

Picture News of the Week

Above—The home town all decked out for Christmas.

Camera Glimpses of City Officials at Dinner Here This Week

Mayor A. Kalina, Councilman Conrad Johnson, Recorder Irving Capek, Councilman Ben Pickett, all of Malin

Councilman Harvey Martin and City Engineer Edwin A. (Taxi) Thomas, Klamath Falls.

FAIRVIEW DEFENSE STAMPS—This picture shows representatives of the Fairview PTA counting proceeds from defense stamps sales to the children. Left to right: Mrs. Harvey York, treasurer, Mrs. L. E. Juniper, vice president, and Mrs. James Hall, president, Fairview PTA, and Mrs. Florence Ollman, principal.

Treasurer Ruth Bathiany, Klamath Falls; Councilman Charles Card, Merrill.

Food Inspector Calvin Hunt and Councilman John Keller, Klamath Falls; Legislator Henry Semon, Henley.

LIONS GET RIBBING—Lions' wives staged a hilarious skit at this week's meeting of the Lions club, with several of the women impersonating prominent members of the organization. In the picture: Mrs. Vic Vehring as Bill Constans, Mrs. Paul Skeen as Clarence Humble, Mrs. Al Evans as Everett Vanderpool, Mrs. Vern Moore as Dr. Cecil Adams, Mrs. Allan Otto as Baldy F. Harris as talltwister.