

Lost River Dairy Has Union Contract

Completion of negotiations between the Teamsters' union (AFL) and the Lost River Dairy for a wage and hour contract was announced Wednesday by Earl Edsall, Teamsters' business agent.

Edsall said the contract puts all three of the big Klamath Falls beverage concerns on an even basis in regard to union scales. He asserted the new agreement provides for an increase in wages and a standardization of hours for inside workers and truck drivers. Edsall also revealed that negotiations with both the Klamath Packing company and the Pauley Packing company were recently completed, raising the pay of both firms' truck drivers from $35 to $40 per week.

Teamsters' Union Moves Headquarters

The office of the Teamsters' union (AFL) Wednesday had been moved into new and larger quarters in the Labor temple.

The union had previously shared an office with the Building Trades council on the main floor of the temple. The new office, manned by Business Agent Earl Edsall and a secretary, is on the same floor toward the rear of the building.
