By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29 (AP)—(The Special News Service)—If Oregon State wins the western Rose bowl bid, you can look for some burned ears as well as a good game at Pasadena New Year's day. . . . Publicity Director Bud Forrester's hint that the Beavers would like to play Fordham, Missouri or Duke shows what's up. . . . The northern teams of the Coast conference, which have received plenty of blasts from their "big time" rivals in California, would like nothing better than to retort: "Well, we don't have to pick set-ups for the Rose bowl!" . . . Golfer Jug McSpaden had to change his plans when his second son was born a few days ago. "I had planned to have Jay (age two) win the amateur championship in 1961," he said. "It looks now as if he'd have to turn pro and make room for this boy."

TODAY'S GUEST STAR

Doug Vaughan, Windsor (Ont.) Daily Star: "We see where Bobby Riggs has finally turned pro. . . . Personally, we always thought that was a status assumed by any tennis player the moment he entered the amateur racket lists."

PERSON-ALLEY-TIES

It takes a good voice as well as bowling ability to make the Malvey's Service team at Moorhead, Minn. The captain has a tryout each fall and picks the loudest yellers to roll with him. . . . Mrs. Babe Didrikson Zaharias, who was a star in track and field, basketball and golf, has taken up bowling and rolled a 716 series in practice recently. . . . A father and his four sons are leading a bowling league in Shenandoah, Ia. Alvin (Pop) Tyler rolled a 581 series to lead his team into the top spot.

SERVICE DEPT.

Don Lambue, son of the Green Bay Packers coach, has joined up with the signal corps at Fort Lewis (Wash.) He played for the Fordham frosh last year. . . . Two teams of R. A. F. boys, the Whirlwinds and Hurricanes, are entered in the Dallas county (Tex.) soccer league. . . . Dominick Benarducci and Frank Dombrowski, teammates for four years at an Erie (Pa.) high school, were on opposing sides when the 37th division gridders of Camp Shelby, Miss., played the 32nd division of Camp Livingston, La., the other day.

CLEANING THE CUFF

Hans Lobert's comment after he signed to manage the Phils was: "Life begins at 60, I guess" . . . His predecessors could add: "And what a life" . . . Whizzer White is reported to have applied for a job with the department of justice. Would that make him a G-whizzer?

Lee Savold Wins In "White Hope" Ring Tournament

DETROIT, Nov. 29 (AP)—Blond Lee Savold was $9000 richer today as winner of Promoter Frank Barbaro's "white hope" heavyweight boxing tournament, but he can thank a jolting left and a decision of Referee Sam Hennessy for a 10-round victory over Jack Marshall.

Savold, whose main claim to flistic fame is that he once beat Buddy Baer, let Marshall have a hard right when the latter was on his knees in the final round. Instead of disqualifying Savold, as he could have done, Hennessy penalized the Des Moines brawler with the loss of the round.

A split decision gave the bout to Savold. Hennessy and one of the judges voted for him, but Judge Frank Neville scored the fight even and leaned toward Marshall, ex-soldier from Dallas, Tex., who drew $2000 as his share.

Reames Members To Name Officers

Reames Golf and Country club members will hold their annual dinner meeting and election of officers Tuesday night, December 2, in the clubhouse, it was announced Saturday.

Dinner catered by Carl Lindgren, club pro, will be followed by balloting on officers and trustees for the 1942 year.

A stag party will follow the election.

CAGER DIES

EUREKA, Calif., Nov. 29 (AP)—Collapsing during a Recreation league basketball game at Fernside, William D. Cunningham, 17, Eureka high school athlete, died last night before he could be given medical attention. He had been inactive for several weeks after breaking his wrist playing football.

Principals and "Ifs" in Today's Northern "Big Game"

George Peters, quarter, Oregon State College

Lewis Shelton, fullback, Oregon State College

Bob Dethman, left half, Oregon State College

Warren Simas, quarter, Oregon State College

Don Durdan, right half, Oregon State College

The outcome of the Oregon-Oregon State decision today in Eugene may hinge on whether or not the big boys you see pictured in two columns are able to play. Ray Segale, left, Web-foot guard, and Bill Regner, right, Webfoot end, did not start due to injuries but were slated to see some action. The quintet of Oregon Staters shown above not dressed in their working clothes, carried the Beaver scoring punch. Top, left, George Peters, O range quarterback; center, Lewis Shelton, fullback; right, Bob Dethman, half. Lower left, Don Durdan, half, and lower right, Warren Simas, arctic-blooded sophomore place kicking specialist whose toe may possibly spell the difference between the Rose bowl or a day at home on New Year's day.

Turf Slippery As Rivals Take Field; Oregons Crippled

EUGENE, Ore., Nov. 29, (UP)—A slippery field and probable showers awaited the annual grudge battle here this afternoon between the University of Oregon and Oregon State College. The game was more than the usual intra-state grid tilt and a sell-out crowd of 20,000 was on hand.

Gopher Heisman Winner

Bruce Smith Named as Outstanding Gridder

NEW YORK, Nov. 29, (UP)—Bruce Smith, captain of Minnesota's undefeated Golden Gophers, Friday night was named the outstanding college football player in 1941 by the Heisman Memorial Trophy committee.

Smith, a halfback, who won the honor in a nationwide poll of sportswriters and announcers by the closest margin in the history of the annual award, will receive the trophy December 9 at the Downtown Athletic club here.

William Prince, chairman of the trophy committee, said Smith received 554 votes to 345 for Notre Dame's Angelo Bertelli which was close compared with previous years when one player usually polled a vast majority of the votes.

Back of Smith and Bertelli in the balloting were Frank Albert of Stanford, 336; Frank Sinkwich of Georgia, 249; Bill Dudley of Virginia, 237; Peabody, 153; Edgar (Special Delivery) Jones of Pittsburgh, 151; Bob Westfall of Michigan, 147; Steve Lach of Duke, 126, and Jack Crain of Texas, 102. Peabody is the only lineman in the lot.

PRaises Dudley
UNIVERSITY, Va. — Frank Murray, University of Virginia football coach, calls Bill Dudley "a greater football player than was Ace Parker, George McAfee or Clint Frank in college."

Dudley is leading the nation in scoring. No team has been able to stop him.

"The pro club that grabs him will be a lucky team," says Murray.

HARDER'S ARM OKEH
CLEVELAND — Mel Harder, who submitted to an arm operation following his release by Cleveland, reports that his salary slingshot is strong again.

The goose will hang high if the Staters win and shortly after the game it is expected that they will be named Pacific coast conference representatives in the Rose Bowl. Should they lose, and lots of Oregon rooters are putting up good money that the Ducks, although crippled from the hard battle last week with Washington, will arise to the occasion—that will be a different story.

Coach Tex Oliver of Oregon hied his boys away from the rampant city of Eugene last night for a little peace and quiet. Coach Lon Stiner and the Beavers arrived today about noon.

The Beavers, outside of possibly a small and understandable case of the jitters, were in fine shape for the fray. Stiner started his regular backfield of Durham, Dethman, Peters and Shelton. The line, from left to right, was made up of Zellick, Wickett, Halverson, Greenough, Chaves, Saunders and Norm Peters.

Oliver had some first string men on the bench at the opening whistle, although the first line backfield of Roblin, Mecham, Iverson and Koch were in there. Crish, end, and Segale, guard, both hampered with shoulder injuries, did not start. Wilson, the center, was limping from a bad leg, while Patton, the other center, also was injured. Regular End Regner, out with a charlie horse, may see some action, but Nowing started. Moshofsky and Ashcom were at the tackles with Rhea at the other guard spot.

MONTGOMERY RESIGNS
SPOKANE, Wash., Nov. 29, (UP)—A. J. Montgomery, business manager of the Spokane Indians of the Western International Baseball league since 1937, resigned Friday to return to a state job in Salem, Oregon.

IRISH DRAW CROWDS
NOTRE DAME — Capacity crowds have seen Notre Dame against Army, Navy, Northwestern and Southern California.

PENN DRAWS 420,000
PHILADELPHIA — With the 73,371 seats for the Cornell game so quickly sold out, Pennsylvania's total attendance for the season was swelled to 420,000.

Klamath Keglers Hold Majority Of Leaderships in Maple Congress

Men and women keglers from Bend, Seaside, Marshfield, Bly, Corvallis and Medford invaded Klamath Falls today for resumption of the Oregon Bowling congress tonight on Klamath Recreation and Kern hotel alleys.

It will be the third night of firing for the gals and the sixth for men maple marksmen. The tourney has been inactive since Klamath's open class pinsters finished their blasting Wednesday night.

The out-of-towners will be shooting at a set of established leaders topped in the main by local bowlers who used their home alleys to good advantage during the week. The local boys took first places in all team divisions, first in Commercial all-events, Open doubles, Commercial singles, Booster singles, and Booster all-events.

Klamath gals weren't far behind their brothers, capturing leaderships last weekend in all three all-events groups, first in Class A doubles, Class B teams, Class B singles, Booster teams, and Booster singles.

Tonight three Seaside quintets and one Marshfield squad opens fire at 10 o'clock at the Klamath Recreation. Sunday's blasting begins at 8:30 in the morning and will continue through 7 p. m.

Two Bend women's teams roll tonight at 8 o'clock on the Kern mapleyways and split in to doubles and singles Sunday beginning at 11 a. m.

Zale Licks Abrams for Middle Title

NEW YORK, Nov. 29 (UP)—NEW YORK, Nov. 29 (UP)—Gary, Ind., became undisputed middleweight champion of the world last night by blasting out a 13-round decision over Georgia Abrams of the naval air corps before 12,000 fans at Madison Square garden.

Zale, already recognized as the 160-pound king by the National Boxing association, gained recognition also by the New York commission through tonight's unanimous decision—a verdict which he won after rising from the floor in the first round and fighting back from groggy-land in the eighth.

Zale treated the fans to one of the finest exhibitions of right-hand punching to body and chin that any middleweight ever turned in, as he provided the division with its first universal-recognized ruler since Mickey Walker relinquished the title in 1931.

Zale had a wide margin over his faster opponent, who tired in the later going after absorbing body punishment, but Abrams—thrice conqueror of Billy Soose—gave an amazing demonstration of ruggedness and courage. Time after time the fans wondered what was keeping him on his feet, after he had been rocked by thundering rights to the head and smashing hooks to the body.

Former Falls Lad Takes Instruction

Staff Sergeant Gilbert W. Hatfield of Jerome, Idaho, has been selected to pursue a course of instruction for two weeks at the Boeing aircraft plant, Seattle, Washington, according to word received from the headquarters at Geiger air base.

Sergeant Hatfield is a member of the 61st bombardment squadron, 39th bombardment group and entered the military service at Klamath Falls, Oregon, February 23, 1937.

Sergeant Hatfield is the son of Grace Wolford of Brisbane, Calif., and attended Klamath Union high school, Klamath Falls, Oregon.

Geiger field, located six miles west of Spokane, Wash., is one of the nation's newest air bases. Several thousand officers and enlisted men are to be stationed in the more than 100 buildings at the air base. Runways more than a mile long and wider than a football field have been constructed to accommodate the huge 4-motored bombers, America's flying fortresses, which are stationed here.

IN TRACK MEET
WASHINGTON — Georgetown football players would do more than all right in a track and field meet. Al Blozis, world record-wrecking shot-put champion, is a tackle. Johnny Doolan, a back, won sprint points in IC4-A competition.

DECORREYVONT A RED MAN
EVANSTON — Bill deCorreyvont is a rabid Cincinnati Red fan. The Northwestern football star's father formerly played on the team.

Today's Grid Tilts Mark Season Close

Rose Bowl Balloting Included Tonight Following Coast Games

By WILLIAM TUCKER
NEW YORK, Nov. 29 (UP)—The Army-Navy game at Philadelphia, a grand-scale windup in the south and the emergence of a Rose Bowl team on the west coast marked the close of the regular football season tomorrow.

Around 10,000 saw the service team struggle which found the Navy a pre-game favorite at about 2 to 1.

The southeastern conference title was decided at Oxford, Miss., in the game between Mississippi and Mississippi State, both unbeaten in the loop although Mississippi bowed to Georgetown early in the season and State was topped by Duquesne. The winner may draw a bowl bid. Another Dixie game with a bowl angle was Tennessee vs. Vanderbilt. Vanderbilt has been beaten only by Tulane and holds victories over such teams as Alabama and Purdue.

Georgia tech played Georgia and Tulane met Louisiana State in other southeastern conference tilts, while in the southern conference William & Mary played N. C. State, VPI meets Richmond and the Citadel took on Sewanee. W&M, beaten only by Yale, could tie Duke for the title by beating State. South Carolina met Penn State, Wake Forest played Texas tech and Auburn tackled Clemson outside the loop.

The only other eastern games besides Army-Navy were Fordham-NYU, Pittsburgh-Carnegie tech, Boston college-Holy Cross, West Virginia-Michigan State.

After the Stanford-California and Oregon-Oregon State battles today, the Rose Bowl committee will poll the schools to elect the western representative in the Tournament of Roses. Oregon State and Stanford, each beaten twice, are the leading candidates and a defeat for one would sew up the honor for the other. If both lose, Washington State, which has a December date with Texas A&M, might draw the assignment.

Southern California and Washington met in another west coast game in the southwest. Southern Methodist took on Texas Christian and Rice played Baylor. Texas A&M won the cattle country title before being trounced by Texas Thursday.

BOXING
By The Associated Press
NEW YORK—Tony Zale, 188 1/2, Gary, Ind., won undisputed possession of world middleweight title, outpointing George Abrams, 159, Washington, D. C. (15).
BOSTON—Johnny Shook, 215, Boston, outpointed Jim Robinson, 214, Philadelphia, (10).
DETROIT—Lee Savold, 196, Des Moines, Iowa, outpointed Jack Marshall, 199, Dallas, Texas, (10).
HOLLYWOOD — Rodolfo Zamler, 179 1/2, Mexican lightweight champion, outpointed Toby Vigil, 155, Los Angeles, (10).
SAN DIEGO—Charly Wright, 151, Los Angeles, won technical knockout over Jorge Morilla, 155, Mexico City, (6).
