football squad this season . . . Lieut. Bill Ingram, one-time he Oklahoma . . . Another ex-athlete who probably has seen action is Tom Lombardi, Syracuse footballer and oarsman of 10 years ago, lay reported aboard the West Virginia . . .

The New York university undergraduate newspaper council, which started the blast against the Violets' athletic setup, has decided to forget about it for the duration . . . This may be just propaganda, but reports from the southwest say Coach Fergue Ferguson of the alwaysbeaten Arkansas Aggies Boll Weevils claims he won't risk scheduling Pacific Coast con-ference clubs . "We would the taking an awful chance," he says, "and might even win."

The 1941 issue of Klamath high school Pelican cagers, pine-tall but fir-green, makes its bow to hometown fans tonight in the KUHS gym against Yreka. Two games are scheduled, one pitting the Wildcats against a Miner secondary. Tomorrow night the Bigbills face a major test in Albany of the Willamette valley No.Name league in a contest which should give a pointed indication of the Klamaths' relative strength.

Coach Dutch French this morn ing said his starters would be

Capt. Gene Love and George Brosterhous at forwards, Jim Cox at center, and Jim Bocchi and Ingvar Swanson at guards. Love and Bocchi are the only first string holdovers from last year's state semi-finalists. The other three give this year's Pelicans a slightly green tinge. Cox, a 6-foot three-inch graduate from Wildcat ranks, has never seen Bigbill action. Brosterhous Junior has been browsing and Swanson both were Pelican through bowling books all week and had some bowling terms to reserves last season.

French said the team has about the same speed as last year's model and is taller. Love and Swanson stretch about 6-1, Bocchi is 6-2, Cox 6-3, and Brosterhous 6-5. Caliber of the Yreka team is
