NEW YORK, Dec. 8 (Wide World)—The beak-bashing business may be one of the first to suffer as a result of the Far Eastern crisis. . . . With Welterweight Champ Freddie Cochrane, George Abrams, Marty Servo, Fred Apostoli and other grade-A scrappers in the navy, there will be a good many spots to fill until the boys get their leaves again. . . . Cochrane was due for a furlough beginning Thursday to start training for his Miami spot with Bobby Britton, but he'll be lucky to get it now. . . . N. Y. boxing writers will name the "boxer of the year" Wednesday. Nomination of this corner is Prof. Wolstan Crocker Brown, the buy who taught Lou Nova how to lick Joe Louis with the "cosmic punch" etc. . . .

TODAY'S GUEST STAR
B. M. Atkinson Jr., Louisville Times: "Wallace Wade probably would prefer playing in the Hollywood bowl instead of the Rose bowl. The passes that beat him last time were all screened."

POSTMAN'S PARAGRAPH
Couple of Carolina readers remind us that Tom Burns isn't the only Duke player whose brother preceded him to the Rose bowl. Tom Davis, soph tailback, is a brother of Jap Davis, reserve fullback on the Duke Rose bowl team of 1938. . . . One of the game also asks how we think the game will come out. Answer: About $200,000 to the good. . . . This week's brass ring goes to Joe B. McGee of the Conway (Ark.) Log Cabin Democrat. Last Wednesday he wrote: "Don't be surprised if Oregon university returns home from Austin, Tex., Saturday night complaining about the 'hot Texas weather.' Bible's bunch will make it plenty hot for them and it won't be the weather."

Arizona to Meet Tulsa In Sun Tiff

EL PASO, Tex., Dec. 8 (AP)—Arizona university or Texas Tech will oppose Tulsa university in the Sun bowl football game at El Paso on New Year's day.

Arizona university was invited by the Sun bowl committee last night immediately upon its selection by a poll of border conference members to represent them in the seventh annual game.

The athletic committee of Arizona university meets today to decide whether to accept the bid or to adhere to a policy discouraging post-season games. "We will consider the invitation carefully," said C. Z. Leshner, chairman of the committee. "We appreciate the expression of confidence of other conference members."

Arizona with a sweep of its five conference games won a co-championship with Hardin-Simmons university of Abilene, Tex., and lost in intercollegiate play only to Notre Dame, Oklahoma A. & M. and Utah university, to which they bowed in the season finale Saturday with a score 12-6.

Baltimore Hi Team Awarded Orange Bowl

MIAMI, Fla., Dec. 8 (UP)—Miami high school will meet City College High of Baltimore, Md., in the Orange bowl here Christmas day in a post-season football game, it was announced Saturday night.

The Baltimore institution, third oldest school in the United States, has been Maryland scholastic football champion for six straight years and has been undefeated in high school competition since 1935.

Coach Jess Yarborough of Miami's undefeated Stingarees said that more than 70 teams were considered before Baltimore was picked because "it has the best record." Other schools given prominent consideration included Piedmont high of Oakland, Calif., Chicago's Tilden Tech, Memphis Tech, and Fordson of Dearborn, Mich.

Moser Makes Six for Aggies

The Texas Aggies Derace Moser (42) made six yards on this first period play in a game with Washington State at Tacoma, Wash. Closing in are Dale Gentry (45), Stan Doepke (46), and Bill Ward (44) of WSC. The Aggies won the game, 7 to 0 before more than 25,000 fans.

Likes Rose Bowl Turf

Coach Lon Stiner of Oregon State takes his first look at the turf of the Rose Bowl since his team was named the west coast's representative in the New Year's day game with Duke. He reported the turf was very much to his liking. He said he would bring his team to Pasadena soon to resume practice.

Webfoots Refuse to Go Overboard on Longhorns

AUSTIN, Tex., Dec. 8 (UP)—Oregon University's football team was walloped 71 to 7 Saturday by Texas but the Webfoots players refused to go overboard on the Longhorns. Their coach, Tex Oliver, also was cautious. Most of the players said Texas was "about the best team they had seen this year." One player conceded it was better than Oregon State, the Pacific coast champions, which beat Oregon 12 to 7 last Saturday after coming from behind. Oregon State plays Duke in the Rose Bowl New Year's day. Said Coach Oliver: "I wouldn't say Texas is the best team that I've seen this year, but I wouldn't say that it isn't, either."

Ducks Card Seven-Game 1942 Season

EUGENE, Dec. 8 (AP)—The University of Oregon will play a seven-game football schedule during the 1942 season, according to an announcement made here Friday by the ASUO news bureau. The Webfoots will drop Stanford university from the schedule and have made no replacement for this game or the Texas and Santa Clara tilts on the 1941 card. The schedule, subject to change during next week's Pacific Coast conference meeting at Palm Springs, follows: Oct. 10—Washington in Portland. Oct. 17—Washington State at Pullman. Oct. 24—Idaho at Eugene. Oct. 31—California at Berkeley. Nov. 7—UCLA in Eugene. Nov. 14—USC in Los Angeles. Nov. 28—OSC at Corvallis. Anse Cornell, Oregon athletic manager, said before leaving with the Webfoots for Texas, there was a possibility of shifting several dates and the addition of one or more opponents—outside the conference. The only non-conference game now on the Oregon schedule is a return meeting against the University of Texas, to be played in Portland as a 1943 season opener.

Troy Ties Bruins in Final, 7-7

'Cellar Championship' Undecided in L. A. Tiff

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 8 (UP)—UCLA and Southern California, fighting for the "cellar championship" of the Pacific coast conference, struggled to a 7 to 7 tie before 65,000 fans in the eighth annual meeting of the across town rivals Saturday.

Each team scored by potent drives in the third period and then settled down to a gruelling grudge fight that furnished thrills all afternoon.

UCLA tallied first in a 60 yard drive, which saw a bit of spectacular playing by a couple of the Smith boys, Vic and Milt. Milt Smith, a lanky lad, started things off when he leaped high in the air to grab a pass from Bob Waterfield, a quarterback who is a big hero in the eyes of Jane Russell, his film star girl friend.

Smith came down with the ball on the USC 39-yard line. Two plays later Waterfield tossed a flat pass to Halfback Vic Smith for a nine-yard gain. Line plays carried the ball to the eight-yard line, where Vic Smith took a deep breath and went the whole distance for a touchdown. Fullback Ken Snelling placed kicked for the extra point and the Bruins were out in front.

USC's Trojans, unwilling to lose their first start to the Bruins—the series now standing five Trojan wins and three tie games—took the kick off and drove 63 yards. The payoff play of the march was a pass from Halfback Bobby Robertson to Fullback Dick Manning, who was knocked out of bounds on the UCLA three-yard line after a gain of 28 yards. The Bruins dug in to protect their lead, but on the third play Robertson drove a foot to score. Trojan rooters prayed that their extra point jinx wouldn't crop up, and End Bob Jones obliged by booting a placement to tie things up.

Small School Grid Given 10 Years

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 8 (UP)—The Dean of Ohio college athletic directors—L. C. Boles of Wooster college—Saturday night gave football in small colleges another 10 years. Boles, who has been identified with intercollegiate football as coach and athletic director for more than a quarter of a century, said that small colleges are stymied because: 1. They can't compete with larger schools in recruiting high school athletes. 2. They no longer can show a profit at the gate, partly because of competition from larger schools, partly because of competition from high schools, and partly because of competition from radio.

Walker Will Bare State Tournery Sites

PORTLAND, Dec. 8 (AP)—Secretary Troy Walker of the Oregon High School Athletic association said he would make an announcement on Oregon basketball tournament sites later today. The class A high school tournament was not invited by Willamette university to return to Salem this year. The class B tournament was held at Ashland last year.

Coast Team Unable to Cope With Furious Assault of Bible Crew

AUSTIN, Tex., Dec. 8 (UP)—The Texas university football team Saturday crushed Oregon university 71 to 7 in one of the greatest scoring spurges ever recorded between two major teams.

The Texans, who after early season signs of greatness suffered a slump in which they were tied once, beaten once and knocked out of the Southwestern conference title, apparently were determined to show everyone interested that they had power to waste.

Touchdown Parade

The 10-touchdown parade started in the first period with two and ended with four in the final quarter. Oregon, which last Saturday forced Oregon State, the Pacific coast champion, to come from behind to win 12 to 7, managed to run over a touchdown in the second period, but that was the extent of its scoring as Texas rolled along on the ground, completed passes almost at will and blocked punts they turned into safeties and touchdowns.

Coach Dana X. Bible, watching the greatest Texas team in 10 years, gave everyone a chance, but the second and third teams carried on almost as effectively as the seniors.

Blocked Punts

Jack Crain, the southwest's leading scorer, made two touchdowns and kicked three extra points to make his season's total 92. His substitute, Orban (Spec) Sanders, made two touchdowns and kicked three points. Pete Layden, Noble Doss, and Vernon Martin, other starting backs, made one touchdown each, and Malcolm Kutner, end, added one. Preston lanagan, the other end, kicked an extra point. Max Minor and R. L. Harkins, reserve backs, made a touchdown each.

The other four Texas points came from two blocked Oregon punts, which bounded across the end zone. Oregon's team, rated as one of the Pacific coast's better defensive units, was utterly unable to cope with the furious running, passing, blocking and tackling of the fast Texas team.

Mecham Fools Them

The loser's only tally came in the second period after Texas had rolled up 21 points in 20 minutes. Oregon started from its 31 against Texas reserves, and passes from Halfback Curtis Mecham to End Tony Crish and Back James Newquist carried to Texas' eight. The Longhorns starters came in but Mecham fooled them and scored on a reverse.

WSC Almost Choice for Cotton Bowl

TACOMA, Dec. 8 (AP)—Were it not for the football game here today between Texas A. & M. and Washington State college, the same pair of teams would have gotten together January 1 in the Cotton bowl at Dallas. Athletic Director J. Fred Bohler of Washington State said Saturday Coach Homer Norton of A. & M. had called as soon as his team was chosen for the Cotton bowl till to see if the game could be moved to Dallas as the bowl feature. Bohler said Washington State felt it could not "let down" the Tacoma group which "had the courage and foresight to schedule the expensive meeting in the northwest."

He said a counter-proposal was made that the teams meet in a re-match January 1 at Dallas, but that Cotton bowl officials disapproved the idea. The teams will meet on the Texas A. & M. gridiron next fall in a return engagement.

Eva Garner Sets New Class A Mark

Two new records were set Sunday as Portland men and women bowlers carried off the lion's share of titles in the final weekend of the Oregon State Bowling congress here.

Mrs. Eva Garner, top Rose city keggerette, blasted a tremendous 255 line and a 584 series, both new marks, to cop the Class A Singles crown. She also, coupled with Helen Harkson of Portland, cracked a 1041 series to walk off with the Class A Doubles title.

In men's rolling, the Salem duo of Cline-Poulin exploded for a 1220 series to edge Shuh-La-Franche of Portland by one pin for the open doubles championship. Poulin was 1940 all-events titlist.

This year's all-events title went to H. Danley of Portland who rolled an 1841 for the diadem.

In all five Portland entrants captured first places in men's and women's bowling. Two male entrants and three gal entries copped titles. Medford and Klamath tied for second with four first places apiece. Medford women took two, as did the valley men.

Klamath men copped three firsts—Eddie Wakeman in Booster all-events, Burkland-Wakeman in Booster doubles, and Klamath Machine and Locomotive in Booster teams. Eddies' Place took the Booster team crown in gal rolling.

Texas Ags Nip WSC Squad, 7-0

Derace Moser Paces Cotton Bowl Team; S. F. Loses Final, 26-13

TACOMA, Wash., Dec. 8 (UP)—The powerful Texas A. & M. eleven, with Derace Moser and Leo Daniels cracking the whip, passed to a 7 to 0 victory over Washington State college in an intercollegiate aerial battle before 28,000 fans Saturday.

The Aggies, three times champion of the Southwest conference and Alabama's opponent in the Cotton bowl at Dallas next New Year's day, won their first clash against the WSC Cougars with a quick thrust through the air with a minute to play in the second period.

A Cougar fumble gave the Aggies the ball on their own 35, and five plays later the Texans had their winning score. Moser fired twice for 14 yards and a third pass fell incomplete. Then Daniels, who replaced Moser, pitched a screen pass to Wing back Marshall Spivey for 13 yards to the Washington State 38.

Daniels cocked his arm again and found Cullen Rogers in the open. He pitched, and Rogers grabbed the ball on the 20, wrenched free from Cougar Felix Fletcher and romped across the goal standing up. Fullback Jake Webster converted.

Washington State dominated the play for most of the first half, weakening a few minutes before the end of the second period to allow the Aggies to score. The Texans continued their offensive through the third and fourth periods.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 8 (UP)—Mississippi State, champions of the Old South, closed its 1941 football campaign Saturday with a 26-13 intercollegiate victory over University of San Francisco in a thrilling gridiron exhibition played before 20,000 fans.

A whirlwind attack, that moved as fast as the officials could advance the yard-sticks, produced three of the Mississippi State touchdowns and a pass interception brought the fourth to the champions of the South-Eastern conference. Two came in the first period, one in the second and one in the fourth.

Beside The Headpin
By "LADYBUG"

Did you ever see a tired ladybug? If not, you should see Junior.

With three teams tied for first place and three tied for second, he couldn't be content to jump pins on one alley or two at the most. He had to run from number one alley to number eight and back again all evening so he could see what the gals were doing and so he could be the first one to tell me that there were some mighty good series rolled.

In fact, there were three series over 500—"Yahooie" M. Monev dropped 'em for a 501—Bernice "Mommy" Britt did a right fancy job with 198-175-169—542 for second high. Royal Crown Cola's southpaw, Flo Ann Eaton took the lead in high series and high game with a smashing 193-166-234—593. Do you wonder why Junior is tired? O. K. Transfer rolled in a hefty 2458 for high team series.
