NEW YORK, Nov. 21 (The Special News Service)—Chuck Hyatt, who always was this corner's idea of tops among basketball players, says Hank Luisetti is the greatest that ever lived. "You hate to admit a fellow is that much better than you are, but he is," says Chuck, who explains that Luisetti is just "one of those naturals that come along" like Babe Ruth, Bobby Jones or Jack Dempsey. Hyatt—plumb scared that his basketballers and the folks back home in Bartlesville, Okla., will find out that he has been spending his spare time in New York taking rumba lessons—and not to learn any fancy steps to use on the court.

FOOTBALL FRICASSEE

Must be a relief to fans who are disturbed by polysyllabic surnames to find Smith and a couple of Joneses among the stars the past couple of weekends. Bob McLaughry still manages to help his coaching dad although he can't play full-back with a cracked neck. He spends his Saturday afternoons in the press box charting the Dartmouth plays that click and those that don't. New Orleans fans still are wondering about the proper punishment for Wilbur C. Smith, Tulane's athletic director. He passed up the Sugar bowl game last January to visit the Rose bowl. Only excuse was that he's a close friend of Clark Shaughnessy.

THEY WEREN'T FISHING

Bill Dean of Lanagan, Mo., relays this hunting yarn: Glenn D. Elliff of Anderson, Mo., went bird hunting on Armistice day and stepped right into the middle of a covey. One bird rose so close that Glenn swung his gun like Joe DiMaggio's bat and dropped it, then wheeled and fired to get another. . . and to prove it wasn't one of those hunter's dreams, Bill reports a witness was R. C. Eddings, a minister.

TODAY'S GUEST STAR

Walter Stewart, Memphis Commercial Appeal: "The Professional Golfers association issued a thrilling bulletin the other day—admitted that Walter Hagen has walked 100,000 miles in 30 years of tournament golf. Shucks, we've played a lot less than 30 years and hoofed a lot further. You see, the Haig walked straight down the fairway—not zigzag."

Keglers Defend Laurels

Last Year's Tenpin Tittlers Seek Retention

Don Poulin, last year's all events champion, will be on hand when the Annual State bowling congress opens on Saturday night in the Recreation alleys in Klamath Falls. Don rolled 635, 674, and 590 for a total of 1899 pins in the last meeting of the state keggers.

One-Time-Winner Eldon Mann of Eugene, who took first place in the Commercial singles at Marshfield last year, will also be back. During the last session he rolled 204, 236, and 226 for a total of 666. That averages up to 222 per game for one night's rolling.

Doubles champs of 1940 were Deb Day and Ed Stillwell. Day rolled 699 and Stillwell hit 556 totaling 1255 pins. Both will be back this year.

The Eugene Sand and Gravel team of Eugene took the five-man team event when the Eugenians finished with a 965, 934, and 934 totalling 2833. This year the Gravel team will again be represented.

Hollywood Bears Drub Bulldogs In Pro Contest

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 21 (AP)—The powerful Hollywood Bears copped an easy 17 to 2 victory yesterday over the Los Angeles Bulldogs in a Pacific Coast league professional football game. Attendance was about 15,000.

The triumph resulted largely from two Bulldog fumbles, one in the first period and the other in the third, with Halfback Keny Washington figuring prominently in each instance.

In the second period, Halfback Cleveland, on a reverse, bobbled the ball right into Stonebraker's hands on the Bulldog 33. On first down, Washington cut through left tackle and went over the goal standing up.

Rose Bowl Dreams Walk In Beaver, Husky Heads

Candidates' Coaches Hope Pasadena Chances Won't Affect Saturday Play

By JIM SULLIVAN
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21 (UP)—Rose bowl dreams will be running through the heads of Oregon State and University of Washington teams Saturday as they meet Montana and Oregon, a pair of toughies, in Pacific Coast conference football games.

And it was the earnest Thanksgiving prayer of Coaches Lon Stiner and Jimmy Phelan that their boys won't dream too much of Pasadena and use some attention and effort on disposing of the matters immediately at hand. Stiner and Phelan know too well what happened to Oregon the day it was looking over its shoulder at the Rose bowl while playing UCLA in Los Angeles.

Washington, led by Phelan, appears to have the tougher assignment against Oregon in Seattle. Both teams rested last week for this game, and the delay gave some of the injured Webfoot men a chance to improve their physical conditions. Oregon started fast and then bogged down in midseason. The word from Eugene is they are on their way back.

Can't Lose
Oregon State can't afford to lose to Montana or even to be tied, even though the game is considered "kings x" or "no count" in the conference race. A defeat at this time would irrevocably harm the prestige of the Orangemen of Corvallis as the team most likely to go to Pasadena now that Stanford has stumbled.

These two games top what is a rather light football program in the west. Santa Clara winds up its worst season in six years in playing UCLA at Los Angeles. Santa Clara lost three this year and may lose again Saturday if UCLA's "Q.T." formation clicks, USC, also experiencing a very bad season, can redeem all by taking Notre Dame, unbeaten so far, in their annual at South Bend. St. Mary's can do the same in its annual with Fordham in New York. Idaho ends its first season under Francis Schmidt highly favored to overwhelm Montana State at Boise. California and Stanford are resting for their titanic November 29. Washington State meets neighboring Gonzaga at Spokane.

Overlin, Hostak Battle

Veteran Favorite Over Glass-Handed Seattleite

NEW YORK, Nov. 21 (AP)—Ken Overlin of Washington, D. C., and Al Hostak of Seattle, a pair of former middleweight champs, square off tonight at Madison Square Garden to go 10 rounds or less in a light-heavyweight scrap.

Since the two fighters no longer are able to get down to the middle-weight poundage, both are eyeing the light-heavyweight crown worn by Gus Lesnevich.

Hostak, formerly regarded as king of the 160-pounders by the NBA, will be making his first eastern appearance. His record lists 114 fights, most of which he won by knockouts.

Overlin, a veteran of 12 years in the ring, has had six fights since he lost the middleweight throne to Billy Soose in May and is rated the favorite at odds of about 1 to 2.

The betting boys are basing their judgment on the fact that Overlin has been particularly hard on punchers in the past and because the fight is slated for the 10-round route. They figure his ancient legs will stay with him at least that long.

Another 10-rounder on the card brings together Young Kid McCoy of Detroit and Ike Kaplan of Boston.

Sportsmen To Discuss Farm Issue

Farmer-hunter relationship will be the principal topic of discussion tonight as the Klamath Sportsmen's association gathers for what may go down as one of the hottest meetings the group has ever held. The convalescence will begin at 8 p. m. in the Willard hotel.

Principal speakers will be State Senator Lew Wallace of Multnomah county, democratic candidate for governor, and Art Einarson, regional northwest biologist.

An explanation of antelope scoring and State Game commission awards, a new program inaugurated this year in Lake County, will be given by Francis Olds, Klamath member of the commission.

Linfield, Army Team Play to Tie

ASTORIA, Nov. 21 (AP)—With neither team displaying power, Linfield college and the 249th coast artillery football team played a scoreless Turkey day game here.

The contest was largely a punting duel, with neither side getting a decisive advantage.

Barker Picks the Favorites; He Sees Huskies, OSC, Gophers

By HERB BARKER
NEW YORK, Nov. 21 (AP)—Waiting for the roof to fall in as usual, this corner does its guessing on this week's double-barreled football program:

Minnesota-Wisconsin: Wisconsin can score but the Badger defense has been sieve-like. Can't see the Gophers blowing this one, Minnesota.

Notre Dame-Southern California: Nothing in the records to hearten the Trojans. Taking Notre Dame.

Michigan-Ohio State: No better than second place in the big ten apparently at stake. This may be the best game of the day, Michigan.

Seeks Title

Don Poulin, Salem, 1940 all-events winner in the annual State Bowling tournament at Marshfield, will seek to retain his title in the 1941 tourney opening Saturday night on Klamath Recreation alleys.

Arizona Best Offensive Eleven

SEATTLE, Nov. 21 (UP)—The Arizona Wildcats, with an average gain per game of 373.5 yards in eight contests, moved into first place among the nation's collegiate eleven offensive figures released Thursday by the American football statistical bureau.

Arizona gained 2,988 yards, and was well ahead of last year's best offensive mark of 368.2 yards per game, compiled by Lafayette.

Defensively, Duquesne held first place, yielding 111.9 yards to each opponent. Other leaders: Rushing offense—Missouri, 290.3 yards per game. Rushing defense—Texas Tech, 52.4 yards per opponent. Passing offensive—Arizona, 184.3 yards per game. Pass defense—Boston university, 24.7 yards for opponent. Punting—Clemson, 42.07 yards per kick.

Tenpin Topics

By John Foster (Bowling Editor)

Well, Saturday, the starting day of the annual state bowling congress, is practically upon us and the familiar thunder of falling pins will be heard in both of the Klamath alleys.

Saturday won't be a big day of rolling but starting Sunday the alleys will be full of out-of-town keggers. Beginning Sunday morning at 10 a. m., six teams will start. They are: Parkin's Building of Roseburg, Cecil's Eats of Roseburg, Lund's Radio Repair of Roseburg, and the Office Supply, Domestic Laundry and Murray's Maid Rite of Medford. From then on, throughout the day, doubles and singles from Medford and Roseburg will try their luck.

There will be no rolling of the City, Booster, Commercial and Classic leagues of the Klamath circuit during the first week of the state doings.

Before the state tournament has even started, Al Backes of the Recreation alleys, is trying to get the SP bowling tournament to be held here in Klamath Falls. Part of the scheme is favorable but other parts a bit hazy. It seems that the Los Angeles bowlers want to travel north but not as far as Klamath Falls. They would rather roll in San Francisco.

The San Francisco keggers want to move north for the tournament and Klamath would be the ideal place. As for the Portland bowlers, they want to move south and here is Klamath Falls staring them in the face. That makes two to one and anything could happen. If the Southern Pacific tourney is held here it will take place in February.

Most of last year's champions in the state doings will be in Klamath Falls trying to regain their titles. There are a few titles, however, that are now open. Yes, sir, it will be a big time in Klamath between November 22 and December 7.

By virtue of a small mistake, your reporter was reminded that this year's entry surpasses last year's at Marshfield. In the paper, in big letters, it said, 61 teams enter men's kegler meet. Well . . . the truth of the matter is, there are 63 teams entered.

OPEN SUBSIDIZATION

NEW YORK—Student editors of New York university papers ask for subsidization of football players.

Yale game behind them, doubt if the Tigers can work up the necessary enthusiasm. Navy.

Kansas-Missouri: Kansas has pulled two big surprises already this season but it would be a near-miracle if the Jayhawks took this, Missouri.

Vanderbilt-Alabama: Don't think the Commodores can stem the tide, Alabama.

Georgia-Dartmouth: Looks like simply a long ride for the invading Dartmouths, Georgia.

North Carolina State-Duke: Duke to finish unbeaten, untied and invited.

Oregon State-Montana: One step closer to Pasadena for Oregon State.

Trojans Stagger Into N. D.

U.S.C. Given Only Slight Chance to Trouble Unbeaten Irish
By STEVE SNIDER
CHICAGO, Nov. 21 (UP)—Southern California, a jinx team for Notre Dame, staggers into the midwest Saturday with only faint hopes of destroying Irish chances for the first undefeated football season since the golden era of Knute Rockne.

Beaten four times in six games, its chief weakness is made to order for Notre Dame's most potent weapon—the forward pass.

Nothing could be sweeter from the Irish point of view. With Angelo Bertelli throwing against a weakness on pass defense, Notre Dame is a prohibitive favorite at 13½ points to make youthful Frank Leahy the first coach since Rockne to bring an Irish team all through a season without a defeat.

Attitude Worries
Leahy's worry, however, is the mental attitude of his players and of the invading Trojans. Twice in 11 years, Southern California's inspired teams have whipped previously undefeated Notre Dame in the final game of the season. Mentally, the Trojans are primed for this one and Notre Dame, just through a bruising 7 to 6 victory over Northwestern, is considerably let down.

Since defeating Oregon State, 13 to 7, in the season's opener, Southern California has been hit hard by injuries and illness and by mid-season the only resemblance between this team and the powerhouse coached by the late Howard Jones was the color of its uniforms.

The disintegration began early in the 33 to 0 rout by Ohio State and Coach Sam Barry only now is being put together the pieces, added by a schedule which has sent Southern California into action but once in the last three weeks.

All-America Junior Track Team Selected

Only One Man Named From Outside California; Davis, Batiste Lead

SANTA MARIA, Cal., Nov. 21 (UP)—Harold Davis, Salinas junior college sprint star, and Joe Batiste, Sacramento J. C. hurdler, today headed the 1941 all-America junior college track and field team named by the National Junior College association.

Davis, who has run the 100 yards in 9.4 seconds and the 220 in 20.5 seconds, made the team for both events for the second straight year.

Batiste, who comes from Tucson, Ariz., was named for the high hurdles, low hurdles and high jump.

James Doyle, miler from Trinidad, Colo., was the only athlete named from outside California.

Hilmer Lodge, secretary of the association, said the performances of 650 individual competitors were considered in junior colleges of 34 states in making the selections. All those chosen competed in the national meet at Denver this year. Lodge said the 1942 meet would be held either at San Bernardino or Visalia, Cal.

The 1941 all-America team: 100, Davis; 220, Davis; 440, John Wachler, Pasadena; 880, Jim Ring, Salinas; mile, James Doyle, Trinidad; two-mile, Bill Pothoff, Compton; high hurdles, Batiste; low hurdles, Batiste; high jump, Batiste; pole vault, Vernon Cooley, Sacramento; broad jump, Robert Beckus, Compton; shotput, Don Welch, Sacramento; discus, Robert Bryant, Santa Ana; javelin, Elwood Clark, Placer; hop, step and jump, Robert Beckus, Compton; mile relay, Pasadena team of Hylton, Walton, Prater and Wachler.

Willamette Scores 28-0 Victory Over Whitman in Turkey Day Tilt

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Nov. 21 (UP)—Willamette university retained its northwest football conference crown Thursday with a 28-0 win over Whitman college before a Thanksgiving crowd estimated at 4000.

Willamette, which with today's win has been undefeated in nine consecutive conference games, set up each of its scores on long passes with Reynolds connecting on long tosses to Reeder, Morley and Ogden.

Whitman, completely outclassed throughout the game, made its one scoring threat late in the third quarter, but lost the ball on downs.

Coach Nig Borkeke blamed lack of a pass defense for Whitman's defeat. The loss placed Whitman in second place in conference standings.

Heart Attack Kills Coach During Game

BOONVILLE, Mo., Nov. 21 (UP)—Coach Ralph Conger of Wentworth Military academy suffered a heart attack during the second period of a football game Thursday between Wentworth and Kemper Military academy, and died a few minutes later.

The attack struck Conger while he sat on the bench with his players. He had not been in ill health.

His team did not know of his death until after the game which Kemper won 14 to 0 with two last period touchdowns.
