

Toastmistress Club Plans Party

Interesting Program Arranged for Dinner Meeting on December the Fifteenth

Henry Van Dyke's story "The Other Wise Man" will be presented by the Toastmistress club at their annual Christmas party to be held December the fifteenth at half past six o'clock in the party room of the Pelican cafe.

Chapters of the book will be given as follows: A Sign in the Sky, Mrs. W. R. Boyd; By the Waters of Babylon, Mrs. Emmett Chidester; For the Sake of a Little Child, Mrs. Carl Schubert, and In the Hidden Way of Sorrow, Mrs. Archie Beckwith. Toastmistress of the evening, presenting the speakers and giving continuity to this lovely Christmas story will be Mrs. Paul Buck.

Christmas talk, "Bethlehem, Then and Now," will be given by Mrs. W. H. Hibbard.

Talks on Christmas customs around the world will be presented over by Mrs. Hiram F. Murdoch at the banquet table. Mrs. A. J. Voye will lead the club in singing Christmas carols and Mrs. Emile Buzaid will entertain with several piano solos.

Roll call will be answered with a Christmas thought. Guest critic will be Mrs. H. Bloomquist.

Mrs. Murdoch is in charge of the decorations and dinner arrangements, assisted by Mrs. J. I. Beard and Mrs. John Cashin. Clever and seasonable table decorations planned for the occasion will include cedar boughs, Oregon grape, brown and silver pine cones and tall red candles.

Members have invited those interested in the club and friends to attend. Reservations must be made before December the tenth with Mrs. Murdoch, telephone 6788.

Mrs. W. D. Miller, Mrs. Emile Buzaid and Mrs. Frank Peyton were initiated into the club on Monday evening, December the second, at the meeting at the chamber of commerce, and each gave a short, interesting autobiography.

A review of past issues of the club magazine, "Correct English," was held with considerable time spent on the articles, "Enriching Your Vocabulary." The defense stamps in the Good English contest will be presented to the contest winner at the Christmas party.

Short talks demonstrating speech technique recently acquired were given on the topic, "Reckless Driving," by the new members who were introduced by the older members, demonstrating the proper method of introducing speakers.

Mrs. Hiram F. Murdoch was appointed chairman of the nominating committee with Mrs. J. I. Beard and Mrs. Archie Beckwith. The president of the club, Mrs. Paul Buck, presided.

NEW OFFICERS ELECTED BY ROYAL NEIGHBORS

The Royal Neighbors of America held their business meeting Wednesday evening in the IOOF hall when the following officers were elected for the coming year:

Mrs. Melissa Hammel, vice orator; Frances Killian, vice orator; Estel Bright, past orator; Maude Shuey, recorder; Kate Hogue, receiver; Marjorie Perkins, marshal; Iva Mae Schindel, inner sentinel; Anna Biewer, outer sentinel; Pearl North, manager one year; Anna McCormack, manager three years; Dr. Sarah Smith, physician.

TOWNSEND GROUP PLANS HOLIDAY PARTY

The Townsend auxiliary met Wednesday, December the third, at the home of Mrs. Phoebe Lunsford for a business meeting. A delicious luncheon was served by the hostess, Mrs. McWhitney and Mrs. Lunsford.

With Mrs. McWhitney acting as president, final arrangements were made for the annual Christmas party to be held at the home of Mrs. Eva Meyers on December the seventh, at half past twelve o'clock. The luncheon will be potluck, followed by a gift exchange and program.

At the next business meeting on December the thirty-first, there will be nomination of officers.

Social Calendar

Monday, December 8
"Christmas on the Old Plantation," presented before Library club by Professor Anthony F. Blanks of the University of California, 2 p. m.
Meeting of Alpha Chi Omega Alumnae club, Mrs. Mitchell Tillotson's home, 1832 Earle street, 8 p. m.

Executive board meeting of BPW at Stella Bowne's home, 313 High street, 7:30 p. m.

Tuesday, December 9
Happy Hour club to meet with Mrs. E. H. Lawrence, 3506 Anderson street, at 2 p. m.

Election officers Aloha chapter, OES, Masonic temple, 8 p. m.

International relations discussion, AAUW, with Mrs. Ramon L. Kent, 1938 Fremont street, 8 p. m.

WCTU to meet with Mrs. J. Clarence Orr, 437 North Third street, 2 p. m.

Wednesday, December 10
Sojourners club to hold annual Christmas party and installation of new officers at Willard hotel.

Thursday, December 11
AAUW Christmas party, Willard hotel, 6:30 p. m.
Ladies auxiliary of Canton Crater to meet at IOOF hall at 8 p. m.

Friday, December 12
Schoolmates annual Christmas dinner and gift exchange, 12 noon, home Mrs. George Grizzle, 927 Jefferson street.

Saturday, December 13
Annual Christmas bazaar given by Women's Council of First Christian church at First Federal Savings and Loan company building, Sixth and Main streets.

Women's Society of Christian Service, gift and food sale, place to be announced later.

Monday, December 15
A playlet commemorating the 150th anniversary of our Bill of Rights will be presented by the League of Women Voters at 2 p. m. in city library auditorium, to be followed by a tea honoring new members.

Toastmistress club to hold Christmas party and dinner meeting at Pelican cafe party room at 6:30 p. m. Reservations must be made with Mrs. H. F. Murdoch by December 10.

Tuesday, December 16
Galla-Rini, concert accordionist in recital at Willard hotel, 7:30 p. m., presented by Mr. and Mrs. Emile Buzaid.

Wednesday, December 17
Art Needle Work club with Mrs. Wilbur A. Jones, High street.

Shrine club dinner dance, Willard hotel, 7:30 p. m.

Mrs. Henri Conradi to entertain TNT members.

Wednesday club's annual Christmas party in St. Paul's parish house.

Thursday, December 18
Annual Christmas party and shower for Sisters of Sacred Heart academy by Mothers club, 1:30 p. m.

Friday, December 19
Christmas party to be enjoyed by Past Matrons club at Masonic temple.

Monday, January 5
Installation of Kiwanis club officers.

Tuesday, January 6
St. Paul's Guild hostess group to women of parish and St. Barnabas mission with Epiphany Day program.

Thursday, January 8
AAUW arts and crafts group with Mrs. C. V. Rugh, Washington street, 2 p. m.

Saturday, January 17
Mid-winter carnival dance Willard hotel.

slated by Winter Dancing club, Tuesday, February 10
Klamath Community Concert association presents Jose Iturbi, Spanish pianist, Pelican theatre, 8 p. m.

Friday, March 8
Klamath Community Concert association presents Maracci dance troupe, Pelican theatre, 8 p. m.

Monday, March 16
Klamath Community Concert association presents "Marriage of Figaro," Pelican theatre, 8 p. m.

Mrs. Junior Daggett of Prineville spent Friday with friends in Klamath Falls. She is a former resident of this city.

Women of Reames spent Friday sewing for the Klamath chapter of the American Red Cross at their usual weekly meeting at the clubhouse.

FUN AT THE "CASEY'S" KID PARTY

On Tuesday evening of this week, in the KC hall, Knights of Columbus, their wives and friends, enjoyed a pre-holiday party where kid costumes were much in evidence. The large picture above shows the group. Below, left, Roxie Lewis, Claryce Holm, Wendell Huette and Jim Delyea. Lower, Pauline Suty, Frank Delyea, Martha Delyea, and Roxie Lewis.

—Pictures by Wesley Guderian of Herald-News.

CLUB PLANS HOLIDAY PARTY FOR MEETING

The Independent Study club met Thursday, November the twenty-seventh, at the home of Mrs. Kate Crowson on Darrow avenue for a business hour and needlework. Mrs. Irene Ross became a new member of the club.

Those present were Mrs. Helen Eiting, Mrs. Pearl Marin, Mrs. Lizzie Little, Mrs. Kathryn Billings, Mrs. Katherine Evans, Mrs. Katherine Williams, Mrs. Ipha Brown, Mrs. Estella Smith, Miss Nona Hall, Mrs. Fannie Goddard, Mrs. Arbroth Stone, Mrs. Helen Wardle, Mrs. Louise Borton and Mrs. Lowe.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Katherine Evans in Riverview when a potluck luncheon will be served at noon. Those attending will meet at half past ten o'clock at the home of Miss Hall, 915 East Main street, for transportation, Thursday, December the eleventh. This will be a Christmas party with the usual gift exchange.

On Saturday evening, December the thirteenth, the club will entertain their husbands, families and friends with a potluck dinner at half past six o'clock in the community hall on Garden avenue. Entertainment will follow the dinner hour.

Social Club To Meet Wednesday

The Rebekah Social club will meet in the IOOF hall Wednesday afternoon, December the tenth. Refreshments will be served at half past one o'clock, followed by the regular business meeting at which time election of officers will be held. The remainder of the afternoon will be spent in needlework.

THREE R CLUB MEETS AT HOME OF MRS. HAMMEL

The Three R club, Royal Neighbors of America, met November the twenty-fifth at the home of Mrs. Melissa Hammel on Darrow avenue, with eleven members and one visitor, Mrs. Millie Watson of San Francisco. The afternoon was spent with needlework.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Myrtle Hart, 1815 Oregon avenue. The committee assisting Mrs. Hart will be Mrs. Lucille Helfer, Mrs. Helen Eiting, Mrs. Frances Killian, Mrs. Anna McCormack, and Mrs. Jestia Kaylor.

FRIENDS HONOR ARMY RECRUIT SATURDAY NIGHT

Mr. Stanley Larson who left for service in the army on Wednesday evening was honored by a number of guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bestwick on Oregon avenue last Saturday evening. Later in the evening the group went to Cal-Ore for dancing.

Those invited besides the honor guest were Miss Mary Ellen Hotchkiss, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Bestwick, Mr. and Mrs. John Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Botens Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Larson, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Larson, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Larson, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Pade, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Larson, and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Fitzgerald of Salem.

BPW Emblem Ceremony

Pageant Presented at Willard by Local Club

Seventy members of the Business and Professional Women's club enjoyed their impressive initiation pageant Monday at the regular dinner meeting in the Willard hotel banquet room.

Read by Lois Rumer, emblem chairman, and Dorothy Baile, the ceremony was enacted by Emma Carter, Gerda Persson, LeMoine Savage, Nedra Hunt, and Ardyce Woodward, each of whom represented the four vital points signifying the growth of a need for a consolidated women's federation.

Introduced by Mabel Randall, the new members were presented to Elenora Weatherford, club president, who led them in the organization's pledge of allegiance and leadership. Muriel Garich sang the initiation song, accompanied by Dorothy Revell.

Preceding the initiation, the 1940-41 club project, printed paper napkins carrying advertising of local merchants, received a new impetus when a spirited contest developed, with several members giving impromptu speeches concerning the business houses represented. Winifred Darnell was awarded the prize.

Flo Ann Eaton continued her defense stamp drive, distributing copies of Irving Berlin's "Any Bonds Today." More than twenty dollars in stamps have been sold at club meetings.

Each of the eighteen committees volunteered to provide a doll completely clothed for the firemen's toy store, to be ready at the Christmas party, December the fifteenth, of which Nelle Olson will be chairman.

GIRL SCOUTS MAKE PLANS FOR PARTY

Girl Scout activities are in full swing at Altamont Junior high with troops nine, eleven and seventeen engaged in plans for their annual Mother-Daughter tea to be held Tuesday, December the ninth from three to four o'clock in the school music rooms.

Because of the increasing interest in Girl Scout work, a new troop, number seventeen, has been organized with a membership of twenty-seven; there are sixty-eight members altogether.

Troop leaders are Mrs. Emma Carter, Mrs. Kurtz and Miss Berena Reeder; their assistants, Miss Hardy, Miss Ruth Finch and Mrs. Byron Caldwell.

Besides the mothers of Girl Scouts, Altamont High teachers are cordially invited.

Mr. Louis Botens was honored by his wife on Thursday evening at a dinner party given on the occasion of his twenty-seventh birthday. Covers were laid for Mrs. E. M. Caldwell, Mrs. G. M. Finnell, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Larson and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Jr., and son, Roger.

Eulalona Chapter Discusses Juniors

Daughters of the American Revolution Contribute Much to Christmas Cheer for Others

Eulalona chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, hopes to sponsor a junior member organization in the near future. Mrs. Bert C. Thomas is chapter chairman of this undertaking. The group will include eligible applicants who are between the ages of eighteen and thirty-five, and who would do more effective work when associated with members near their own age, rather than in the senior groups of Daughters.

Play Set By League

Women Voters Schedule Observance of Signing

The presidential proclamation, asking civic groups to observe the signing of the bill of rights, found the Klamath League of Women Voters already at work on their playlet, "Our Heritage." The 150th anniversary of the adoption of the bill of rights is December the fifteenth, the day of the meeting of the league, so the program committee had long planned to observe the day in a fitting manner.

"Our Heritage" will be presented in the auditorium of the city library at two o'clock on Monday, December the fifteenth.

Following the program there will be a reception and a tea, to welcome new members. Any woman, interested in joining the league, who has not been contacted is requested to call the chairman of the membership committee, Mrs. Robert Ross, whose telephone number is 4487.

WEDNESDAY CLUB DRESSES HOLIDAY DOLLS

On December third, Wednesday club of St. Paul's church held its doll dressing party, which is an annual event of this organization. Members came and brought dolls dressed, or dressed them during the evening and a total of thirty dolls was presented to the local firemen for their Christmas toys. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Phil Schroeder, chairman, Mrs. James Barnard, Mrs. C. Roy Whytal, Mrs. Glenn Jones, and Miss Dorothy Schupp. The room was very attractively decorated to carry out the theme of the evening with china dolls holding flowers.

Mrs. Fred Flock was present with her collection of dolls and gave a very interesting history of each doll. After the dessert was served a short business meeting was held and later bridge was played with prizes going to Mrs. Warren Bennet, Mrs. E. H. Kleiver, Mrs. Willard Ward, and the guest award to Mrs. Fred Flock.

On November twenty-sixth Wednesday club of St. Paul's Episcopal church was entertained at a delightful "football" party. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Helen Stancil, chairman, Mrs. R. H. Reeves, Miss Hazel Morrison and Mrs. Orville Hamilton. The color scheme was carried out in green, yellow, orange and black and a very clever set of goal posts decorated the mantle piece. Bridge was played during the evening with the prizes being awarded to Mrs. R. B. Hopkins, Mrs. W. D. Miller, and Miss Jean Whitney.

The next meeting of Wednesday club will be December seventeenth — the annual Christmas party with a gift exchange.

Congratulations have gone this past week to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Morgan of 5620 Leland drive, who observed their fiftieth wedding anniversary on Saturday, November the twenty-ninth.

Many friends and relatives called on that day to greet the couple and offer their congratulations.

COUPLE OBSERVE ANNIVERSARY

Mrs. J. K. Reno reviewed "Address Unknown" by Kressman Taylor.

Mrs. A. R. Hansen was a guest for the afternoon, and members present included Mrs. Glenn Kent, Mrs. Luella Hough, Mrs. George Casper, Mrs. C. G. Reymers, Mrs. Lawrence Phelps, Mrs. E. C. Stucky, Mrs. E. H. Balaiger, Mrs. Lillian R. Hagman, Mrs. Selma Anderson and the hostess.

Play Set By League

Women Voters Schedule Observance of Signing

The presidential proclamation, asking civic groups to observe the signing of the bill of rights, found the Klamath League of Women Voters already at work on their playlet, "Our Heritage." The 150th anniversary of the adoption of the bill of rights is December the fifteenth, the day of the meeting of the league, so the program committee had long planned to observe the day in a fitting manner.

"Our Heritage" will be presented in the auditorium of the city library at two o'clock on Monday, December the fifteenth.

Following the program there will be a reception and a tea, to welcome new members. Any woman, interested in joining the league, who has not been contacted is requested to call the chairman of the membership committee, Mrs. Robert Ross, whose telephone number is 4487.

WEDNESDAY CLUB DRESSES HOLIDAY DOLLS

On December third, Wednesday club of St. Paul's church held its doll dressing party, which is an annual event of this organization. Members came and brought dolls dressed, or dressed them during the evening and a total of thirty dolls was presented to the local firemen for their Christmas toys. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Phil Schroeder, chairman, Mrs. James Barnard, Mrs. C. Roy Whytal, Mrs. Glenn Jones, and Miss Dorothy Schupp. The room was very attractively decorated to carry out the theme of the evening with china dolls holding flowers.

Mrs. Fred Flock was present with her collection of dolls and gave a very interesting history of each doll. After the dessert was served a short business meeting was held and later bridge was played with prizes going to Mrs. Warren Bennet, Mrs. E. H. Kleiver, Mrs. Willard Ward, and the guest award to Mrs. Fred Flock.

On November twenty-sixth Wednesday club of St. Paul's Episcopal church was entertained at a delightful "football" party. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Helen Stancil, chairman, Mrs. R. H. Reeves, Miss Hazel Morrison and Mrs. Orville Hamilton. The color scheme was carried out in green, yellow, orange and black and a very clever set of goal posts decorated the mantle piece. Bridge was played during the evening with the prizes being awarded to Mrs. R. B. Hopkins, Mrs. W. D. Miller, and Miss Jean Whitney.

The next meeting of Wednesday club will be December seventeenth — the annual Christmas party with a gift exchange.

Congratulations have gone this past week to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Morgan of 5620 Leland drive, who observed their fiftieth wedding anniversary on Saturday, November the twenty-ninth.

Many friends and relatives called on that day to greet the couple and offer their congratulations.

COUPLE OBSERVE ANNIVERSARY

Mrs. J. K. Reno reviewed "Address Unknown" by Kressman Taylor.

Mrs. A. R. Hansen was a guest for the afternoon, and members present included Mrs. Glenn Kent, Mrs. Luella Hough, Mrs. George Casper, Mrs. C. G. Reymers, Mrs. Lawrence Phelps, Mrs. E. C. Stucky, Mrs. E. H. Balaiger, Mrs. Lillian R. Hagman, Mrs. Selma Anderson and the hostess.

SWAMP WATER
PELICAN — SUNDAY

Christmas Decorations MADE TO ORDER!
★ Cut Holly
★ Juniper - Cedar - Fir
★ Roping - Wreaths and Greens

LIVE CHRISTMAS TREES!
PLANT THEM AFTER CHRISTMAS
NURSERY GROWN SPRUCE

GREENE GARDENS
St. Francis Park Phone 5088

MOTH PROOFED! AT NO EXTRA CHARGE!

Every wool garment that we clean is Monite Moth-Proofed FREE! Insist on this EXTRA SERVICE! Monite Moth-Proofing is exclusive with us.

ONLY 85¢
CASH & CARRY

We Give S&H Green Stamps—an Added Discount

NEW METHOD CLEANERS
1455 Esplanade Dial 4471

"Try the New Deal" of BUICK
See Mr. Yoes, Factory Trained Service Mgr.