

CANTATA TO BE HELD BY HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS

By MAURICE O'CALLAGHAN

Thursday night the citizens of Klamath Falls and surrounding area are invited to a Christmas cantata in the auditorium of the Klamath Union high school presented by the music and drama departments of the school and by the school district.

It was stated by those in charge of the program that it was a pleasure to offer this magnificent feature to the public who have supported the school and its activities.

A play presented by the dramatics department called "Why the Chimes Rang" will be presented in a setting not seen off the professional stage.

The scene is a vision of a magnificent cathedral as seen by a little boy.

The music department will assist in the production of the play and will present music by the a cappella choir in a Christmas Chorale directed by Charles Stanfield and Guy Bates. The narrator for the music will be Rev. L. K. Johnson and the singers will be accompanied by Anita Gwyn.

The departments of the high school have gone to a great expense to bring this to the public of Klamath and all are invited to enroll their child. There is a small tuition charge and those interested may call either Mrs. John H. Harris Jr., 4428, or Mrs. Katherine Johnson, instructor at the school.

FLOCK NEW MASTER OF MASONIC LODGE

J. Fred Flock was elected master of Klamath lodge No. 77, AF&AM, at the annual election of officers held in the Masonic temple this week. Installation will take place in the lodge hall, Monday, December 22.

Others elected included Dr. George H. Adler, senior warden; W. C. McArthur, junior warden; E. M. Bubb, secretary; Arthur Dickson, treasurer. Appointive officers will be announced at the Monday meeting. Bubb was reelected to the post of treasurer for the 22nd consecutive year, it was announced.

AND ONCE AGAIN

PHILADELPHIA (P)—Rubin Bonier was ready to turn over his cash to a masked man who entered his store brandishing a gun until he noticed the weapon was a toy. "Why you bum," shouted Bonier, pulling a pistol from beneath the counter, "I'll give you some of the real thing." The bandit fled, and the irate Bonier started in pursuit, only to stop, laughing. He remembered his own gun wasn't loaded.

Kindergarten Enjoys Tree

Supervised play, various activities which aid self expression, story hour and dramatization of old favorites, are a few of the features of the Roosevelt kindergarten and nursery school sponsored by the Parent-Teachers' association. The new term of three months will open January 2, and all interested mothers, whether they live in the Roosevelt district or not, are welcome to enroll their child. There is a small tuition charge and those interested may call either Mrs. John H. Harris Jr., 4428, or Mrs. Katherine Johnson, instructor at the school.

Fruit Candies Prove Rich Source of Vitamins

You can combine vitamin and mineral rich fruits and the holiday spirit into delicious candies for the Christmas tree with these sure fire suggestions from "Our Candy Recipes" by Van Arsdale and Emellos, both of Teachers college, Columbia university. The book would be a welcome gift, too!

Fruit Paste
(Makes 60 pieces—2-3 Pound)
One-half cup prunes, uncooked; 1 cup figs, 1 cup raisins, 1 cup dates, 1 cup nut meats, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon ground cloves.
Wash figs and prunes and steam for five minutes. Remove seeds from raisins, dates and prunes. Put fruit and nuts through food chopper. Add salt and cloves and mix well together. Fruit juices can be added if the mixture seems dry. Roll out in a sheet one-fourth of an inch thick. Cut into squares or diamonds or into fancy shapes with cutters. Sprinkle with confectioners' sugar. Shake to remove superfluous sugar. Other spices, such as ginger and cinnamon, may be used in combination with the cloves.

Spiced Raisins
One cup raisins, 1 1/2 cups sugar,

1 cup water, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg, 1/2 teaspoon ground cloves, 1/2 teaspoon ginger, sugar for rolling raisins. Seeded or unseeded raisins may be used. Pick them over carefully, removing stems. Put sugar, water and spices into a saucepan and cook, stirring until sugar is dissolved. Continue cooking, without stirring, until a temperature of 238 deg. F. is reached. Add raisins and cook slowly for about seven minutes, stirring only enough to separate the raisins and keep syrup from scorching. Remove from fire. Set into a pan of hot water. Take a few raisins at a time from the syrup, drain, and drop into granu-

MENU
BREAKFAST—Grapefruit juice, enriched griddle cakes, syrup, coffee, milk.
LUNCHEON—Duck soup with noodles, watercress, whole-wheat sandwiches, spiced raisins, tea, milk.
DINNER—Spaghetti with round steak and tomato sauce, raw vegetable salad rolls, hot chocolate pudding, hard sauce, coffee, milk.

lated sugar. Separate at once and roll each raisin until well covered with sugar. The attractiveness of the fruit depends upon having the raisins well drained and keeping each raisin separated from the others. Should the mixture of raisins

News Notes and Comment

By MAURICE O'CALLAGHAN

As we said in the column previously, this last week will probably be broken up by assemblies and so forth. As was said it will and it has also started. Tuesday two meetings were held. The Girls' league held an hour meeting at which a varied program was presented.

Glen Kennedy explained about the Hi-Y drive and what would be best to give. The girls discussed the idea of purchasing a $75 defense bond.

Mrs. Lucille O'Neill read her annual Christmas story. This year it was "Where Love Is, God Is Always."

The girls sang carols led by Charles Stanfield.

The officers of the league were given their pins.

Dorothea Ellingson received the president's pin, Joanne Hamilton the vice president's, Christina Demetrakos the secretary's.

Mrs. Alice Howard and the other advisors of the club were presented with gifts from the organization.

A reading was given by little Mary Jane Howard, visiting from the grade schools.

While this was going on the Boys' Alliance held an informal meeting in the boys' gym where Pelican Coach D. French illustrated basketball. After the fundamentals were past he put his squad against the school's Church league team, the Junior Pelicans.

The score was well in favor of the Pelicans when the game was stopped for the students to return to their classes.

Wednesday was the day for the Christmas program put on by the dramatics and music departments.

The Klamath Krater will be out Thursday.

The defense stamp sale conducted by the Quill and Scroll Tuesday netted a little over $30. This seems a small sum, but the stamps have been sold since Friday and many had already bought their share of our defense.

It is almost the last of the week. Friday ends the drive of the Hi-Y for food for the less fortunate. If you have not brought food get around to it before the final date. You will aid greatly in keeping Christmas the season of cheer.

Also Friday the Hi-Y will have charge of the assembly which will be followed by a dance sponsored by the social committee of the high school. Hurry with the food.

Tokyo Describes Capture of Guam On December 12

TOKYO, Dec. 17 (Official Radio Received by AP)—The naval section of Japanese Imperial headquarters has issued the following communique concerning Guam:

"Japanese forces landed at the port of Apra in western Guam at dawn on Dec. 10 and, attacking a number of strategic points, took prisoner 30 naval officers and men, including a commander. They also seized a 3000-ton tanker.

"On Dec. 11 Japanese forces occupied Agana, the capital of Guam, and took prisoner 350 Americans, including Captain George McMillin, governor and commandant of the naval station, the vice governor and many officers.

"Continuing their attack both from the air and on the ground, the Japanese forces completed the occupation of Guam Dec. 12."

HOLDUP TECHNIQUE

COLUMBUS, O. (P)—An overcoated man walked into the Western Union telegraph office, scribbled two messages, discarded them, and handed a third one to Clerk Clarence Gloeckner. It read:

"All your cash and be quiet." Gloeckner handed over an undetermined amount of cash and the robber fled.

The discarded messages read: "Be calm. This is a stickup"; and "Holdup. All your cash."
