Those detained, of whom about 150 were Finns, were taken to a clearing center for removal later to concentration camps.

The Finnish minister here, G. A. Gripenberg, and his staff began preparing to leave for Helsinki. The Finnish legation had been functioning despite the breach in relations with Finland last July.

Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden will make a statement on the war declarations at the next session of the house of commons, it was announced.

Finns Reply An authoritative source said that only the Finns replied to the British note demanding that the three countries stop fighting Russia and that their reply was "entirely unsatisfactory."

At the same time, Czechoslovak circles in London said they considered their government at war with Finland, Hungary and Rumania because the "enemies of Great Britain and the soviet union are the enemies of Czechoslovakia."

The British government took decisive action after repeated demands at home and urgent requests from Russia. A brief foreign office announcement was issued early today, just after the zero hour of midnight, when the three countries failed to make "satisfactory replies" to the British demand that they withdraw from the Russian war.

The newspaper Nichi Nichi asserted that the United States was playing to "gain time" in the crisis, but Asahi's foreign commentator warned that it would be dangerous to think the United States was sticking to a policy of appeasement.

Other rapid-fire developments paced the darkening situation: 1. The big Japanese steamship company, Nippon Yusen Kaisha, called home the chiefs of its Singapore and Bombay offices.

2. Without explanation, Japan recalled two attaches of the Japanese embassy in Washington. (The German radio identified them as military attaches, Col. Tadamuri and Lieut. Col. Artuo Uchida.)

3. A Domei (Japanese news agency) dispatch from Bombay said Japanese nations in India and Ceylon had asked Tokyo to send another repatriation ship. Many Japanese there had already been taken home on the S. S. Hiye Maru.
