

County Towns to Cooperate With Blackout Plans

County communities are showing every indication of a desire to cooperate completely in precautionary blackout measures, Earl C. Reynolds, county defense coordinator, said Thursday.

E. E. Kilpatrick of Merrill visited the coordinator's office Wednesday to get additional information. Reynolds suggested that all interested communities send representatives to his office.

Reynolds on Thursday called Tulelake and offered the assistance of his office in carrying out precautionary measures in that eastern Siskiyou county community.

Weed Lions' Club Holds Ladies' Night

The Lions club held their ladies' night dinner at the Weed hotel Wednesday. The losing side in a recent attendance contest had to buy the dinner for the winning team and also had to serve the dinner.

Speaker of the evening was Dr. Clifford Johnson of Arbuckle.

district governor of the Lions club. There were several out-of-town guests, namely, Ralph Aiman, Albert Tebbe and Lee Parker, all of Yreka. A quartette from the Weed high school played a selection. They were Edythe Acutt, Tom Mardahl, Tom Kegg and Bill Fields.
