

City Briefs

Goes North — Mrs. Arthur "Snowy" Gustafson and small daughter, Sonya, left Thursday for Milton-Freewater where they will be the guests of Mrs. Gustafson's sister, Dr. and Mrs. Flower. They have been located in Carmel since Gustafson, former Klamath Union high school football coach, was called into the service. Mrs. Gustafson visited here Wednesday evening with old friends. She will remain north with her small daughter for an indefinite time.

Reames Women—Members of the women's auxiliary of Reames Golf and Country club will meet Friday at 1:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. George H. Merryman Sr., Pacific Terrace, to spend the afternoon sewing for the American Red Cross. All materials for those who wish to knit or sew will be on hand, it was announced by Mrs. W. E. Lamm, president of Reames.

Girl Scout News

The Girl Scouts of Klamath Falls have pledged their service in this national emergency. Senior Girl Scouts and Mariners are trained by the Red Cross to help register in time of disaster. Another group has volunteered to help with the registration at the chamber of commerce.

St. Paul's Guild—The regular meeting of St. Paul's guild will be held at 2 p. m. Thursday, December 11, at the parish house, Eighth and Jefferson streets. In the absence of the president, Mrs. W. B. Hendrickson, vice president, will preside at the business meeting. Reports of the recent parish bazaar will be made at this time. All women of the parish are cordially invited to be present. A lighted Christmas tree and exchange of gifts during the tea hour will close the afternoon meeting.

Course Cancelled — Dr. Peter H. Rozendal, Klamath county health officer, who was to have left Wednesday night for Portland to attend a three-day course in chest diseases, received word late Wednesday the school had been cancelled due to the national emergency.

Date Changed — The regular monthly meeting of the DeMolay Mothers club has been changed from Thursday, December 11, to Wednesday, December 17, at the home of Mrs. Godfrey Blohm at 8 p. m.

Cigarette Fire—The city fire department was called to 220 South Fourth street, home of Dave Allison, where a cigarette had caused fire to destroy a mattress and several blankets. The call was received at 1:13 a. m., firemen stated.

PTA Notes

SHASTA
The November business meeting of Shasta PTA opened with Mrs. Ralph Aubrey presiding. Mrs. Leonard Lund, program chairman, introduced Mrs. LaVerne Doly who led the flag salute, and Eleanor Hurn who sang, "God Bless America."

Mrs. Monroe led the fifth grade chorus in three numbers. They were accompanied by Ruth Gysber. Mrs. Knight played a piano number, "The Holy City," by Steven Adams. It was reported that Lois Hare's room won the award in the PTA's successful drive this fall. Her room brought in 25 new members under the leadership of Mrs. Eastman, room representative. Mrs. Monroe's fifth grade room won the attendance award for Wednesday's meeting.

Committee reports included a report by Mrs. Williams that the rummage sale on November 16 brought in $21.85. The project this year is the furnishing of a health room. Mrs. Williams also announced that in February the PTA will sponsor a box social followed by square dancing. The meeting was concluded with a report on nutrition by Mrs. Aubrey, assisted by Mrs. Ivan Crum-packer. They announced the PTA would buy a large nutrition poster for each room. Refreshments were served by the three first grade rooms. The December meeting will be moved ahead one week to December 17.
