NEW YORK, Dec. 9 (Wide World)—Sports leaders here begun figuring how the nation's athletic program will be affected by the war and the first conclusions are that it will be curtailed considerably but not wiped out. They point out that they're still boxing and playing soccer and rugby in England and consider it a good thing for morale. Pro football seems sure to suffer because it depends so heavily on boys just out of college. Hank Greenberg is likely to be called back to the army and Joe Louis probably will find it won't make much difference when his 28th birthday anniversary rolls around next spring. One thing certain is that Utah's footballers can stop worrying about the lack of transportation to Hawaii, where they had a couple of games scheduled during the holidays.

Paul Pinckney, Rochester (N. Y.) Democrat and Chronicle; "Burling Grimes signs as Toronto manager. Well, now they can change the name of the Leafs to Beefs."

ONE-MINUTE SPORTS PAGE
Buddy Baer reached town today to begin training for his go with Joe Louis. Buddy claimed he was too light for Louis last time, when he scaled only 237, and he'll weigh about 245 on January 9. Latest report on Jimmy Fox is that he may stick on the Red Sox payroll another year. Owner Tom Yawkey doesn't want to cut him loose until Jimmy has a manager's job lined up. Fellow named Ed Brickhouse has been elected president of the Norfolk (Va.) Duke alumni. Wonder if he's the one Duke lines are built like? Buck Weaver of the Louisville Times figures Sun Again won't run at Santa Anita although he is training there with Warren Wright's string. Mike Jacobs offered Lem Franklin two dates for a fight with Mello Bettina but Jack Hurley, Lem's manager, turned down Mello for any date at all. Minneapolis scribes expect Van Mungo to do all right with the Millers because Mike Kelley has a way of inspiring guys who leave the big show in the dog-house and take the dog-house with them.

HEADLINE HEADLINERS

Haley New Head Of Malin Rifle Club
MALIN—With the exception of Barney Myers, newly elected president of the Malin Rifle club, other officers of the group have been erroneously reported. Perry Haley will serve during the ensuing year as vice president; Louis Kalina as secretary and Ray Van Meter as treasurer. Charles Steyskal will act as executive officer. Meetings will be held on Wednesday evening instead of on Monday.

War Casts Cloud On Sports World

Football Teams on Police Duty In Honolulu; Training Eyed

SAN JOSE, Calif., Dec. 9 (AP)—Members of two mainland college football teams stranded by war in Hawaii have been assigned to police duty in Honolulu. The teams are those of San Jose college and Willamette University at Salem, Ore., both of which had December dates with the University of Hawaii as well as with each other. Word that they had been mustered into police work was received by Mrs. Ben Winkelman of San Jose in a cablegram from her husband, coach of the San Jose eleven. He said the players might not return for some time. There are 25 in the California squad, one a resident of Hawaii. Willamette took 26 players to the island, and about 20 fans.

Prep Cage Meet Bid to Willamette

PORTLAND, Dec. 9 (AP)—Willamette university, Salem, will be asked to make its facilities available for the 23rd annual state high school basketball tournament. Troy Walker, high school activity association secretary, in announcing Monday's decision of the board of control, said he believed Willamette would accede to the request. The tournament, held at Willamette since its inception, was not invited by the university for 1942 following criticism of the manner in which the last tournament was handled. The dates were set for March 11-14.

Rose Bowl Plans Will Go Ahead

PALM SPRINGS, Cal., Dec. 9 (UP)—Plans for the parade and the Rose Bowl football game between Oregon State and Duke on New Year's day will continue unless the government requests an altering of the Pasadena program. C. Hal Reynolds, chairman of the football committee of the Tournament of Roses association, said Monday. Reynolds made the statement at a meeting of Pacific coast conference football coaches here. The meeting is being held to discuss the proposed change in conference schedules from the round robin system now in use to one that would include Idaho and Montana. Reynolds' statement said: "Naturally our association desires to cooperate in its plans with the government. However, based on our experiences in the last war when U. S. officials aided us in providing teams for the January 1 games of 1918-1919 for the benefit of public morale, we believe that we will be expected to carry on with our entire New Year's day program."

NOTRE DAME COACHES

NOTRE DAME—A new official count shows 143 Notre Dame graduates serving as head or assistant football coaches. No fewer than 73 are with colleges, 66 with high schools and five in professional leagues.

Scores Richest Touchdown

Substitute fullback Joe Day brought Oregon State its richest touchdowns when he bucked 28 yards through center for the Beavers' winning tally against Oregon. Job sends Beavers against Duke in Pasadena Rose bowl, January 1, for which institution will collect $85,000.

Price Speaks at Annual Lions' Banquet Tonight

C. M. "Nibs" Price, University of California basketball coach and assistant grid pilot, tops the show tonight as the Klamath Lions' club holds its annual award banquet for Klamath Union high school football Pelicans. Presentation of awards will be made to outstanding players of the past season, a regular custom adopted several years ago by the organization in conjunction with other local service clubs. Price will be the featured speaker of the evening. Subject of his address has not been disclosed. The Cal mentor arrived this morning from the bomb-threatened bay area. He inspected the KUHS plant this afternoon. The banquet begins tonight at 6:30 in the Willard hotel. Lions' club officials have invited the public to attend and Bill Constans of the Quarterback club has insisted that all good Quarterbacks be present.

Texas Tech to Meet Tulsa in Sun Bowl Tilt

EL PASO, Tex., Dec. 9 (AP)—Texas Tech, one of those football-emphasis schools, has brought home a bowl game to top off its first year of career gridiron competition. The Red Raiders of Lubbock have accepted an invitation to represent the border conference in the Sun Bowl at El Paso on New Year's day against Tulsa university.

BASEBALL TRADE

CHICAGO, Dec. 9 (AP)—The Chicago White Sox traded Outfielder Mike Kreevich and Pitcher Jack Hallett to the Philadelphia Athletics today for Outfielder Wally Moses.

EAGLE BACK SOUGHT

BOSTON — BOSTON football scouts are interested in Frank Maznicki, Boston college halfback, who had an average gain of 7.1 yards per try and caught 10 passes for 144 yards.

County B League Champions

Sewell, Albert Get Shrine Game Places

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 9 (AP) Babe Hollingbery, co-coach of the western squad in the annual east-west New Year's day Shrine football game, expects Bob Robertson of Southern California, chiefly noted as a ball-carrier, and Jack Jacobs, Oklahoma punting expert, to share blocking back duties on his team. Hollingbery indicated that Billy Sewell from his own Washington State eleven and Frankie Albert, the Stanford quarterback, probably would handle the principal running assignments from the single wing formation. Albert has had little experience of this kind since the "T" formation was instituted at Stanford, but ranks as one of the fastest men in the western lineup. Both he and Sewell are expert passers. Nine players have accepted invitations to join what will eventually be a 23-man squad. Besides the four backs, they are Dale Gentry, Washington State, and Mal Kutner, Texas, ends; George Abels, Nebraska and Chad Daniel, Texas, guards; Bob Reinhard, California, tackle. The roster is expected to be completed by the end of the week.

Texas Blasting of Oregon Seen As Revenge Whipping

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 9 (AP)—There was a pretty general suspicion among the football fans up and down the Pacific coast today that the University of Texas was torn by unrequited affection for the Rose Bowl when she humiliated the University of Oregon with a 71-7 trouncing Saturday. Oregon's sister institution, Oregon State, ignored Texas in selecting Duke as a Rose Bowl opponent. West coast sportswriters agreed that revenge played a part in the crushing of Oregon. Their comment: L. H. Gregory, Portland Oregonian: "Texas was simply trying to impress the coast with the mistake Oregon State made in inviting Duke to the Rose Bowl." Al Santoro, Los Angeles Examiner: "It seems that the rumors had reached Austin that the Oregon State officials had doubted the Texans' ability to whip Oregon, therefore had not invited them to the Rose Bowl." Paul Zimmerman, Los Angeles Times: "The boys down in Austin turned on the heat just to show that they were a little upset in not getting a bid." Royal Brougham, Seattle Post-Intelligencer: "The way those Texas teams behaved Saturday, you would have thought the boys from the Lone Star state were trying to avenge the massacre of the Alamo."

Locey Promises Bowl Fans Chance for Seats

PASADENA, Calif., Dec. 9 (AP) Oregon State, which came in for some criticism for selecting Wallace Wade's Dukes as its Rose Bowl foe, set about winning back public favor today. Percy C. Locey, the Beavers' athletic director, said John and Mary Fan would be given a chance to buy more seats for the January 1 football classic than the 15,000 allotted in recent years. "Because of our comparatively small alumni group, we should be able to take care of some public sale by application," were his words. "You can mark my words, the stadium is going to be filled." Locey came down to begin preparations for the game and the myriad of details involved. He will be assisted by Al Masters, athletic director at Stanford, who handled arrangements for the Indians a year ago. Locey said Oregonians would be given first chance at tickets, after each of the coast schools is given its allotment for their alumni. Duke of course will get its share. DURHAM, N. C., Dec. 9 (AP)—Duke university's unbeaten and untied Blue Devils will entrain December 20 for their Rose Bowl football game with Oregon State. They will arrive at Pasadena, Calif., early on December 24. En route they will make only one stop for practice—at Lubbock, Texas, December 22. Brief stops will be made at Birmingham, Ala., Memphis and Dallas, and the party, headed by Coach Wallace Wade, will spend the afternoon of December 23 at the Grand Canyon. The return trip will begin on the morning after the game and the Duke squad will arrive home January 5.

Holy Cross Names Prep Mentor to Coach Football

WORCESTER, Mass., Dec. 9 (AP)—Holy Cross, reputed to be blessed with its finest freshman football material in many years, today had emulated Ohio State by selecting a head coach from the schoolboy ranks, Anthony H. (Ank) Scanlan, who has been guiding St. Joseph's Preparatory school teams in Philadelphia for the past 14 years. Scanlan, said by Holy Cross authorities to have rejected several previous college bids, will succeed Joe Sheeketski, the Notre Dame product, whose three-year contract expires on December 31. Sheeketski recently informed the Very Rev. Fr. Joseph R. N. Maxwell, the Holy Cross president, that he placed fortunes of Holy Cross above all else, "even my own interest."

Merrill Wins First '41-'42 Tilt, 41-29

Merrill's B-league basketball Huskies successfully opened their quest for a second consecutive loop championship Saturday night by plastering Gilchrist's Loggers, 41-29, on their home courts. The Huskies led at halftime, 20-21. Both teams went all-out in the first half but were unable to maintain their pace after the intermission. Play of both squads was typically early-season. The Gilchrist secondaries bopped Merrill's feedings, 18-14.

MAY TRANSFER

CHICAGO, Dec. 9 (AP)—Don Barnes, president of the St. Louis Browns, said today he would place before the American league meeting a proposal to transfer his franchise to Los Angeles.
