

Gay Christmas Tea Party Event

Mrs. McConnell and Mrs. Pike Entertain With Pre-holiday Party at Pelican

A lovely silver platter filled with crimson poinsettias centered the tea table at the party given Friday afternoon by Mrs. Edward Hall Pike and Mrs. Avis McConnell in the party room of the Pelican from three to five o'clock. Tall white candles in silver candlesticks and silver tea services completed the appointment at the party which was one of the largest of pre-holiday affairs.

Holly, poinsettias, and bright Christmas balls placed effectively in branches of cone laden pines were used throughout the large room.

Pouring during the first hour were Mrs. Frank Jenkins and Mrs. Harlan P. Bosworth Jr., and during the second hour Mrs. E. A. Geary and Mrs. Nelson Reed presided at the tea table. Mrs. Wilfred E. Lamm and Mrs. Rose Poole poured the last hour of the afternoon.

Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. George H. Merryman Sr., and Mrs. George H. Merryman Jr., Mrs. Delbert Addison, Mrs. Howard Barnhise, Mrs. William E. Gannon, Mrs. Prentice E. Yeomans, Mrs. Fred Schallack, Mrs. Howard Perrin and Mrs. Lucile Warner.

SORORITY HOLDS MEET THURSDAY EVE

Kappa chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, held its regular meeting on Thursday evening, December eleventh, at the Willard hotel. Mrs. Arthur Moore, president of Kappa chapter, presided during the business meeting, at which time plans were discussed for social events to be held this month.

On Tuesday evening, December sixteenth, Kappa chapter will hold its annual birthday party and Christmas party, which will be a formal dinner at the Willard hotel, at half past seven o'clock. At this time Kappa will observe its fifth birthday, having been organized in Klamath Falls in 1936. Following the dinner a gift exchange will be held.

Mrs. Charles Kaiser was in charge of the cultural program, the theme of which was "Happiness Through Control of Self and Environment." Members present marked self-analysis charts, and a discussion of the above subject followed.

Members who attended the meeting included: Miss Audrey Edwards, Mrs. Charles Kaiser, Mrs. Van Thome, Mrs. Howard Parnell, Mrs. Don Divens, Mrs. Vern Whitlatch, Mrs. Lorn Dalcour, Mrs. Norman Moty, Miss Billie Haley, Miss Isabel Jones, Miss Jessie Johnson, Mrs. Arthur Moore, and Mrs. Howard Listoe, director.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred E. Lamm will leave Sunday for San Francisco and other points in the south to spend the holidays. They will join their daughter, Winifred, student at Stanford university. While in San Francisco they will visit Mrs. George Watt and Miss Geraldine Watt.

Pioneers Have Dinner

Schoolmates Meet for Holiday Party at Grizzle's

A group of pioneer women of Klamath county who long ago organized the Schoolmates club, met for an enjoyable afternoon Friday at the home of Mrs. George Grizzle, 927 Jefferson street, when a turkey dinner was served followed by the traditional Christmas tree and exchange of gifts.

A delightful surprise of the day was the arrival of two women whom club members had not seen for more than forty years, Maude Graves Stuber, and Clara Graves Bybee, both of Lakeview, who drove over to spend the day with old friends. The women attended the old frame Central school, now standing at Tenth and Pine streets, and many were the reminiscences indulged by the group.

Seated about the beautifully decorated table centered with holiday greens and red candles, were Maude Graves Stuber, Clara Graves Bybee, Jessie Newton Judkins, Inez Turner Short, Alice Woodard Lawrence, Ida Grigsby Grimes, Lydia Turner Kirkpatrick, Edith Short Newton of Tulelake, Winnie Withrow Cleghorn, Amy Lenz Royce, June Grigsby Grimes, Maude Martin Hosley, Sally Bryant Wood, Flora Shive Smith, Edna Houston Carnahan, Georgia Hoagland Zollman, Anna Heldrick Funk, Ada Grigsby Brown, Margaret Colahan and Minnie Slater Grizzle.

CASCADE CREST CHAPTER OFFICERS TO BE INSTALLED

The installation ceremony for 1942 officers of Cascade Crest chapter, OES, of Chiloquin, will take place in the Chiloquin Masonic temple following a short session of the regular meeting on Wednesday evening, December the seventh.

Mrs. Ida Grimes will serve as installing matron, Mr. E. E. Evans, installing patron; Mrs. Hazel Staiger, installing marshal; Mrs. Marian Mudge, installing chaplain; Mrs. Alma Cofer, installing organist; Mrs. Edna Evans, installing secretary, and Mrs. Marie Buell, installing treasurer.

All members of Eastern Star are invited to attend.

CHRISTMAS GREENS AT AAUW DINNER

Mistletoe and juniper surrounding plump red candles made the tables at the annual AAUW party Thursday night in the Willard a gay affair. Pictured at one table, left to right, Mrs. Charles A. Henderson, Miss Ruth Dunning, Miss Margaret Hay, Miss Ruth Pinkston, Mrs. Louis R. Mann, Miss Eva Burkhalter, and Mrs. J. C. Lemire.

—Picture by Wesley Guderian of Herald-News.

Shower For Bride

Mrs. Coleman Honored at Monday Affair

Mrs. Fred W. Coleman, the former Miss Beverly Ricker, was complimented at a prettily appointed shower given Monday evening, November the eighth, when Mrs. Arthur S. Bremer and Mrs. James Webb entertained guests at the home of Mrs. Jerry Ricker on North Eighth street.

Gifts of linen were presented to the recent bride following an evening of cards. Honors went to Mrs. G. Logan Black and Mrs. William Spangler in bridge, and to Mrs. H. E. Roufs, pinochle.

Bidden to honor Mrs. Coleman were Mrs. E. O. Gillings, Mrs. G. Webber, Mrs. J. L. Beard, Mrs. Charlotte Fisher, Mrs. Roy Bock, Mrs. Sam Roberts, Mrs. O. R. Holloway, Mrs. Inez MacCray, Mrs. Otto Kenschot, Mrs. D. W. Holloway, Mrs. Snowden Egeline, Mrs. G. E. Purdin, Mrs. Maurice Sherman, Mrs. G. Logan Black, Mrs. H. E. Roufs, Mrs. Floyd Woodworth, Mrs. Harold Redden, Mrs. J. H. Poppy, Mrs. Orville Hall, Mrs. R. E. Oakes, Mrs. Henri Conradi, Mrs. Oscar Peyton, Mrs. Frank Kleingner, Mrs. Jerry Ricker, Mrs. Leo N. Huls, Mrs. William Spangler, Mrs. Fred Grant and Mrs. Archie Kehoe, the latter three from Modoc Point, Mrs. Bernice Berg, Mrs. Sylvia McClelland, Mrs. John Randall, Mrs. Ted Hughey and Mrs. A. N. Beals.

WOMEN OF GUILD ISSUE INVITATION

St. Paul's guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church, Klamath Falls, extends a cordial invitation to all women of the parish to attend an Epiphany celebration to be held Tuesday, January the sixth, at the parish house, Eighth and Jefferson. Members of St. Barnabas Episcopal guild, Langell valley, are to be guests for the day.

Beginning with corporate communion at ten o'clock, a full day has been planned for those attending. Luncheon will be served under the direction of Mrs. Thomas Hampton and her committee composed of Mrs. D. V. Kuykendall, Mrs. John Morgan, Mrs. Martha Barron, Mrs. R. Heber Radcliffe and Mrs. Harlan Bosworth. Mrs. R. Henry Anderson will have charge of the Epiphany cake which will be a feature of the luncheon. Following the luncheon a program will include the story of Epiphany and music appropriate to the season. Mrs. John Hess, Mrs. Roy Lee and Mrs. William Yates are arranging the program hour. Miss Hazel Morrison will be the speaker for the afternoon. Presiding at the luncheon will be Mrs. Charles F. Scharfstein, president of St. Paul's guild.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Woodruff and daughter, Jolienne, are spending this weekend in San Francisco.

Miss Daggett to Wed in Puerto Rico

Invitations to Ceremony in Famous Old El Moro Chapel Received by Friends Here

Invitations to the wedding of Miss Marijane Daggett, daughter of Mrs. Claude H. Daggett and the late Mr. Daggett of this city, and Mr. George Flitcraft, were received in Klamath Falls this week. The ceremony will take place December the seventeenth in the famous old El Moro in Ponce, Puerto Rico.

Mr. Daggett and her two daughters, Marijane and Caroline, left from Berkeley, California, Thursday by train for Miami, Florida from where they will go by plane to Ponce. If present plans are completed, Miss Daggett and Mr. Flitcraft will be married the day of her arrival. Mr. Flitcraft has been with the government weather bureau in Puerto Rico but more recently has been stationed at Losey field, 47th air base.

Mrs. Daggett and Caroline will return to Berkeley January the fourth in time for Caroline to resume her studies at Armstrong's.

AAUW Study Group Plans Meeting

Members of the Consumer Problems and Nutrition study group of the American Association of University Women will meet Monday evening at eight o'clock at the home of Miss Virginia Reid and Miss Ellen Stadius, 520 North Tenth street. Any interested AAUW member is invited to attend.

New Year's Eve Party

Elks Plan Gay Affair For Last Night of Year

Plans are being made for a gala New Year's eve party which will be given for Elks and their ladies in the Elks temple the night of Wednesday, December the thirty-first.

Members of the committee have not yet been announced, however those who are on the reception committee include the following county and city officials, Circuit Judge and Mr. David R. Vandenberg, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd L. Low, Mr. and Mrs. Chet Langslet, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mack, Mr. L. Orth Sisemore, Mr. and Mrs. Dayton E. Van Vactor, Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Ackerman, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hamm.

PLANS MADE FOR PRESIDENT'S BIRTHDAY BALL

Plans are now being made for the annual ball in honor of President Franklin D. Roosevelt's birthday and Mr. Samuel P. Miller will serve as chairman for the fourth consecutive year.

Date for the ball has been set for Saturday evening, January the thirty-first, in the armory, Mr. Miller announced. Dr. E. T. Hedlund of Portland serves as chairman of the state, Mr. Carl Donough, vice chairman. Members of the committees will be announced soon by Mr. Miller. Proceeds will go toward the national and local fight against infantile paralysis.

Children of Joseph Conger school will be entertained by the Parent-Teachers association with a Christmas party at half past seven o'clock the evening of Wednesday, December the seventeenth.

AAUW Yule Party Event of Thursday

Christmas Carols Sung by Klamath Chapter at Gala Affair in Willard Hotel Ballroom

The American Association of University Women's Christmas party proved to be a delightful occasion Thursday evening of this week. Dinner was served in the Willard hotel ballroom to the University Women in formal dress at Christmas tables decorated with holiday greens and candles. Led by Mrs. C. A. Henderson and accompanied by Mrs. Sam Mushen, the group sang Christmas songs.

A savings stamp book was received by Mrs. Robert Thompson. Following this the dramatics department of Klamath Union high school gave a preview of their coming radio skit which was highly amusing. Miss Flora was the script writer and Mrs. B. B. Blomquist was coach.

During the interlude following, Mrs. Godfrey Blohm conducted a brief business meeting. Mrs. Robert Hart announced that there were now one hundred and three members of AAUW and called attention to the list of members which Miss Ruth Dunning had prepared for the group. Mrs. Hart also announced that she had organized a group to sew for the Red Cross and would be glad to hear from others who wished to join or form other groups. The visitors and new members were then introduced, and the new members received attractive holiday corsages.

In the next announcement Mrs. J. Truman Runyan requested help for the Santa Claus party for children December twenty-first. She asked for donations of money or services from individual members.

Santa Claus was next on the program, a person of mysterious identity who entertained the club with timely and amusing comments on Santa's relation to world affairs. He distributed "white elephant" gifts to every one present, in each case giving just what the recipient asked for. As a final feature of the lively program Mr. Guy Bates sang two numbers: "The Wanderer," by Schubert, and "Hills." He was accompanied by Mrs. D. E. Van Vactor.

The remainder of the evening was spent playing bridge and "Gin Rummy." Mrs. Thompson, who is suspected to be Santa Claus, won high honors in bridge. Miss Ellen Stadius received high honors in gin rummy. The people who helped to make the party such an outstanding success were the chairman, Miss Peggy Hay; decoration, Miss Ruth Dunning, Mrs. E. D. Lamb, Mrs. Louis R. Mann and Miss Ruth Pinkston; pro-

Mrs. Martin Elected

Aloha Chapter of OES Names 1942 Officers

Mrs. Charlotte Martin was elected to serve as worthy matron of Aloha chapter, No. 61, Order of the Eastern Star, for the ensuing year, at the annual election held Tuesday evening of this week. Mrs. Leroy Erdmann was elected to the office of worthy patron.

Other elected officers are: Mrs. Clarence A. Humble, associate matron; Mr. Lawrence Phelps, associate patron; Mrs. Ed Markham, secretary; Mrs. Lawrence Phelps, treasurer; Mrs. Arthur R. Dickson, conductress; Mrs. John Oldham, associate conductress. Elected to the board of trustees are: Mrs. L. F. Willis, Mrs. Frank Ward, and Mrs. Marion Hanks.

Officers will be installed at the next regular meeting of the chapter, December the twenty-third. Installing officers and appointive officers will be announced at this meeting.

All graduate nurses in the city are invited to the annual Christmas party of the group planned for Thursday evening, December the eighteenth, at eight o'clock at the home of Mrs. B. L. Herrington in Shippington. Reservations should be made by calling 4332.

gram chairman, Mrs. James Busch, assisted by Mrs. Mahr Reymers and Miss Eva Burkhalter; bridge chairman, Mrs. J. C. Lemire, assisted by Mrs. J. Truman Runyan.

FOR HIS CHRISTMAS A BILLFOLD or BILLFOLD SET By Cameo.....$1 to $10 at DREW'S MANSTORE 723 Main

PARTY CHAIRMAN

Mrs. Nell Olson is serving as chairman of the Christmas party which will be given Monday evening at the Willard hotel by the Klamath Falls chapter of Business and Professional Women's clubs.

—Kennell-Elis.

Merry Christmas Stocking

Elizabeth Arden

A delightful gift to put in the top of "her" Christmas stocking. Tucked inside the crimson velvet stocking is a dram bottle of Blue Grass Perfume, one of the world's great fragrances. 1.75 (tax extra)

MOE'S

Helena Rubinstein PRESENTS

Glamorous Gifts for Christmas 1941

HEAVEN-SENT BODY POWDER— Helena Rubinstein's fresh-flower fragrance scents this fluffy white after-bath powder. In a heavenly blue box with big puff. 1.25

MATCHING BATH SET— Sparkling Apple Blossom Cologne, matching Body Powder, Bath Oil and Soap to make bathing a luxurious delight. 3.50

TWIN PERFUME BELLS— Delightful little white lace bells in a transparent red and blue package conceal a dram of Town Perfume and a dram of romantic Apple Blossom. 2.00

KEYS TO BEAUTY— Three lovely lipstick shades in red, white and blue cases hang with a mirror-disc on a useful little key-chain. Attractive gift and so practical! 1.00

Subject to Retailer Excise Tax

Currin's for Drugs

KLAMATH'S DRUG and COSMETIC CENTER

9th and Main Phone 4514