

Catherine Tomison Is Holiday Bride

Ceremony Read in Silverton Thanksgiving Eve at Home of Klamath Maid's Parents

At a pretty ceremony solemnized at the home of her parents in Silverton on Wednesday evening, November the nineteenth, Miss Catherine Marian Tomison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Robertson Tomison, became the bride of Mr. John Vanie Walker of Klamath Falls.

The single-ring ceremony was read at eight o'clock by the Reverend J. M. Jensen of Immanuel Lutheran church before the fireplace which was banked with greenery and white chrysanthemums, the mantel ornamented by a large bowl of the same flowers and cathedral tapers in bronze candelabra.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a beautiful dress of mousseline de laine fashioned on Grecian lines with a sweetheart neckline, shirred bodice, bouffant skirt and full sleeves, and a matching tulle veil gathered into a medieval cap of blue lace caught with tiny sprays of white bouvardia. Her shower bouquet was of Talisman roses and bouvardia tied with matching ribbons. With it she carried her mother's wedding handkerchief of Irish lace. Her only jewelry was an antique ruby and pearl pendant which had belonged to her maternal grandmother for whom she was named.

Miss Jean Tomison, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a pale rose taffeta dress fashioned with long waist and full skirt and carried a nosegay of pink rosebuds, button chrysanthemums, and delphinium arranged in a dainty silk lace frill.

William Robertson Tomison Jr., of Portland was best man for Mr. Walker.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Doris Herring of Newberg, sorority sister of the bride, lighted the tapers. Miss Mildred Hubbs of Dallas played the wedding music.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Tomison wore a dress of Alice blue lace over taffeta and a corsage of yellow rosebuds. Mrs. Vanie Walker, mother of the groom, wore a powder blue brocaded taffeta gown and a corsage of white carnations and tiny pink chrysanthemums.

A reception for ninety guests followed the wedding. Mrs. George Custler of Silverton greeted the guests at the door. Mrs. David John of Stayton and Mrs. Ralph Hopkins of Klamath Falls presided over the urns during the first hour and Mrs. P. L. Brown and Mrs. R. A. MacClanathan of Silverton during the second hour.

Mrs. William Robertson Tomison Jr., (Sylvia Hopkins) of Portland cut the wedding cake and Miss Mildred Hubbs of Dallas, Miss Doris Herring of Dundee, and Miss Virginia Brown of Portland assisted about the rooms. Miss Jean MacClanathan of Silverton was in charge of the bride's book.

For traveling the bride wore a dress of black sheer wool crepe, grey caracul coat, matching fur-trimmed hat, black accessories, and a corsage of pink cyclamen and bouvardia.

Mrs. Walker, a member of the Klamath Union high school faculty, is a graduate of Linfield college where she was affiliated with Phi Beta Mu, Alpha Psi Omega, and Pi Gamma Mu. Mr. Walker, a civil engineer with U. S. reclamation service, is an alumnus of Oregon State college and a member of Theta Xi and Sigma Tau. The couple are now at home at 2528 Vine street.

Among those going north for the ceremony were the groom's mother, Mrs. Vanie Walker of Klamath Falls, his sister, Mrs. Irene Hawkins of Rogue River, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hopkins, and Tommy of Klamath Falls.

TNT BRIDGE CLUB MEETS WEDNESDAY

Mrs. A. C. Backes entertained for members of the TNT bridge club at her home on Pacific Terrace Wednesday evening of this week when dinner was served at a prettily appointed table centered with bronze and yellow chrysanthemums.

Bridge followed, with high score held by Mrs. Harry W. Bathiany, second by Mrs. Henri Conradi, traveling by Mrs. Lynn Rasmussen. Mrs. Conradi will entertain the group during December when a Christmas party will be enjoyed.

Couple Wed At Portland

Veronica Williams Becomes Bride of Mr. Madison

Miss Veronica Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Williams of Fort Klamath, became the bride of Mr. John E. Madison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Madison of Skaar, North Dakota, at half past nine o'clock on Thanksgiving morning, November the twentieth. The ceremony was performed in St. Cecelia's church in Portland with the Reverend Father Hampton officiating.

The bride's only attendant was her sister, Lenore. Mr. Charles Stump acted as best man.

Immediately following the wedding a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Stump, the bride's brother-in-law and sister.

After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Madison will make their home in Portland. Both are well known in Klamath Falls where they lived for several years, and have many friends who extend best wishes.

MRS. WELLS PARTICIPATES IN REGIONAL MEET

Mrs. J. P. Wells, member of the regional committee of the Girl Scouts, returned the fore part of the week from a fortnight spent in the northern part of the state when she attended a regional committee meeting at the Columbia Gorge hotel at Hood River, and also visited with her mother at Oregon City.

Mrs. Alice Conway Carney of New York, a member of the national Girl Scout staff, was in attendance at the meeting held November the eleventh to the thirteenth. Mrs. Carney came direct from the Girl Scout national convention at Dallas, Texas, and reported on the set policies formulated there.

At the convention the board of directors pledged the organization to cooperate with all other agencies striving to preserve democracy. The credo on which the pledge is based holds that "Girl Scouts are trained to a democratic belief and way of life; that youth so trained in democracy is essential to any plan for national security."

BPW CLUB PLANS PROGRAM ON MONDAY

Nearly thirty new members will view the impressive initiation and emblem pageant of the Business and Professional Women's club, Monday evening, December the first, at half past six o'clock in the Willard hotel.

Directed by Lois Rumer, emblem chairman, and led by Dorothy Baillie, new members will be told in pageantry the aims, symbols and accomplishments of their club. Other members assisting will be Joyce Ward, Gerda Perrson, Ardyce Woodard, Emma Carter, LeMoine Savage and Nedra Hunt.

"Any Bonds Today" will be the main program feature to lend new zest to the BPW drive to sell defense savings stamps and bonds.

A brief business meeting will follow.

MRS. CLARK HOSTESS TO BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. George Clark entertained for members of her bridge club at an informal party Wednesday evening at her home on Lavey street. Guests of the club were Mrs. Walter LaSette and Mrs. Howard Hanville.

Members of the group present were Mrs. David R. Vandenberg, Mrs. Dick Reeder, Mrs. Harry W. Bathiany, Mrs. Marvin K. Lucas, Mrs. Samuel P. Miller, Mrs. Neal Stewart and Mrs. Clark.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS DO THEIR BIT

"Stuffing" the envelopes for the annual Christmas seal sale is a big job about this time of year, and this group of Camp Fire Girls volunteered to assist. Meeting at the Kenneth Moore home, 2039 LeRoy street, on Wednesday afternoon to prepare a big stack of envelopes for mailing were Joyce Garner, at the left, Joan Moore, Joanne York, Marcella Murray, Totisie Liskey and Dolores Hunt. —Picture by Wesley Guderian of News-Herald.

Marriage Solemnized

Shultz-Coles Wedding Takes Place Saturday at Church

Miss Neva Camille Shultz, daughter of Mrs. James H. Hunter, and Mr. Bert E. Coles, son of Mrs. Lee Stephens of Tionesta, California, were united in marriage at a lovely candlelight ceremony solemnized last Saturday evening, November the twenty-second, at eight o'clock in the First Christian church. The Reverend Arthur Charles Bates read the service.

The wedding was performed in a setting of white pom poms, yellow chrysanthemums, palms and candlelight. Mrs. Arthur Charles Bates played the traditional wedding march and just before the ceremony Mrs. Dean Stephen sang "I Love You Truly."

The bride wore a floor-length gown of pale blue chiffon and a spray of pink rosebuds in her hair. Pink roses, bouvardia, forget-me-nots and sweet peas formed her colonial bouquet from which fell a shower of pink and silver ribbon. The bridesmaid, Miss Klea Strum, was dressed in a formal gown of pale pink chiffon.

Mr. Marvin Shultz, brother of the bride, acted as best man, and Mr. Dean Stephens presided as usher.

A reception for the young couple was held in the church following the ceremony when the bride cut a beautifully decorated cake that was surrounded by pink roses and maiden hair fern. Among the guests was Mrs. Cloyce Green of Bremerton, Washington.

Mrs. Coles has made her home in Klamath Falls for a number of years and attended school here. Previous to her marriage she was honored by many of her friends at several bridal showers. Mr. and Mrs. Coles are now at home at 2226 Hope street.

TOYS ASKED FOR DINNER ADMISSION

A great many toys to be distributed among children of the city during the holiday season, should be garnered next Wednesday evening, December the third, when the Footprinters association asks one toy as admission to the dinner dance planned at Lakeshore inn.

Members of the association, their wives and sweethearts are planning the party which should be one of the most successful social ventures of the year for Footprinters. There will be dinner at half past seven o'clock followed by dancing, and then a late supper of cold turkey.

Congratulations went to Miss Susan Vandenberg Thursday evening on the occasion of her seventh birthday anniversary. Susan cut the candle-lit chocolate cake following dinner at the home of her parents, Circuit Judge and Mrs. David R. Vandenberg.

Miss Molly Cunningham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Cunningham of Portland, arrived Friday evening to spend the weekend in Klamath Falls with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Shaw of 1930 Lowell street.

Treaty Is Topic of Talk

Mr. Perkins Speaks at Luncheon Meet of Club

Guest speaker, Henry E. Perkins, held a fascinated audience of Soroptimists at Thursday's luncheon with his talk on the Versailles treaty, developing his topic from the meeting of the representatives of the victorious nations with their corps of experts from every field, down to the close of that historical conference which left a Germany shorn of territorial possessions, machinery, livestock, merchant marine and warships, and obligated for payments of reparations and indemnities to such an extent that the future for them was practically hopeless.

Mr. Perkins then proceeded to point out that hard as the terms of the allies were on the Germans, a plan for peace which the Germans had prepared and which was accidentally found by the allies, contemplated such harshness and such crushing obligations for the allied powers that the Versailles treaty with its bleak outlook for the Germans seemed mild and lenient in comparison.

An interesting point brought out by Mr. Perkins is the difference in definition of "reparations" and "indemnities," both of these being imposed upon the conquered nation.

At the peace table, said Mr. Perkins, were representatives of thirty-two nations. Among these the United States was the only one not to overlook the humanitarian side. France insisted upon the complete dismemberment of the German nation, recommending that it be cut up into small countries of like peoples, claiming that so long as Germany remained a unit she would rise again and cause trouble.

England was even harsher in her demands. The nations were united on but one thing, that they were going to take from Germany her military power. Thus Mr. Perkins tied his story of the treaty into the developments which have culminated in the present troubles of the world.

Dr. Erna Gordon spoke briefly to the club asking that a representative be sent to a meeting in the afternoon when she proposed to outline plans for a drive for funds to help meet some of the many needs existing in China today. In this short talk many interesting things regarding China were noted, Dr. Gordon saying that not only did China need us but we most emphatically needed China who had furnished us in the past with quinine, rubber, tungsten, and many other very necessary things for our life as a nation. Dr. Gordon has first-hand knowledge of conditions in Germany as she took her degree in Berlin, and she pointed out that should Japan conquer China, Germany will step in immediately and the results to America will be disastrous.

Announcements were made of the Venture club's annual card party to be held at the Willard hotel, December the fifth, and of the annual election of officers for the Soroptimist club at the next luncheon meeting December the fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. John Day of Medford were seen in the audience at the Robeson concert Friday evening.

GROUP PAYS TRIBUTE TO THE HENRY MOES

A no-host dinner at Lakeshore Inn was given Thursday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Henry N. Moe who leave Monday to reside in the south. Old friends gathered on that occasion to bid them farewell and wish them much happiness in their new home.

Mr. Linsy Sisemore served as toastmaster for the occasion, presenting Mrs. Moe with a corsage, and telling of his first meeting with these friends. Mrs. Wilmot Crandall presented boutonnières to both Mr. Moe and Mr. Sisemore.

The evening was spent in reminiscing of old days, and song singing. Mr. Moe expressed appreciation that so many old-time friends could be gathered together again inasmuch as the friendships of many date back more than thirty years.

In addition to Mr. and Mrs. Moe, covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Bert Nockley, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. McNeely, Mr. and Mrs. T. Sidney Abbott, Mr. Linsy Sisemore, Mrs. Wilmot Crandall, Mrs. Frank Evans, Mrs. Clare Arnold, Mrs. Margaret Kincaid, Miss Nora Sullivan, Mrs. Helen Rowell, Mrs. Olive Van Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Larsen, Mr. and Mrs. Angus Newton, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Kidwell, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Rawlins, Mr. Emmett Sisemore and Mr. James Smith.

PAST MATRONS TO GIVE HOLIDAY PARTY DEC. 19TH

One o'clock luncheon, business meeting and bridge were enjoyed by the Past Matrons club on Friday afternoon at the Masonic temple with Mrs. Earl Smith presiding and with Mrs. E. H. Balsiger, Mrs. J. I. Beard, Mrs. Ruth O. Bathiany, Mrs. George Casper and Mrs. George Chastain as hostesses.

During the business hour plans were made for the Christmas party to be held by the Past Matrons on December the nineteenth. Mrs. George Casper was appointed chairman of the entertainment committee, assisted by Mrs. C. G. Reymers and Mrs. Glenn Kent. A tree and gift exchange will be enjoyed.

At the close of bridge on Friday Mrs. Charles Gilbert received the award for high and Mrs. Fred H. Cofer the special prize. Defense stamps were given as prizes.

Mrs. Fred Hauger of the Junction City chapter, OES, at Junction City, Oregon, was welcomed as a new member of the club, and Miss Mayme Whittington, who has been unable to attend meeting for the past six months on account of illness, was welcomed back.

First of Winter Concerts Enjoyed

Paul Robeson and Clara Rockmore Win Hearts of Audience in Pelican Theatre Friday Night

The "framing room only" sign was shown at the Pelican theatre Friday night many minutes before the curtain was due to rise on the concert slated for eight o'clock when Paul Robeson and Clara Rockmore were to open the 1941-42 winter series in Klamath Falls. When the final group of encores ended there wasn't a disappointed face in the crowd—at least from the point where we were sitting.

Christmas Program

AAUW Announces Plans for Holiday Dinner Party

Plans for the AAUW Christmas party to be held Thursday, December 11, are now being made, according to the chairman, Miss Peggy Hay. There will be a dinner at the Willard hotel at half past six o'clock, followed by bridge and other games.

The committees appointed are as follows: decoration, Miss Ruth Dunning, chairman, Mrs. E. D. Lamb, Mrs. Louis R. Mann, and Miss Ruth Pinkston; program, Mrs. James Busch, chairman, Mrs. Mahr Reymers, Miss Eva Burkhalter; bridge, Mrs. J. C. Lemire, chairman, Mrs. J. Truman Runyan.

A fine program is being planned and an innovation this year will be arrangements for other games for those who do not care to play bridge.

MISS STANLEY HONORED AT LINEN SHOWER

A linen bridal shower for Miss Marion Stanley was given Monday night at the home of Marjorie Eagle, near Merrill. Games were enjoyed during the evening. Many lovely linens were presented to the guest of honor, after which a buffet supper was served to Miss Catherine Mayhew, Miss Marjorie Britton, Miss Betty Dewald, Miss Juen Palmer, Miss Betty Cleghorn, Miss Betty McNeerney, Mrs. James Crapo, Mrs. C. W. Stanley, Mrs. Archie McClurg, Mrs. Martin Winter, Mrs. Bernice Wilson, Mrs. E. N. Eagle, Miss Mary Pickett, Miss Stanley, and the hostess, Miss Eagle.

The attractive young artist, an exceptionally small person, is Russian born. She explained Robeson's love of Russian music as the result of his whole-hearted reception by the Russian people during his years spent in that country. The two converse in Russian frequently and she says Robeson is the only English speaking person she knows who does not speak Russian with an accent.

The Friday night concert was far and away the finest brought to a Klamath Falls audience. Much credit is due members and officers of the Klamath Community Concert association and the year's program is to be one of the best ever heard in southern Oregon. Next we'll hear Jose Iturbi and it will be a far different picture that greets his eyes than that of some eight or nine years ago when he and Nelson Field pioneered the concert field here.

CROWD ATTENDS HARVEST DINNER GIVEN FRIDAY

One of the largest crowds ever to sit down at a Thanksgiving dinner in Klamath Falls gathered about the tables beautifully decorated with greens and tapers, in the dining room of the First Methodist church Thursday evening.

The guests joined in singing the Doxology, Mrs. Winnifred Gillean sang "I Heard a Forest Praying," by Peter De Rose, "Lift Thine Eyes," by Logan, and "American Lullaby," by Gladys Rich, accompanied by the piano by Mrs. E. S. Veatch. Keith McGilvary of St. Veatch Union high school entertained with several accordion numbers.

The affair proved truly to be a harvest dinner, featuring Klamath's own products throughout the menu.

OES SOCIAL CLUB TO GIVE HOLIDAY PARTY

A Christmas party will be enjoyed by members of the Eastern Star Social club and, during the business hour new officers will be elected, at the next meeting to be held Friday afternoon, December the fifth, at the Masonic temple at a quarter to two o'clock.

The hostess committee for this occasion includes Mrs. B. C. Johnston, Mrs. L. B. Hopkins, Mrs. Oldham, Mrs. Lloyd Robertson, Mrs. Charlotte Martin and Mrs. Oliver Spiker. All visiting Eastern Star members are cordially invited to attend.

NOVEMBER BRIDE

Mrs. Bert E. Coles (Neva Camille Shultz) was an attractive bride of Nevada the twenty-second when her wedding was solemnized at the First Christian church. Mrs. Coles is the daughter of Mrs. James H. Hunter of 2851 Ward street, and has many friends here where she has resided for a number of years. —Kennell-Ellis Picture.
