

NOBODY LIVES AT CENTER OF POPULATION

CARLISLE, Ind., Dec. 5.—For the next 10 years the center of U. S. population will nestle ankle-deep in a 30-acre clover field once owned by President William Henry Harrison.

On land where the Potawatomi Indians made their last stand before moving across the Mississippi river, it's in the center of a unique tract. The French originally surveyed the tract so that all the farm buildings would be located where the sun would strike each side at least once during the day.

The new center is part of one of the most productive farms in the Wabash river valley, only 10 miles from Illinois state line, and it's owned—not by Hoosiers, as have been the Centers for the last 50 years—but by State Senator Charles Garrison of California.

The exact spot, located by Sullivan County Surveyor W. C. Smith, is two miles southeast by east of Carlisle, Ind. The town was founded in 1815, and its previous claim to fame was its 35 blocks of paved streets for its 872 population, said to be one of the highest ratios in the country.

Scattered through the topsoil of the cloverfield are hundreds of relics of the Indian wars. Roscoe Carrithers, who has tenanted the farm for more than 21 years, does not even bother to pick them up any more.

It took the bureau of census a year and a half to determine where the new center should be. The result is this:

If you had a map just the size of the United States which weighed nothing at all . . .

If you could place every man, woman and child atop it . . .

And if you could place a pinpoint under the center of population—Senator Garrison's cloverfield—then . . .

The map and its occupants would balance perfectly.

"Boy, will the Senator be happy about this!" Carrithers exclaimed.

And he joined Mrs. Carrithers in preparing the neat, little farm house for the influx of visitors its new fame may be expected to attract.

4-H News

FAIRHAVEN COOKING

The 4-H Cooking club was organized November 12, 1941. We elected officers which are as follows: Bobby Sergeant, president; Jack Smith, vice president; Lucille Schiesel, secretary; Marian Schieferstein, news reporter; Clarence Casebier, yell and song leader. We named our club "The Mix-it Club." There are eleven counting the director, who is Mrs. L. L. Smith.

Marian Schieferstein, News reporter.

Betsy Ross Sewing Club

The first meeting was held November 14, 1941. The leader of the club is Mrs. McLean. At the first meeting we elected officers who are president, Edna Mae Benzley; vice president, Margie Mikleson; secretary, Farley Spindler; news reporter, Ariene Swegle; song leader, Lucille Floyd; yell leader, Virginia Yeager. There are fourteen girls in our sewing club.

Our second meeting was held November 28, 1941. First the meeting was called to order by Edna Benzley and we then chose the name for our club which is "Betsy Ross Sewing Club." The next meeting held, the girls are going to start working on their projects. We are looking forward to having a successful sewing club, and expect to finish our projects throughout the year.

Ariene Swegle, news reporter.

Chew and Chat Cooking Club

November 26, 1941, the "Chew and Chat club" met at the elementary school. We called the roll with name of a root vegetable. We then drew names for our next meeting, during which we will have a Christmas exchange. Wayne Guber gave a talk on how to use raw vegetables. Mrs. Keady discussed with us about giving a talk. Yvonne Hough and Wilma Blackman gave a talk on how to make cabbage thread. Then we all played a game called "Buzz 7." We then adjourned with another game. A pleasant time was had by all.

Billy Davig, news reporter.

Chemult Co-eds

The Chemult "Co-eds" are really enthusiastic about their 4-H work. They have enrolled for two club programs this year, leathercraft and marksmanship. Last year the boys belonging to the club took sewing with the girls and learned to crochet. This year the boys have had their say and the girls are learning to shoot. The club organized with the same officers and members of both projects. Members and officers are as follows, Jacqueline MacGreer, president; George and Margaret Hash, yell leaders; Fay Thompson, secretary; David Brader, Josephine Brader, Robert Harris, Richard Jessup, Capie Jessup, Glenn Hash and Billy Stueky. Mrs. Verne Brader will be our club leader again this year for the leathercraft project and Robert E. Nason will be the leader for the marksmanship project. Nason has been prominent in Boy Scout work in Portland and had a group of scouts in marksmanship there.

Last year two of the boys, David Brader and George Hash, won prizes at the spring fair. We are wondering if the girls can do as well this year as the boys did last year competing in a girl's project.

David Brader, news reporter.

Cook and Talkot Dinner Club

The "Cook and Talkot Dinner club" held a meeting November 25 at Pelican school. The meeting was called to order by our president, Eileen Bocchi. There was nothing cooked at this meeting. We made final arrangements for our skating party. Plans for a Christmas party were also discussed. The meeting was then turned over to our leader, Mrs. C. C. Jones. She told us how to fill out our books and cards.

Afton Phelps, news reporter.

Altamont Huskies

The Altamont Huskies (Health club) was organized on October 17, 1941 under the leadership of Mrs. Koertje. The following officers were elected: President, Billie Jean Blaine; vice president, Dian Kemp; secretary, Leona Dugway; yell leaders, Eva Anderson, Alice Vincent and Corgia Spone; song leaders, Geraldine Book and Connie Coski; news reporter, Iileen Book. We have thirty-two members in our club. At the present time we are studying safety and first aid. Some girls are preparing reports on this topic; others are learning to present to the club. We hope soon to have our physical examinations which are to be given by the county health department.

Iileen Book, news reporter.

Song and Happy Stitches Club

The meeting was called to order by the president, Helen Ziemienczuk. The roll was called by the secretary, Betty Willhite is the leader of songs and yells. We sang songs and gave the club yell. The leader, Mrs. Williams, told clothing I and II members how to do their work and explained then how to use the books. Games were played and then the meeting was adjourned.

Donna Hansen, news reporter.

Happy Go Lucky Club

This is a report of what we did in our club, November 28, 1941. The meeting was called to order by the president. We gave the pledge to the flag and the 4-H pledge. The president asked for old business and then for new business. Then we had yells. Mr. Jenkins came to our

Vienna Veal Rolls Waltz Into Favor With Star

Ilka Chase, sophisticated star of stage and radio, makes these two foreign dishes in her own kitchen.

VIENNA VEAL ROLLS

(Serves 6)

Three-fourths pound mushrooms, 3 tablespoons butter, 1 cup sour cream, 1½ pounds veal cutlet sliced thin, 2 medium sized onions, 2 tablespoons fat, 1 teaspoon paprika, salt and pepper to taste.

Chop mushrooms fine, saute in butter 3 minutes. Add ½ teaspoon salt, 2 tablespoons sour cream. Cool. Cut veal into strips of 2x4 inches, sprinkle each piece lightly with salt and black pepper. Place small amount of mushroom mixture on each piece of meat, roll up and fasten together with toothpicks. Slice onions thin and cook slowly in iron frying pan in hot fat until lightly browned. Add veal rolls and brown well. Add paprika and remaining mushrooms. Cover and cook slowly 1 hour. Remove rolls to heated platter. Pour remaining sour cream into pan and heat thoroughly. Pour resulting sauce over rolls.

ENGLISH PORK PIE

(Serves 4 to 6)

One and one-half pounds of lean pork, 1 onion, salt and pepper, 1 pound flour, ½ cup lard, 1 cup water, 1 egg yolk, ½ cup milk.

Remove bone and gristle from meat, place in pan and cover with cold water. Bring to boil, skim fatty surface. Add sliced onion, season with salt and pepper, simmer for 3 hours. Remove meat, place in pan and cover with cold water. Bring to boil, skim fatty surface. Add sliced onion, season with salt and pepper, simmer for 3 hours. Remove meat and gave a speech to the club. We didn't have any old business. In new business, we elected a vice president who is Jimmie Alexander and we also elected a news reporter who is Yvonne Swindler. Then we read our lesson in the breakfast club. We also filled in our cards and then the meeting was adjourned by the president.

Lilas Yvonne Swindler, News reporter.
