SELLING CUTS STOCK MARKET RECOVERY BIDS

NEW YORK, Nov. 28 (AP)—Further tax selling, combined with rising Far Eastern tension, thickened the ice in today's stock market.

Early sporadic attempts at recovery met with only feeble response and, while scattered issues clung to modest advances, many leaders went into new low ground for the year with losses of fractions to 2 or more points at the close.

Not only were low-priced issues turned over in large blocks, but liquidation of a number of "blue chips," apparently for the purpose of establishing concessions in the 1941 federal income statements, served as a bullish brake from the start.

Dealings picked up momentum at intervals and volume for the full proceedings was in the neighborhood of 900,000 shares. Among stocks at bottom levels for 1941 were American Telephone, General Motors, Chrysler, Public Service of N. J., Union Pacific, American Can and both American Tobacco "B" and common.

In the off-drift most of the day were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Youngstown Sheet, Montgomery Ward, J. I. Case, International Harvester, United Aircraft, Sperry, Western Union, Santa Fe, Kennecott, Eastman Kodak, Johns-Manville, Du Pont and Owens-Illinois.

Contesting the trend were Westinghouse, Anaconda, Sears Roebuck, Glenn Martin, Allied Chemical and U. S. Gypsum.

Bonds were without real comeback steam. Japanese dollar loans weakened. Commodities were moderately narrow.

Pilgrim Holiness

The last service of the revival meeting which has been in progress for the last two weeks at 2229 Wantland avenue, will be conducted Sunday evening. The people of the church have been greatly pleased with the preaching of the evangelist, Rev. C. C. McNall, and with its results.

They are expecting these last services to be a splendid climax for the meeting. In addition to the regular services, Sunday school at 9:45 a. m., worship at 11 a. m., evangelistic service at 7:30 p. m., there will be nightly services at 7:45 o'clock and a fellowship meeting Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Special vocal and orchestral music will be an inspirational feature of these services. We hope that you will plan to attend as many as possible.

Klamath Temple

"The Church That Is Different" 1007 Pine street. Daniel B. Anderson, pastor, 2211 Eberlein street, phone 3874. C. E. Logerwell, assistant pastor, room 107 in the temple, phone 6325.

Again we continue to urge you to attend Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. In Europe today there are literally millions of people who would give anything if they could go to Sunday school. Here in America with wonderfully equipped Sunday schools all around us we are too indifferent perhaps. The junior departments meet in the lower auditorium and the seniors in the main auditorium.

Morning worship with Rev. Anderson bringing the message at 11 o'clock. Overcomers, young people, are presenting a missionary drama in the lower auditorium at 6:30 p. m. Last Sunday evening one of the young people gave an illustrated message on a vision that she had received of God, the drawings are still on the blackboard and are one of the most wonderful revelations ever presented in the temple. Come and see them. Then at 7:45 p. m. great evangelistic service in the main auditorium with Rev. Anderson again bringing the message. The attendance in our Sunday evening services is on the increase and there is a great revival spirit moving in the temple.

Prayer and praise service Wednesday, 7:30 p. m., with Rev. Anderson in charge. Broadcast over KFJI Thursday evening 7:30 to 8 p. m. Midweek Bible study Friday 7:30 p. m. with assistant pastor in charge.

You've tried others, now try the Klamath Temple.
