

City Briefs

Visitors—Private John S. Spence, Chillicothe, and Private Robert F. Pentecost, Summers lane, of the United States marine corps, are on leave from San Diego, Calif., visiting with friends and relatives here. Spence, upon reporting for duty, will be assigned to the sea school, and Pentecost will report to the second marines at Camp Elliot, California.

Visit Here—Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Francisco of Minnesota, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Larson, 2147 Eberlein avenue, en route to southern California for the winter. They will return to their home in the spring and plan to make another visit here. This is Mrs. Francisco's first visit to the coast.

Move—Mr. and Mrs. Don Marin of 2450 Orchard way, have moved to Lebanon. Mrs. Marin is employed there as bookkeeper with Worden and Allcott. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Little. Marin is also employed in the valley city. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Marin.

Pictures—At the evening service at the First Christian church, Ninth and Pine streets, Sunday, December 7, at 7:30 p. m., moving pictures of Alaska will be shown by Mr. Gibbs who has spent a number of years in the northern country. The public is cordially invited to see them. A freewill offering will be taken to apply on the building improvements.

From Pendleton—The Rt. Rev. William P. Remington, bishop of the diocese of eastern Oregon, was to arrive late Thursday to spend the remainder of the week visiting in Klamath Falls. He will attend a vestry meeting at St. Paul's Friday night, and attend the Saturday night parish party in the parish hall, and will also be at the morning service Sunday.

Return—Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Kent returned Sunday from Corvallis where they were called by the sudden illness of their son, Earl, student at Oregon State college. Earl later submitted to an operation for the removal of his appendix and is reported doing nicely at Ball clinic in Corvallis. He will return here for Christmas.

Chairman—Alfred E. "Cap" Collier, will be the principal speaker at Rotary club on Friday at 12 o'clock noon in the Willard hotel. His subject will be, "County Selectees." Collier is chairman of selective service board 1. Dr. J. Hardin Carter will introduce Collier.

Improving—The many friends of E. R. Cardwell, well known Klamath county rancher, will be interested to learn he is improving steadily at his ranch home in the Spring Lake district where he was moved from Klamath Valley hospital. Cardwell suffered serious head injuries in a fall.

Fishing Poor—A number of Klamath fishermen planned to spend several days on Rogue river, but a telephone call advised the anglers that the water had risen sharply due to heavy rains in the valley area and that "fishing won't be good for a week."

Reports Theft—T. C. Ward, 3840 South Sixth street, reported to city police the theft of tools from his garage.

AAUW Book Review—Mrs. E. A. Geary will review "Berlin Diary" at the evening group meeting Monday at 8 o'clock. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. C. O'Neill, 1130 Mon Claire.

Improving—Mrs. Rose Laux, who has been a patient at Klamath Valley hospital for some time, is reported slightly improved.

Has Operation—Lafa Welch, daughter of Vernon Welch of Dorris, Calif., submitted to an operation for the removal of her appendix at Klamath Valley hospital Thursday.

Alumni Meeting—The Alpha Chi Omega alumni club will hold a meeting on Monday, December 8, at the home of Mrs. Mitchell Tillotson at 1832 Earle street at 8 o'clock.

From Bonanza—Fred Rueck of Bonanza, chairman of the county agricultural conservation committee, was a business visitor in Klamath Falls early Wednesday.

Dinner—Women employes of Montgomery Ward company were to meet at 8 o'clock Thursday night at Lakeshore Inn for the annual Christmas dinner and tree.

Visits Daughter—Mrs. Margaret Herrmann of La Grande arrived Tuesday to spend a month visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. Jester of 2027 Earle street.

May Have Visitors—Mrs. Ella Brown of Beatty is able to receive visitors at Lightfoot hospital.
