

WOMEN VOTERS TO HOLD PLAY ON MONDAY

The Klamath League of Women Voters is presenting a play to commemorate the 150th anniversary of the adoption of the Bill of Rights.

The skit will be given at the city library on Monday, December 15, at two o'clock. There is no admission charge and the women of this area are invited to attend.

The little play "Our Heritage" was written by Mrs. Leo Sagehorn, a league member who is well known in this community as a literary writer. The characters will appear in costume, and try to re-live the spirit of the old times.

Following is the cast of characters:

- Narrator — Mrs. Leo Sagehorn
- President of the Continental Congress — Mrs. Lena Melas
- Secretary of the Continental Congress — Mrs. G. E. Stevenson
- Admiral — Mrs. G. E. Stevenson
- John Adams — Mrs. Robert Odell
- Thomas Jefferson — Mrs. George Rogers
- Benjamin Franklin — Mrs. L. H. Stone
- George Washington — Mrs. D. E. Van Vactor
- James Madison — Mrs. Sam Lookwood
- James Monroe — Mrs. E. W. Swartz
- John Jay — Mrs. E. W. Swartz
- John Adams — Mrs. E. W. Swartz
- George Washington — Mrs. E. W. Swartz
- Benjamin Franklin — Mrs. E. W. Swartz
- Thomas Jefferson — Mrs. E. W. Swartz
- James Madison — Mrs. E. W. Swartz
- James Monroe — Mrs. E. W. Swartz
- John Jay — Mrs. E. W. Swartz
- John Adams — Mrs. E. W. Swartz
- George Washington — Mrs. E. W. Swartz

Following the program there will be a tea, honoring the new members of the league. It is hoped that all ladies will stay for this social hour.

ENERGY EATER

CHICAGO, (AP)—John Gihon still is waiting for his dog to quiet down after this prank: The dog knuckled over a small table and a jar of 46 vitamin B-1 tablets, and ate all the pills. Each contained 3300 units of thiamin chloride or a total of 151,800 units.

Each year tuberculosis claims the lives of more than 30,000 young people between the ages of 15 and 45.

Prime Minister Speaks Gravely of Naval Losses

LONDON, Dec. 12 (AP)—Prime Minister Churchill spoke gravely Thursday of United States and British naval losses in the Pacific and the Far East, declared Adolf Hitler committed a colossal blunder in attacking soviet Russia, and predicted ultimate British victory in North Africa despite unexpected reverses.

"It may well be," he declared in a sweeping review of the broadened war, "that we shall have to suffer considerable punishment, but we shall defend ourselves everywhere with the utmost vigor and in close cooperation with the United States and Netherlands navy."
"No one can underestimate the gravity of losses inflicted on the United States nor underestimate the length of time it will take to marshal the great forces necessary in the Far East for absolute victory."

Expect Naval Aid
Speaking seriously and appearing tired, Churchill nevertheless declared confidently that the naval might of Britain and the United States "was very greatly superior and still is largely superior to the combined forces of the three axis powers."
He said bluntly that because of American naval losses Britain must expect that United States naval aid in the Atlantic and the volume of American supplies for Britain to be reduced, but added:
"I cannot doubt now that the 130,000,000 people of the United States have bound themselves to this war and once they get settled down to it... that the flow of munitions and aid of every kind will vastly exceed anything that could have been expected up to the present."

Of the sinking of Britain's battleship Prince of Wales and battle cruiser Repulse by Japanese air attack off Malaya, the prime minister said he understood they were without support of their own land-based fighter planes "because of an attack which had been made on the airdromes."
He told the house of commons the ships were sunk by Japanese aerial torpedoes.

Did Not Take Course
Churchill described the British campaign in Libya as the only place the British could open a field of fighting that would aid Russia.
"The Libyan offensive," he said, "did not take the course its authors expected, although it will reach the end at which they aimed."
He said Hitler had made one of the "outstanding blunders of history" in attacking Russia, pictured the Germans as in retreat on the Russian front after suffering enormous losses and said Britain was now bent on annihilation of retreating German forces in Libya with good prospects of success.

Speaking shortly before Mussolini announced the axis declaration of war he said Italy and Germany would soon be engaged in open hostilities against the United States.

The raising of the new crop of trees "if we are to survive in the business of growing trees commercially."
Tuberculosis is still the first cause of death during the age period from 15 to 45, although it has been reduced to seventh in importance as a cause of death in the entire population.
One out of every four deaths occurring among girls and young women between the ages of 15 and 30 is caused by tuberculosis.
Any effort of government compulsion or coercion would utterly destroy (arbitration) efficacy.—Frances Kellor, American Arbitration association.

LOCAL SPUDS FOR CHRISTMAS GIFTS

A non-profit enterprise to promote the use of Klamath potatoes as Christmas gifts is being repeated this year by the Swan Lake Moulding company.
The company has put up a large quantity of choice Klamath baking spuds in wooden boxes. The tubers are wrapped in Christmas-decorated paper. The company will send the boxes, each containing the potatoes, to any place in the United States at a price which the company said will yield no profit.

Northwest Selling Old Growth Timber

PORTLAND Dec. 12 (AP)—The northwest leads in shipment of forest products because it is marketing the products of old growth timber, S. R. Black, California Forest Protective Association representative, told a meeting of the western forest policy and practice conference here today.
"What happens when we also will be trying to market... second-growth forests, with the handicap, not only of long freight hauls, but with the most costly fire protection, the highest taxes and the highest wages in the industry?" he asked.
He urged extreme economy in

HIGHWAY 97 AGAIN LEADS IN TRAFFIC

Leading the northern car checking stations of the California state department of agriculture for the eighth successive month, the Dorris station was ahead of its nearest competitor: by 1960 cars during November, according to figures released by the Klamath county chamber of commerce. A total of 9446 cars entered Oregon through the Dorris station during November, 7486 through Hornbrook, 2466 through the Redwood highway, 1088 through Alturas and 2022 through Smith River. The Tulelake station checked in 570 cars.
Hornbrook, on the Pacific highway, is the only near competitor of the Dorris checking station, below Klamath Falls on highway 97, and has been out-numbered by Dorris by as many as 3117 cars during one month this year. This was in October while the largest lead that Hornbrook ever held over Dorris in 1941 was 283 cars.

Mercier Appointed S. P. President

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 12 (AP)—Armand T. Mercier, vice president of the Southern Pacific railroad, was appointed president of the $2,000,000,000 concern Thursday, succeeding the late A. D. McDonald.
The action of the railroad's board of directors came on Mercier's 60th birthday. He resides at nearby Palo Alto.
McDonald died November 15.

HIGH SCHOOL News Notes and Comment

By MAURICE O'CALLAGHAN
Bob Wood, a noted cartoonist, entertained a large portion of the student body with some amazing drawings.

As he drew the cartoons and pictures for the group he recited poetry written by Kipling and other noted writers.

For the better part of an hour the young gentleman drew pictures, cartoons from students' names, and wrote upside down and backward.

Bob Wood is the last of entertainers supplied by national assembly programs until next spring. However, several excellent movies will appear in the meantime.

From January until April the following movies will appear on the KUHS screen about a month apart: "The Scarlet Pimpernel," January 28, for the freshmen and those students whose parents have joined the Parent-Parents club. "The Great Victor Herbert," February 4. "The Count of Monte Cristo," March 4, and on April 8 "The Last of the Mohicans."

It is true that the pictures are fewer in number from movies of the past, but we believe that anyone will admit that they are much superior.

CE UNION PLANS VESPER SERVICE

Roberta Alexander, president of Klamath Lake Christian Endeavor union announced today that the union will hold a vesper service Sunday, December 14, at 5 p. m. in the auditorium of the Presbyterian church, Sixth and Pine streets.

The program will center around the Christmas story and will be made up of musical selections. All Christian Endeavorers and friends of Christian Endeavor are invited to attend.

Immediately following the vesper service two Christian Endeavor meetings will take place. Vernon Kilpatrick of Merrill will lead the high school Christian Endeavor group and Gail Clapp of Klamath Falls will lead the young people.

NEVADA, Mo., (AP)—Omar Hubbard found a bottle in a cornfield. Inside was a letter, dated May 28, 1935.

"Dear Friend," it read, "When this bottle is found please answer. I would like to know who found it, where it was found and..."

That was all. The rest had faded.

LONG RANGE FORECAST
JUNCTION CITY, Kas., (AP)—Really severe winter weather will set in between January 1 and 15 and stay for quite a while. It'll be a late, cold spring.
L. S. Sargent found that out by studying his collection of Thanksgiving goose breastbones. The secret, he says, is in their colorings.

SALEM, Dec. 12 (AP)—All county defense coordinators in Oregon were asked by Governor Charles A. Sprague today to attend a meeting here Monday morning to coordinate defense plans and to discuss policies.

Christmas Lights Taken Down on Main Street

The Main street Christmas lights were disconnected and taken down Thursday.

This action was taken in connection with plans for precautionary blackout periods, it being explained that the lights could not be easily and quickly turned off in case of emergency.

The lights were installed before the outbreak of war by the merchants of the city. The cedar festoons were left hanging over the streets.

TRIFLE TOO FAR
RICHMOND, Va., (AP)—Reporting that the women's motor corps of the volunteer service bureau made more than 20 trips to return soldiers to army posts in Virginia on a recent night, Mrs. Merritt Ruddock, captain, said no job was refused except one: "To return a private to his camp in Shepherd, Texas—impractical."
