

SUBURBS START PETITIONS FOR FIRE DISTRICT

Petitions are being circulated throughout the suburban area for the creation of a fire district, it was announced Friday night at a meeting of the Suburban League held in Shasta school. President Ned Smith presided. Signers were urged to note the difference between this petition and one now being circulated by St. Francis park home owners who wish to create a fire zone.

It is hoped to maintain a fire house with two paid men on the job, Smith announced. The department will serve the entire suburban area if established, it was said. Reports from petitioners will be heard at the next meeting, December 12.

Plans were outlined for the immediate construction of a building, 30 by 40 feet, on the league's property at Shasta way and Madison street, to be used as a community hall until funds are obtained for the permanent structure. This building will then be used as a kitchen and dining room.

All labor and material for the temporary building will be donated with Everett Metler starting the donations off to a good start by giving all windows, door frames and moldings, to head the list.

Nominations were made during the evening with election of officers to be held December 12. Membership dues in the suburban league are now due, it was stated. All residents of the area, whether they are members or not, are invited to attend all meetings.

Dr. Gordon Talks At Rotary Meet

Dr. Erma Gordon of Portland, chairman of Oregon's United China Relief, was the principal speaker Friday at Rotary club, introduced by the Rev. Victor Phillips.

Dr. Gordon told of conditions in Germany immediately before and five and one-half years after Hitler came into power, drew a realistic picture of the change made in lives of German people through the influence of the totalitarian government. She asked that persons be prepared to give when the appeal came from United China Relief, pointing out that England, China and America, were standing together in the fight for the democracies.

LAVA BEDS CCC GETS HIGH GRADE

Lieutenant Maes, district CCC camp inspector, has awarded Camp Lava Beds a rating of 98 per cent, according to Don C. Fisher, lava beds monument custodian.

This is the highest rating ever given a northern California camp and is believed to be the highest in the northwest, Fisher said.

Other recent visitors at the camp include O. T. Hagen, regional historian; Jesse Muesbaum, archaeologist for the department of interior, and Morris Thede and Jack Dodd of the forestry department of the national park service. The latter two spent several days planning fire protection in the lava beds area where a 23,000-acre fire burned last summer.

Ninety new enrollees from Georgia recently arrived at the camp.

Milk Mixture For Stomach Ulcers

A recent medical discovery now being used by doctors and hospitals everywhere has been proven unusually successful in the treatment of stomach ulcers caused from excess acid. It is a harmless preparation yet so effective that in many cases the pains of stomach ulcers disappear almost immediately after it is used. Also recommended for gas pains, indigestion and heartburn due to hyperacidity. Sufferers may now try this at home by obtaining a bottle of Lurin from their druggist. Lurin contains this new discovery in its purest form. Easy to take. Just mix two teaspoons in a half glass of milk. Costs but little. Try a bottle. It must satisfy or money refunded. Lurin for sale by Waggoner's and drug stores everywhere.

DEER THICK IN LAVA BEDS AREA

Deer are thick in the Modoc Lava Beds National monument. Custodian Don C. Fisher said Friday before leaving for the national park service school at the regional offices in San Francisco.

The lava beds area is one of the major winter yarding spots for the mule deer of eastern Oregon and northern California. A flight of 400 to 500 swan were also reported in the Tule lake area.

Superintendent E. P. Leavitt of Crater Lake national park will be one of the instructors at the San Francisco school, Fisher stated, and Chief Ranger Carlisle Crouch and Douglas Roch, storekeeper, will attend.

Eagles Initiate 14 Candidates in Honor of Official

The Fraternal Order of Eagles met Friday night in the Eagles' hall to initiate a class of 14 candidates and to honor Aaron Reese of Seattle, district deputy organizer who is successor to "Big Ed" Bigelow, forced to retire due to ill health.

Reese complimented the work of the ritualistic team, the state champion drum corps which presented three numbers, and the drill teams. He was introduced by D. D. Gillespie of Marshfield, former state president.

Presiding over the meeting was I. A. Baker, president of the local aerie. Following the business session, refreshments were served. There was an especially good attendance, it was reported.

ART CENTER FUND TO CLOS EMONDY

Monday will be the last day on which patrons of the proposed art center may call for refunding of their subscriptions, it was announced Saturday by C. S. Robertson, treasurer of the association.

Money remaining in the fund after December 1 will be turned over to the picture fund of the county ITA.

Those wishing refunds on their art center subscriptions may get them from Robertson at the First Federal Savings and Loan office.

Relation's Officers Should Get Bikes

FORT LEWIS, Nov. 28, (AP) The war department suggested to army post commanding generals today that perhaps public relations officers could get around their camps better if they were furnished—with all things—bicycles. What they need at Fort Lewis is a tank—the PRO's hold to the theory their lives wouldn't be worth a nickle on a bicycle in the fort's heavy traffic. Maybe the reason there's no fool like an old fool is because the young ones haven't had as much experience.
