BURNS MAN EYED AS CONGRESS PROSPECT

BURNS, Dec. 9 — Friends of Marvin Klemme of Burns are urging him to announce himself as a candidate for congress on the republican ticket. They point out that he is well qualified to represent eastern Oregon at this time because of his knowledge of both local and international problems. He has for several years been closely connected with Oregon's two basic industries, which are agriculture and forestry. He is a graduate of the Yale Forest school with several years experience in both private and public forestry. He organized and was for several years in charge of the Taylor Grazing administration in this state.

He is the author of numerous books and articles dealing with problems connected with the use of the land. He spent the year of 1939 on a world tour making a first hand study of conservation methods in use in over 30 foreign countries in Europe and Asia. He was, in fact, in Europe for several months just prior to and just after war broke out.

Klemme is 41 years of age, an ex-service man with a year and a half foreign service. His work over the last several years has given him the opportunity of becoming familiar with the problems confronting nearly every section of the district. He has for the last year been in charge

HONORED

Thomas Gordon Deane, of Klamath Falls, was honored recently on his graduation from recruit training at the marine corps base in San Diego, Calif., according to word received here. Private Deane, son of Mrs. Olive Ellis, 605 Van Ness avenue, of this city, was awarded medals for his ability with the pistol and bayonet on graduation. He hopes to finish his schooling and learn a trade while serving with the marines. Dean enlisted in the marine corps in August at the recruiting station in the Stewart-Drew building, 733 Main street, in Klamath Falls.

MILLER TO HEAD BIRTHDAY BALL

Samuel P. Miller has been appointed chairman of the president's birthday ball committee, and this post the Klamath Falls man accepted for the fourth consecutive year, it was announced Tuesday.

The appointment was made by Dr. E. T. Hedlund, Portland postmaster and Oregon chairman of observation of the president's birthday in recognition of the splendid work done by Miller during the past few years. Carl Donough, Portland, continues in the post of active vice chairman.

Miller stated Tuesday the dance date has been set for Saturday, January 31. Approximately $1000 was kept in Klamath county for work in the field of infantile paralysis, with $1000 sent to the national fund for research as the result of last year's dance.

TREE TEA IS BETTER!"

TREE TEA WINS 19 TO 1 ON TASTE ALONE

RIGHT in your own home, you and your family can learn for yourselves what thousands have already discovered: there's more real enjoyment in Tree Tea's better flavor.

It tastes better. That's the simple reason why Tree Tea has won from its leading competitor NINETEEN times in unbiased taste tests.

Members of women's clubs throughout the West took part in these tests. Each woman was served Tree Tea, Orange Pekoe, and the leading competitive tea, prepared exactly the same way. No one knew what brands were used.

TREE TEA WINS, 19 TO 1
More than 500 women took part in the 23 tests. An overwhelming majority chose Tree Tea's definitely better flavor. Tree Tea won nineteen tests, tied three and lost only one!

Your taste, too, will prove Tree Tea is better. The reason is, we blend it from better teas. It is the only popular brand enriched and flavor-fortified with Darjeeling, the world's rarest tea. This blend of the finest Ceylons and Darjeeling will make you enjoy tea as you've never enjoyed it before.

A FRIENDLY TIP ABOUT HABIT
Claims of tea flavor are easy to make. But it's harder to prove extra quality by test, as Tree Tea has done. Don't let habit guide your tea-buying; try Tree Tea, the brand that has proved it's better. You will agree with careful, discriminating buyers everywhere that it is "The World's Finest Tea."
