HIGH SCHOOL

News Notes and Comment

By MAURICE O'CALLAGHAN

Well, as this is written, Thursday, the students of Klamath high are making plans for the vacation that is starting the full in the face. Friday a Christmas program and dance is being planned by the Hi-Y and social committee to wind up school for the fall season.

Thursday the Kraters were given out and were almost up to par. One article which appeared in the Krater and which we hadn't heard about was the announcement that El Rodeos will not be published after this spring until after the war.

We will quote Clifford Rowe from the Krater: "If we had known that war was going to be declared we would not have planned to publish one this year. However, as contracts have been signed with the cover manufacturers, the printer, and engraver, we will go ahead on the year's book and hope that before many years roll by we can start publishing them again."

He stated to this reporter that a senior year book might be published in the future, but the book must be paid for by subscription.

It is a bad blow for those under classmen and juniors who will have nothing but memories to look back on.

In a short assembly for freshmen boys Thursday the freshmen were asked to serve as messengers during a raid from the air if other communications were not working.

The boys were given slips which must be signed by their parents before they can be considered.

The Hi-Y drive ended Friday with a fair showing. Prizes were to be awarded to the first and second home rooms. Mrs. Rose Poole of Klamath Theatres Inc., offered tickets to the Pelican to all members of the home room which has the highest average number of points per person. Second room will receive a five-pound box of candy.

Although not as successful as in the past, the drive picked up speed in the last part of this week and the home rooms looked very near what they used to.

"Why the Chimes Rang," that wonderful play which the school offered to the people of Klamath county, held its final performance Thursday night before a large gathering of Klamath folk.

The dramatics and music departments joined together to make the play the best seen here for many Christmases.

Luzon Shopkeeper Unmasked as Jap Army Officer

MANILA, Dec. 19 (AP)—An "excuse, please" murmuring little Japanese shopkeeper named Hara, who for the past few years sold loaves of bread and soda pop to residents of Vigan, was unmasked yesterday as Major Hara of the imperial Japanese army.

A Filipino arriving from a town near Japanese-occupied Vigan, 200 miles northwest of Manila, told the story. He said Hara was arrested at the outbreak of hostilities but when first Japanese troops landed on December 10 they proceeded directly to the jail and released him.

He then donned his major's uniform. Hara is also Japanese "military governor of the province of Ilocos Sur."

SPEECHES OF ARMY MAN INVESTIGATED

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 19 (AP)—A retiring army officer was confined to his quarters today during an investigation into recent speeches in which he commented on the Japanese attack on Hawaii.

Major Gen. Daniel Van Voorhis, fifth corps area commander, ordered the action, an area spokesman said, against Col. H. C. Kress Muhlenberg, former commander of Hickam field in Hawaii.

Colonel Muhlenberg told the Curtiss Flying club here Wednesday night that the only reason the United States did not lose the Hawaiian islands in the initial attack by Japan was that the Japanese were too stupid to concentrate their forces.

He also declared that the American people should not hunt "goats" because they themselves adopted a program of sending planes all over the world instead of keeping aircraft where most needed.

Colonel Muhlenberg is on leave pending retirement at his own request.

He declined to comment on the army's inquiry.

The army officer told the flying club the navy was of secondary importance now; that air power was most essential.

He pictured the Philippines as an economic asset and a military liability to the United States, but termed Hawaii both an economic and military asset.

Thousands of Japanese, he added, have entered the Philippines with the sole intent of taking over the islands for their country.
