. Mead, Mrs. A. C. Rawlings and Mrs. Ralph S. Hopkins.

Mrs. D. V. Kuykendall will be in charge of the food booth, assisted by Mrs. O. F. Kon-schot, Mrs. John Morgan, Mrs. Melvin Henry and Mrs. L. B. Hopkins.

At one o'clock, after serving, cards will be in play. There is a limit to twenty tables, it was announced by Mrs. Charles F. Scharfenstein, president of the Guild. Mrs. William J. Dinsmore is directing the serving, assisted by Mrs. R. Henry Anderson, Mrs. Frank Tarr, Mrs. Howard Perrin and Mrs. D. E. Van Vactor.

The bridge committee is headed by Mrs. Horace E. Getz, Mrs. Percy Webb, Mrs. Ralph M. Stearns, Mrs. DeLos Mills, Mrs. Mary K. Lucas and Miss Hazel Morrison.

Mrs. Marshall Farmer is arranging for the prizes. Early reservations are requested, due to the limited number of tables in play.

That the men of the parish be not neglected in the program of the day, a hot supper will be served at seven o'clock in the parish house followed by a stag card party. This will be the climax to the all parish affair. Mrs. P. D. Schroeder heads this committee, assisted by Mrs. Warren Bennet, Mrs. Paul Jones, Mrs. Vernon Kuykendall, Mrs. Raymond Reeves, Mrs. Charles Woodhouse and Mrs. W. R. Hibbs. Mrs. Scharfenstein announced that other committees made up of women in the parish will be named later.

Mrs. Edmund S. Durnent is visiting during the late fall weeks at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ralph Macartney Sr., 79 Washington street. Mrs. Durnent's home is in Berkeley.

Mrs. Dick Reeder and two sons, David and Stephen, have returned from a visit with Mrs. Reeder's family in Colton, Oregon.

New Members Initiated

Eight Join Venturists At Meeting on October 28th

Initiation of eight new Venturists made the meeting of October the twenty-eighth, a special one in the life of the Venture club of Klamath Falls. The new members are Barbara Sellars, Betty Lou Drake, Maxine Johnson, Yvonne Peterstener, Frances Finch, Loretta O'Brien, Beverly Siemens and Patricia Sexton.

Dinner was served in the blue room of the Willard hotel. The tables were decorated with tall white tapers in red holders and candlelight provided a festive atmosphere. Each new member was presented with a gardenia corsage.

President Margaret West, Dorothy O'Sullivan and Dorothy Teed, Venturists who attended the fifth regional conference of the Northwestern Region of American Council of Venture clubs at Spokane, October eighteenth and nineteenth, gave a report on the meeting. Dorothy Teed told of the trip to Spokane Friday, October seventeenth and the arrival that evening at the Davenport hotel, headquarters of the convention. Saturday evening a banquet for Sororists and Venturists was held in the Queen Isabella room. Decorations were carried out in the theme of the convention, "This is the Harvest."

Dorothy O'Sullivan gave a report on the breakfast meeting, Sunday morning, October nineteenth, held in the Elizabethan room of the hotel. She reported there were nineteen delegates present, representing the eight Venture clubs in the northwest region. They participated in an interesting program consisting of informal talks, reports on activities of the various clubs during the year and a round table discussion.

Margaret West then told of some of the most interesting service projects of the various clubs, such as scholarships to business schools for girls, little sisters, needy children for whom the Venturists help to make life more entertaining and cheerful. She went on to tell of some points of interest in the round table discussion, such as study projects of interesting women, field trips and first aid. President Margaret West finished her report by reading the yearly report of the activities of the Klamath Falls Venture club, which she presented at the convention.

Geneva Lyman and Betty Lou Drake gave a report on the meeting of women's organizations held October seventeenth for the purpose of furthering the sale of defense saving stamps and bonds.

LYNDEN KING ENTERTAINS ON FRIDAY

Among the gay Hallowe'en parties which took place Friday evening of this week was one given by Lynden King at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Marks, on Auburn street.

The guests arrived in costume and enjoyed the gaiety of the evening. They were Janet Ledingham, Ruth Landry, Norma Smith, Katherine Newman, Dorothy Collier, Jean Hilton, and the hostess, Miss King.

DINNER GIVEN HONORING GUESTS OF DEHLINGERS

MT. LAKE—Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Dehlinger entertained at dinner Tuesday evening honoring Mr. Dehlinger's brother and family, First Lieutenant and Mrs. Karl Dehlinger, Sandra and Sharon, who left Wednesday for Camp Roberts, California. They have spent the past ten days visiting relatives and friends here and at Eugene.

Art Needle Work Club

Mrs. Marion Hanks will be hostess to members of the Art Needle Work club, Wednesday afternoon, at two-thirty o'clock, November the fifth, at her home on Pine street.

GHOSTS AND GOBLINS ENJOY THE PARTY

Little Joan Moore entertained a group of little friends at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth A. Moore of LeRoy street, on Thursday evening. Supper was served and games were enjoyed later by the guests who arrived in costume in keeping with the Hallowe'en theme. Front row, left to right, Marcella Murray, Madelon Adler, Diane Oldenburg, Tommy Moore, Joan Moore, Marlene Hadley; second row, Dixie Lynn Hayes, Rosemary Murray, Tolsie Liskey, Ingrid Norland, Jean Henderson; third row, Barbara Turner, Joyce Garner, Helen Downs, Sarita Kay Johnson, Barbara Swanson, Jean Rae Oldenburg. —Picture by Wesley Guderian of The Herald and News.

GHOSTS TAKE OVER AT SOUTHER'S

Ghosts and goblins highlighted Jimmy Southern's Hallowe'en party on Friday evening when his mother, Mrs. James Southern, entertained for a group of playmates at the family home on North Second street.

The living room was transformed into a place inhabited by ghosts, goblins and witches, the floor lamp turning itself into a most realistic ghost, indeed.

Guests were Fay Nelson, Dolores Morris, James and David Bairin, John and Emilie Elliot, Gloria and Carol Croup, Robert Bailey, Marion Mugford, Robert Van Vactor and the host, Jimmy Southern.

DRAMA STUDY GROUP PLANS MONDAY MEETING

The drama study group of the AAUW will meet at the home of Mrs. J. C. O'Neill, 1130 Monclair street, Monday, November 3, at seven-thirty o'clock.

A short one act comedy will be presented by Barbara Shultz, Bruce Davis, Lyle Cook and Jane Worthington of the high school drama department. The remainder of the time will be spent in technical study and discussions of recent Broadway successes.

HEADS TEA COMMITTEE

Mrs. Edward Robinson is chairman of the annual benefit bridge tea given by the Lion's auxiliary. This year the affair will be an event of Saturday, November the eighth, in the Willard hotel. —Kennell-Ellis.

Dinner Plans Made By Oregon Mothers

Mr. Rollo C. Groesbeck To Be Speaker at Affair Scheduled for Monday Night

An outstanding event of this coming week is the no-host dinner planned by the Oregon Mothers club in the Pelican party room Monday evening at half past six o'clock, November the third.

Mrs. James Burness and Mrs. R. P. Ellingson are in charge of arrangements and any interested person may attend. Reservations should be made with either Mrs. Burness or Mrs. Ellingson by Monday at noon.

Mr. Rollo C. Groesbeck, member of the board of higher education, will speak on the curricular adjustment between the two major schools in the state. Mr. Groesbeck is a member of the curriculum committee which met in Ashland on Tuesday. He is prepared to advise all interested persons on the degree granting privileges which have been adjusted between the University of Oregon and Oregon State college.

Parents or others interested in either of the two schools are cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Dick Reeder will entertain Thursday evening for members of her bridge club.

President Of PTA Visits

Defense Is Topic at School of Instruction Here

Mrs. F. W. Blum, president of the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers, used the topic "National Defense in the Home and School" at the school of instructions she conducted at Klamath Union high school on October the seventeenth.

The program for defense as outlined by the parent-teacher role, according to Mrs. Blum, will be largely confined to an effort to retain in the face of the emergency the essential services for children in health, in recreation and in education, and to strengthen home defenses by increasing stress on the importance of stable homes, on happy home environment and on nutrition, and in building strong citizens for an uncertain tomorrow.

A highlight of the afternoon session was the talk by Governor Charles A. Sprague which the association was privileged to hear when he spoke to the student body of Klamath Union high school.

The next meeting of the Klamath County Council of PTA will be held at Fremont school on Monday, November the third, at two o'clock.

DR. MORRIS TO SPEAK AT LIBRARY CLUB

An interesting program of the late fall is that to be presented by Dr. Victor P. Morris, dean of the school of business administration at the University of Oregon, who will speak before the Klamath Falls Woman's Library club on Monday, November the tenth, at two o'clock, in the large auditorium of the public library.

Dr. Morris' topic will be, "America's Place in World Affairs."

Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt, music chairman, has announced she will present Mrs. Louis Reed in a group of vocal selections. Mrs. Reed is not a newcomer to Klamath Falls as she formerly resided here and will be remembered by many as Dorothy Elliott.

Flowers will be arranged by Mrs. William L. Scott, Mrs. Andrew Collier, hospitality chairman, will announce her committee later.

ANNUAL PARISH DINNER TO BE HELD MONDAY

All parishioners of St. Paul's Episcopal church are invited to attend the annual dinner to be held Monday evening, November the third, at half past six o'clock in parish house on Jefferson street.

Bishop William P. Remington of the Diocese of Eastern Oregon will be a guest for the occasion and will be the speaker of the evening.

Preparing the dinner will be Mrs. Charles F. Scharfenstein, Mrs. W. B. Hendrickson, Mrs. Otto Kenschot, Mrs. John Morgan, Mrs. John Cashin, Mrs. Esther Atkinson and Miss Hazel Morrison.

Those in charge of the dining room will be Mrs. Warren Bennet, Mrs. John Coppage, Mrs. Percy Webb, Mrs. Ralph Stearns, Mrs. J. K. Fales, Mrs. Vernon Kuykendall, Mrs. Frieda Ellis, Mrs. John Schubert and Miss Jean Whitney.

PUPPETS PERFORM ON HALLOWE'EN

Guests at Ned Livingston's Hallowe'en party given at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Livingston on Erie street, this past Friday evening, enjoyed a puppet show with the four characters, the goblin, the ghost, the witch and the clown, presenting a very eerie show indeed.

Those invited to the party were Charles Norland, Carl Riechmond, Robert and Roger Kuykendall, Teddy Snyder, Robert Hilton, Kenneth Wallin, Phil Schroeder and Leonard Garrett.

Friends of Tommy Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth A. Moore, regret he was unable to take part in the Hallowe'en fun on Friday night when the snuffles confined him to his bed.

GLORIA SMILES

Lions' Auxiliary To Entertain Saturday

Annual Benefit Bridge Tea for Sight Conservation Fund of Interest to Women of City

What promises to be one of the most interesting of the fall benefit parties is the bridge tea scheduled for Saturday afternoon, November the eighth, in the Willard hotel when the Lions' auxiliary entertains at the annual affair given for the sight conservation fund.

OES Helps Red Cross

Eastern Star Members Interested in Sewing Project

At the regular meeting of Aloha chapter No. 61, Order of the Eastern Star, held Tuesday evening, Mrs. Robert E. Wattenburg, chapter chairman of American Red Cross activities, read a letter from the worthy grand matron of Oregon, commending the chapter for its cooperation in this vital branch of the defense program.

Mrs. Wattenburg requested each chapter officer to be responsible for a sewing unit of five persons. Garments cut and ready for sewing were distributed to members at the close of the chapter. More than forty members have already taken garments to their homes to be made up for Red Cross uses. Mrs. Wattenburg hopes for a one hundred per cent report on chapter activities for the state chairman.

Among out-of-state members present at the Tuesday meeting were: Mr. and Mrs. Ross B. Shepherd, past patron and past matron, respectively, of Yocolt, Washington; Mrs. E. H. Priest, past matron of Wayne, Nebraska; Mrs. M. Shufeldt, past matron from Kimmund, Illinois; Mr. and Mrs. John P. Darst, from Multnomah chapter, Portland. The Shepherds are in the forest service and are located at Bly; the Darsts are living in Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Oliver W. Spiker, worthy matron, announced the annual memorial service for those who have died during the past year will be held at the next meeting. This will be on the evening of Armistice day, November the eleventh.

Light refreshments were served by the committee in charge, Mrs. Phyllis Poole, chairman, Mrs. Fred Cofer, and Mrs. Elmer H. Balsiger.

Mrs. J. H. Poppy, chairman, and members of her hostess committee, Mrs. C. H. Underwood, Mrs. B. A. Purcell and Mrs. M. C. Cassel are making plans for the November meeting of the Klamath Falls Nile club to be held Tuesday, the fourth, at the Elk hotel, opening with luncheon at one o'clock.

Chairman of the benefit is Mrs. Edward Robinson. All members of the auxiliary are working on the plans. Mrs. Fred Heilbroner will be at the door, and Mrs. Ted Shoop, is in charge of reservations. She may be reached by calling 3481.

Mrs. Paul Skeen, president of the Lions' auxiliary, and Mrs. A. T. Penzel, chairman of the sight conservation committee, will pour at the tea table where the autumn theme will be used.

Mrs. F. Cecil Adams and Mrs. George P. Davis will have charge of decorations, and Mrs. Myrtle Adams and Mrs. Clifford Voigt will arrange the seating. Mrs. A. P. Heup is chairman of the tea table decorations committee.

Cards will start promptly at half past one o'clock, with tea served at four o'clock. A number have found it inconvenient to play bridge during the day, and a cordial invitation is issued to those persons to drop in for tea at four.

To persons unfamiliar with the program carried out by the auxiliary, here is a brief review of the work. The women maintain a fund which they use for an exceptionally worthwhile purpose, that of caring for the eyes of those who need glasses, treatment and followup work. There is a great demand for the Lions' auxiliary purse, which cannot cover all the requests made of the group. For this purpose the women take the proceeds from their one big party of the year and turn over every copper penny for the work. All women of the city are invited to attend the party which is planned for next Saturday.

MRS. MANN TO ENTERTAIN DAR MEMBERS

Mrs. B. E. Hayden will present the program at the regular meeting of Eulonia chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, to be held Monday evening, November the third, at eight o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Louis Mann, 1437 Pacific Terrace. Mrs. Hayden's subject will be "Conservation," particularly as it applies to the natural resources of the Klamath basin.

Members are asked to note the change in meeting place from the home of Mrs. Charles J. Martin, as previously announced, to the Louis Mann home. Assisting hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Wilbur A. Jones, Mrs. G. Logan Black, and Miss Virginia West.
