Improving—The many friends of Mrs. Sydney Weinstein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Henry of 2504 Reclamation avenue, will be happy to learn she is showing improvement following an 11-week illness. She may have a few visitors during the coming week, according to her mother with whom she is staying at this time. It will be several months before Mrs. Weinstein will be permitted to sit up. Mrs. Henry is at home.

Goes North — Mrs. Lucille Annon left Klamath Valley hospital Friday night to take the train to Seattle where she will spend the holidays visiting her brother, Edward Esposendo, Peruvian nurse. Mrs. Annon was en route north from her home in San Francisco when she became ill.

Safe at Pearl Harbor — Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Martin of Shasta way have received word that their son, Arthur is safe at Pearl Harbor. Young Martin enlisted in the nation's armed forces some time ago.

Buy's Store—George Welch, employed at Balin's Furniture store for the past 15 years, has purchased the Felhan's Meat and Grocery store at 4707 South Sixth street. The sale was made by Fred Cofer of the Barnhisel agency.

Book Club Meets—The Edith Cuning book club will meet Monday at 8 p. m. for a Christmas party with Mrs. Mae King Conradi, 1028 Jefferson. Miss Suzanne Hamilton will give Christmas readings, and gifts will be exchanged.

Called to Walla Walls — Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ferguson of 1932 Erie street left Saturday for Walla Walls, Wash., where they were called by the death of Ferguson's mother, Mrs. Charles J. Ferguson. They expected to return at the end of next week.

Transferred — Leslie H. Dunn of this city has been assigned to training center at Camp Roberts, Calif.

A Son Is Born

God sent forth his Son, born of a woman, born into a human body and having a human soul. Christ the Son knew our joys and our sorrows. He went at the tomb of Lazarus and had joy as He graced Levi's banquet board where He ate with the crooks and criminals. In Him, God and man became one; a thing new to God, this taking to Himself of our nature. Christ became the God-Man; the Head of a new race built up of sinful men, cleansed by His blood and made eternal by His life breathed into them. As saved from the blackout of eternal night, their nature and destiny is that of the Christ who redeemed them.

Christ's first advent was in the days of Herod the king. Then it was that the wise men from out the east, came to Jerusalem seeking—Where is He that is born King of the Jews, for we have seen His star in the east and are come to worship Him.

When they had found the Babe in Bethlehem and had worshipped Him, they opened their treasures and gave unto Him gifts; gold, that said He was of the God-head; frankincense that spoke of His Father's delight in His obedience as a Son; and myrrh, used to embalm the dead, for at the end, this Holy One would die for our sins.

At His next coming to rule the world; outlaw war and set up justice, the government shall be upon His shoulders: And His name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The Mighty God, The Everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. Such is He to be when He returns to take over and rule the earth.

Sum it up—In Christ, God took a human body and our human nature. He was tempted at all points like as we are, yet without sin. At the end, He was crucified, dead and buried. On the third day, He arose from the grave and after He had proved Himself by many infallible signs, He ascended back to glory again. The eye of Stephen the first martyr, pierced through into heaven and he saw Jesus standing at the right hand of God and he said—"I see the heavens opened and the Son of Man standing on the right hand of God."

"Beloved, now are we the sons of God," said John the Apostle and he adds that the world has not yet seen what we are to be, but when Christ returns in His body of glory we shall be like Him. We trust Christ to raise us and give us eternal bliss out beyond the grave. Have you that blessed hope?

HIGH SCHOOL News Notes and Comment

By MAURICE O'CALLAGHAN

School has closed for a week. Students are asked to be back to school December 29, but let's leave that horrible subject and get down to the more pleasant.

Friday at the assembly Buck Hammer, Wayne Scott and Paul Deller presented members of their respective football teams with the awards they have won this season on the field of honor. Hammer introduced Phil Blohm, Gene Love and Jack Mitchell who were picked on the all conference team. They will be given small gold footballs.

Donald Ross gave letters for the yell team to Steve Steward, Lettie Lynnman and Jean Aubrey.

After the awards the meeting was turned over to the H-Y and Paul Deller handled the program for the remainder of the assembly.

Charles Stanfield led the student body in two Christmas carols and then a radio play, "He Thought He Could Sing" by Flora Miller, assistant to Mrs. Blomquist, was presented.

Chet Smith, Santa Claus, embarrassed many of the popular teachers and students with gifts and remarks.

Glen Kennedy wound up the affair by expressing his thanks to all those who helped in the drive.

One half of the stage was almost completely covered by food that had been brought by students to the school, and many home rooms were still expecting foodstuffs to arrive in the afternoon.

Tall jars, short pars, fruit jars, and glass jars were placed completely across the front of the stage.

It seems that home rooms increased their points with a rush Friday morning, for a much larger display was made than had been expected.

After assembly the food was pushed back and the gym opened for dancing. As couples and stags entered a teacher would place a candy cane in his hand to be chewed during the afternoon.

Emile Buzaid's band furnished the music for the dancing.

In this column two days ago we brought out the fact that the Honor society had made a mistake in figuring the home room with the lowest grade average. Just to remind them that when they branded room 106 as the lowest they ridiculed the students who were innocent. In fact, they want an apology from yours truly. Well, here it is: "We are sorry that you made the mistake."

School Musicians Entertain Lions

A program of music was the entertainment presented at the Lions club luncheon Tuesday noon. Miss Lillie Darby, city grade school music teacher, led the street band in a number of Christmas tunes. The glee club and orchestra of the Roosevelt school also presented several numbers.

John Ebenger spoke in behalf of the China relief and Paul Landry spoke for US defense bonds.

Auto Curtailment Threatens Jobs

DETROIT, Dec. 20—A survey of the automobile industry by the Michigan unemployment compensation commission indicated today that production curtailment would mean idleness for 206,000 workers in the next seven days.

Wendell L. Lund, commission director, said this figure was based on data supplied by auto plants.

Of the 206,000 workers, he said, 130,000 would be affected in the Detroit area alone. The survey, he added, also included impending layoffs by automotive suppliers.

Mattoon Reported Improved in Good Samaritan Hospital

Deputy Sheriff Dale Mattoon is showing favorable recovery at Good Samaritan hospital in Portland, but he will spend Christmas in the hospital, Mrs. Mattoon said Friday.

The Klamath officer sustained a badly broken leg in an accident Sunday night, December 7, while on patrol duty near the Klamath river bridge on the Weed highway.

Mrs. Mattoon and daughter, Shirley Frances, will go to Portland Saturday to spend the Yuletide with the deputy sheriff.
