

Roseburg Fish Feud May End Next Year

ROSEBURG, Dec. 15 (AP)—A controversy of long standing between Umpqua river sports fishermen and the State Fish Commission may be settled next year by a new method of trapping salmon for the commercial salmon hatchery at Rock Creek, Leo McCarin, superintendent, announced.

The racks have been removed from the stream and will not be replaced if the experiment to be made next season is successful, McCarin states.

Islanders Drop Duck Quint, 33-31

By PAUL SCHEFFELS NEW YORK, Dec. 15 (UP)—A long field goal from the sidelines by Hank Benders with 40 seconds to go gave Long Island university a 33-31 victory over the University of Oregon Saturday night in the opening game of an intercollegiate college basketball doubleheader at Madison Square garden.

The game, which had been a one-sided affair almost throughout the first period, developed into a nip-and-tuck contest that had a capacity crowd of about 17,000 on their feet for the last five minutes.

It was the ninth successive victory for the Blackbird club which opened this season minus three of the regulars that helped win the national invitation title here last season.

Trailing 16-11 when the second period opened, Long Island spurred to a 17-16 advantage less than two minutes after the period began.

But the west coast club, which had played the Blackbirds off their feet with a fast-breaking attack and a dogged defense throughout the opening period, failed to give ground and came from behind four times to tie the score.

Fishing Rules Will Be Set January 10

Regulations pertaining to the taking of game fish during 1942 will be promulgated at a meeting of the Oregon State Game commission in Portland on Saturday, January 10.

Individuals and organizations interested in the fishing regulations are invited to attend the meeting which will be open to the general public.

The commission is required under state law to fix the fishing regulations at this meeting.

It will be a dinner meeting in the blue room of the Willard hotel beginning at 7 o'clock.

Bears Whip Packers, 33-14, Face Giants

CHICAGO, Dec. 15 (AP)—The schedule makers of the National Football league disappointed followers of the New York Giants in not pitting their favorite team against the champion Chicago Bears, but everything is all right now.

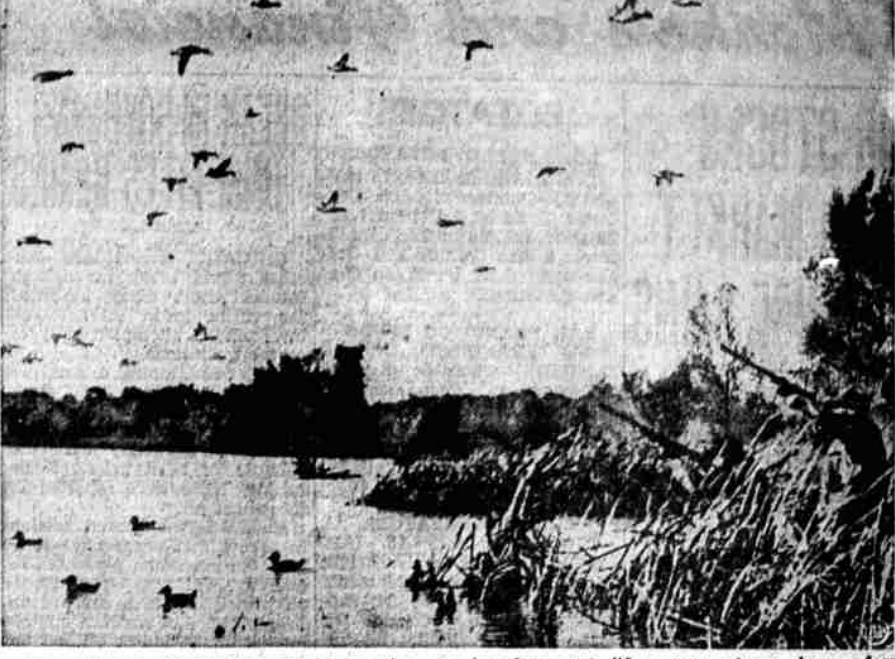

The league's representatives in the nation's two largest cities finished the season's play by winning their respective division titles, automatically placing them as finalists for the championship encounter. The title game will be played next Sunday in Chicago's Wrigley field.

The Giants knew they were one of the finalists a couple of weeks ago but the Bears only yesterday captured the western section honors by humbling the Green Bay Packers, 33 to 14, in a playoff.

The Giants were among the 43,325 fans at yesterday's third Bear-Packer clash. They learned what some of the league's other clubs discovered by the trial and error method this year—that the Bears often are vulnerable, sometimes for 10 minutes, sometimes for one or even two periods; and once this season for the whole 60 minutes (the Packers beat them, 16-14, on Nov. 2).

Yesterday the Bears were open to attack for a full 15 minutes, during which time the Packers slipped over a surprise touchdown and then held on tight for a 7-6 lead at the end of the first period.

Midwest Hunters Call This Shangri-La

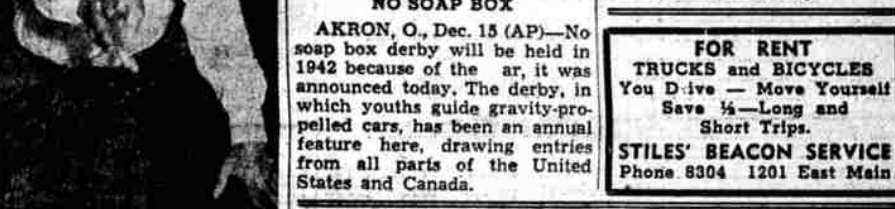

According to the picture service caption on the above cut, "A sunny autumn day, a few decoys, a natural blind, a trusty RIFLE—put them all together and you have a hunter's paradise. Hunters in the Klamath area, despite the multitude of birds, prefer a shotgun and a low overcast day. Anyway, the picture was taken on Rock river, near Moline, Ill. The duck and goose season ended here Sunday with ideal overcast conditions and practically every SHOTGUN in the country in use. Many limit bags were reported."

Bowling for Beginners

Complete Follow Through Is Essential To Good Direction as Ball Does Work

By JOE FALCARO Greatest Match Game Bowler This will assure you an even flow of speed. Maintain a regular delivery. Don't throw a fast ball one time and slow down the next. Remember the follow through in bowling is as important as it is in golf or baseball. Holding back or jerking has the same effect on your bowling score that a half swing has on your golf game.

alley but lay it down evenly smoothly. Don't lower it jerkily. Use a straight push away from the body, followed by a natural easy backswing. Don't zig-zag up to the foul line. Approach in an even line. The last step of your approach ends with a slight slide. Your bowling hand and left foot should reach foul line at the same time.

In releasing the ball, you must concentrate on a complete follow through. It gives you good direction, sets you on the road to better scores. Let the ball do the work for you. Don't heave it down the
