

SOCIETY

By LOIS STEWART

GATHERED TOGETHER on Thanksgiving day were members of the Hilton family at their home on Hillside avenue. Dr. and Mrs. James H. Hilton with their three children, Jean (left), Dick and Bob.

THANKSGIVING DINNER at the Don R. Drury home on Pacific Terrace was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Drury and their two charming children, Karen and Donnie. They are pictured in the living room of their new home on Pacific Terrace.

MEMBERS OF THE RADCLIFFE family gathered together on Thanksgiving day for dinner and a visit with houseguests brought to Klamath Falls for the holidays by the younger Radcliffes home from school. At the left is Mrs. W. C. Ball, Mrs. R. Heber Radcliffe's mother, Tommy, home from Oregon State college, Mr. and Mrs. Radcliffe, and on the floor, Billy, Mary Awdry, also home from Corvallis, and Helen.

IT WAS A FAMILY AFFAIR at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Waldo Stearns, here with their two young children, Frances and Ralph Jr., or "Perky" to the family. This is the first Thanksgiving in their home which they occupied late this summer on Pacific Terrace.