

KUHS Pelicans Blot Out Yreka Cage Quint, 62-19

Gene Love's 24 Points Spark Locals in Season's First Game

By BOB LEONARD
News-Herald Sports Editor

Spurred by Captain Gene Love's 24 points, the Klamath high Pelicans last night completely blotted out Yreka's Miners, 62-19, in a ragged first-of-the-season game which itself was delayed for over an hour because of the blackout.

The tall Klamaths almost from the very start dominated the out-classed Californians—to such an extent that little Donny Noel, less-than-five-foot freshman mascot, was twice injected into the lineup. Donny popped in the final Bigbill basket on a sleeper shot.

Ball handling and floor play was ragged during the first half but improved markedly in the final periods. For three of the 1941-42 Pelicans—Center Jim Cox, Forward George Brostherous and Guard Ingvar Swanson—it was a debut on the KUHS first string.

The trio performed creditably but not sensationally, each incidentally bagging three baskets and a gift toss for seven points apiece. Long George, a six-foot-five-inch lad, bucketed the first three Bigbill counters but appeared awkward under the wicket. Swanson, touted as a long-shank shark, sank one from the middle and two others from "points contiguous to the basket," as the army would say.

Cox, a Wildcat graduate, impressed—lean house s being entirely able under the basket. The Klamaths led 9-3 at the first-quarter pole and 26-8 at the intermission. Love's eight points in the third drove the Pelicans to a 46-14 lead as the final stanza opened.

Both Boechi and Love, only holdovers from last year's state tourney semi-finalists, didn't appear to have slipped in ability. The KUHS captain did, however, kick several passes around in the first half but tightened up in the second.

The blackout first struck in the final quarter of the Wildcat contest but lasted only a few seconds. With the arcs back on, play was resumed only to be halted minutes later by a second obscuration. The second lasted only a few seconds and play was again started.

The third dousing stuck and the Wildcat tiff was halted permanently with the locals leading 48-15.

Tonight the Pelicans tangled with Albany high school of the Willamette valley No-Name loop in a game which should test the locals' utmost.

Packers, Bears Meet Sunday In Western Finale

CHICAGO, Dec. 13 (AP)—Tomorrow, for the third time this season, those great rivals of the national football league's western division—the Green Bay Packers and the Chicago Bears—will face each other, but this time the result will mean far more than just another win or loss in the standings.

For the victor will be adjudged western champion, and will earn the right to play the New York Giants, eastern titlists, for the league championship December 21.

These two well-matched teams, coached by a great pair of strategists, drove neck and neck through the 11-game season to finish in a tie for the title, necessitating this playoff. Each lost but one game in the regular campaign—the Bears beat the Packers, and the Packers beat the Bears.

It is estimated that 20 men on the ground are required to keep one plane in the air.

Chiloquin Plasters Henley, 30-17

HENLEY — Chiloquin's rangy Panthers plastered the Henley Hornets with their first County B league defeat last night at Henley, overpowering the locals, 30-17.

The north county lads copped the lead at the game's outset and never let go, throwing up a stout defense which held the Hornets well in check. Chiloquin led at the half, 14-6.

Conroy of the Panthers bagged 10 points for the best individual effort.

Summary:

Chiloquin (HS)	Pos.	(17) Henley
Conroy, 10	F	Horton, 2

BLY 30, KENO 26

Keno's Eagles dropped a ding-dong County B loop basketball encounter to Bly, 30-26, last night on the Keno floor.

The Eagles led at the half, 15-10, but couldn't stop a Bly on-rush in the last quarter which netted 13 points.

Kobler and St. John of Bly bagged 11 points each to tie for high point honors.

Summary:

Bly (HS)	Pos.	(26) Keno
St. John, 11	F	Grimes, 6
Ward, 4	F	Simpson, 0

Army Men Have New Score To Even With Japs

SEATTLE, Dec. 13 (AP)—Moffett field's fliers and the anti-aircraft "Arkansas Travelers" of Fort Lewis have a personal score to settle with the Japanese when and if they meet the trans-Pacific bomb tossers.

The war emergency blacked out their Pacific Coast service men's football championship game, which had been scheduled for the University of Washington stadium today. It had been scheduled as a colorful "khaki bowl" carnival, with the stands to be packed with uniforms. Civic leaders had been ballyhooing the battle for days.

But late yesterday, a cancellation order came from Lieut. Gen. John L. De Witt of San Francisco, commander of the west coast military forces.

Appeals from Gov. Arthur B. Langlie and Mayor Earl Millikin of Seattle were to no avail. Lieut. Ray (Butch) Morse, former Oregon gridiron star, headed his Moffett squad back toward its California base.

The Moffett team claimed the west coast service championship after cleaning up on all California competition. The Fort Lewis team, built around more than a full team from Arkansas Tech, sent out a challenge after running up lopsided victories against all military opponents in the northwest.

S. F. Open Golf Meet Cancelled

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 13 (UP)—The $5000 San Francisco open golf tournament, scheduled for January 21 to 25, was cancelled by the junior chamber of commerce Friday because of the war.

The chamber said it believed its duty to its country demanded its time and energy be spent in raising funds for war relief rather than in promoting a winter golf tournament.

It was the second major sports event called off on the Pacific coast because of the emergency. The first was the Georgia Tech-California football game for December 27, cancelled at request of Georgia Tech authorities.

All-American; Smith, Albert Dudley, Sinkwich Backfield

Coast Places Two Gridders on First Team; Greenough on Second

By DILLON GRAHAM
Sports Editor, AP Feature Service

NEW YORK, Dec. 13—Perhaps no football player caught the imagination of the fans this year as did a broken-jawed southern star who played with his chin tucked behind a special guarding harness.

This University of Georgia halfback, Frank Sinkwich, who became the country's leading ground-gainer, was named today on the All-American team along with another Dixie standout, high-scoring Bill Dudley of the University of Virginia.

Sinkwich picked up 1102 yards rushing in 10 games, just 20 short of the record of Byron (Whizzer) White four years ago. Dudley's figures are almost too amazing to believe. Besides topping scorers with 134 points, he gained 2467 yards in rushing, passing, and punt and kick-off returns.

Rounding out the backfield of this 17th annual All-American, chosen by The Associated Press after a nation-wide survey of expert opinion, are Frankie Albert, Stanford's clever quarterback, and Bruce Smith, captain and ace ball-carrier of Minnesota's mythical national champions.

The Middle West, as last year, gained a plurality of All-American positions, landing four stars on the first team and nine on the complete squad of 33. The South furnished eight men to the full squad. Then came the Far West with six, and the East and Southwest with five each.

The Far West produced the only repeaters from the 1940 club—Albert and Bob Reinhard, versatile tackle of the University of California. At the other tackle is Dick Wildung of Minnesota, giving the Gophers two representatives on the first team.

The rest of the line forms with Missouri's captain, Darold Jenkins, at center, Harvard's Endicott Peabody II and Pittsburgh's Ralph Fife at guards, and Texas Malcolm Kutner and Wisconsin's Dave Schreiner at ends.

Sinkwich, Schreiner and Wildung are juniors; the others, seniors. Nine seniors and two juniors—Albert and Reinhard—were named last year. The All-American line averages 197 and the backfield 182. Virginia, Wisconsin, Texas and Missouri are listed for the first time since The Associated Press started selecting the All-American in 1925 after the death of Walter Camp.

Dudley's selection breaks another precedent. At 19, he is the youngest back ever chosen. Jose Martinez-Zorrilla, 1932 Cornell end, and Gaynell Tinsley, 1935 Louisiana State end, were also 19 when named.

Dudley, who toted and pitched the ball for gains of nearly a mile and a half, tallied 18 touchdowns and passed for a dozen more. He also kicked 23 extra points and one field goal.

ham's Jim Crowley. "We couldn't fake him out of position."

Peabody drew high praise for Harvard's 0-0 tie with favored Navy and its rout of Army. Peabody was recognized as a defensive standout last year and this year he developed the offensive charge that made him a great all-around player. Swede Larson, Navy coach, said Chub stopped the Sailors' attack and Army paid him the compliment of putting three players on him (but this didn't work, either).

Tackle Competition Fierce
Perhaps the closest competition, outside the backfield, came at the tackles where Wildung and Reinhard had a slim edge over such burly boys as Alf Bauman of Northwestern. Ernie Blandin of Tulane, Bill Chewning of Navy and Mike Karmazin of Duke.

Reinhard was more versatile than Wildung. He had no superior on the coast while performing the regular functions of a tackle. But, in addition, he did California's kicking, served as a passer late in the season and, on occasion, did some ball-carrying as a pass receiver. In the Washington game, after running 30 yards with a lateral, he caught a 35-yard pass and ran for the Bears' only touchdown. Bob played 60 minutes in the last game against Stanford, helped block one kick and recovered another for a score.

It was Minnesota's powerful line, plus Smith, that carried the Gophers to a perfect record and the No. 1 man on that forewell was Wildung. He was a 60-minute battler in the tough tussles with Michigan, Washington and Northwestern. Wildung often blocked two rivals on the same play. He was so tough that some teams finally stopped trying to get yardage through his slot. Iowa, for instance, didn't run a single play at him.

SOCE Comes Back To Beat EOCE

ASHLAND, Dec. 13 (AP)—Guard Ernie Rostock potted 27 points for Eastern Oregon College of Education, but his team dropped a 57 to 55 decision to the Southern Oregon college basketball team last night.

Twenty-one of Rostock's points were in the first half, giving the Mountaineers a 31-27 lead. Center Bob Mulder, scoring 18 points, led Southern Oregon in a last half comeback.

It was the first Oregon intercollegiate conference game of the season here.

Four Brooks Swapped For Arky Vaughn

BROOKLYN, Dec. 13 (AP)—By HAROLD CLAASSEN
BROOKLYN, Dec. 13 (AP)—Help pull your ball club out of the baseball doldrums—and get traded. Where else could it happen but in Brooklyn?

Leland Stanford MacPhail, boss of the Babbling Brooks, yesterday carried the idea a step further and swapped four members of the first Dodger world series team in 21 years for shortstop Arky Vaughn of Pittsburgh.

The national league champions gave up Luke Hamlin, owner of the home-run pitch; Pete Coscarart, light-hitting infielder; Jimmy Wasdell, outfielder-first baseman, and Babe Phelps, self-grounded catching blimp.

Still rumored on the trading mart are Cookie Lavagetto, twice in the past two years the national league's third baseman in the all-star game, and Dolph Camilli, slugging first baseman and the senior league's most valuable player of 1941.

Two Indiana town neighbors were arrested for throwing coal. Wish one of them would move next door to us.
