SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 5 (A) Declaring it would be an aid to conservation, the ClO Interna-tional Fishermen and Allied Workers of America would like to see the abolishment of fish and game prize contests and "derbies."

Delegates to the union's convention here expressed belief in a resolution passed Wednesday that prize contests and "derbies" result in excess taking of fish and game. Legislatures of Washington, Oregon, California and Idaho will be asked to pass laws to prohibit such contests.
