

Soroptimists Prepare for Year

Mrs. Sabo Heads New Officers Taking Over Reins for Service Club

In a beautifully decorated room, carrying out the Christmas theme, Mrs. Coral J. Sabo was installed as president of the Soroptimist club at the Thursday noon luncheon at the Willard hotel. Serving with Mrs. Sabo will be, during the coming year, Mrs. Rose Poole, Mrs. Catherine Brumbaugh, Mrs. Sophia Kennoffel, Mrs. Alice Howard, Mrs. Eileen Hicks, Mrs. Kathleen Thompson and Mrs. Ruby Lyle. Installation ceremonies were under the supervision of Mrs. Yetta Margulis as chairman of the day.

Under the Christmas tree were found toys for each member of the club, truck and ladder, dolls which crept coyly along the table, knives and forks and dishes, everything imaginable. As each name was called, original verses describing the personality of the recipient were read aloud and the gift handed to the member.

Mrs. Eileen Hicks finally commanded the toys and placed them in safe keeping for the firemen to distribute with the others at Christmas time.

Adding to the brightness of the table with its Christmas ornaments and candles were jars of peach conserve at each place, a gift to each club member from Mrs. Rose Poole who had made the delicacy from peaches grown at her home on Conger avenue. At each place was also an attractive package from Mrs. Rita Whisenant, containing articles dear to a feminine heart.

Mrs. Gardner made an announcement to the club of a Home Nursing course to be started Friday evening at the armory as part of the defense work, and it is believed that a number of the members will join this course.

Mrs. Sylvia McClelland announced that the work being done by the club in furnishing coffee and doughnuts every night to the volunteer civil guards had been assumed by the various restaurants in the city and the members would be released for other duties. A canteen fund was started in preparation for whatever may be needed.

It was announced that no further meetings will be held until Thursday noon, January the eighth, on account of the year-end holidays.

ALOHA OES AIDS IN RED CROSS WORK

Aloha chapter No. 61, Order of the Eastern Star, is putting its shoulder to the wheel in a big way in the present World war, as is shown by the November report of Mrs. Robert E. Wattenburg, chapter supervisor of Red Cross work, filed with the worthy grand matron, Mrs. Fay Ambrose of Portland, when 1692 hours of work by local members was reported, 69 knitted garments turned in, 185 other completed garments. Twenty-five members assisted in the annual Roll Call of the American Red Cross. Mrs. Oliver W. Spiker, worthy matron is proud of her chapter report.

The installation of officers for the ensuing chapter year will be held Tuesday evening, December the twenty-second, at eight o'clock, in the Masonic Temple on Klamath avenue. Mrs. Spiker and Mr. Arlet Edsall, worthy patron, extend a cordial invitation to all members and visiting members to attend these installation ceremonies.

PAST MATRONS ENJOY HOLIDAY AFFAIR FRIDAY

One of the enjoyable pre-holiday affairs of the week was that of Friday afternoon when members of the Past Matrons club were entertained at the Masonic temple at the annual Christmas party. Following the luncheon and business meeting, the Past Matrons gathered about the Christmas tree for a gift exchange. Later, games were played. Mrs. O. R. Holloway received the special prize for the afternoon.

Those in charge of the party were Mrs. F. H. Cofer, Mrs. Elizabeth Norris, Mrs. Charles Gilbert, Mrs. Ida Grimes, Mrs. Amelia Hanks, Mrs. George T. Casper, Mrs. Glenn Kent and Mrs. C. G. Reymers.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. King of Lewiston, Idaho, are expected here Tuesday to spend the holidays at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Coppage of Lowell street. The Kings will leave Lewiston on Sunday, driving here by way of Portland and the coast highway.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Epperson have returned to their home in Klamath Falls after a month's visit in Illinois with Mrs. Epperson's father.

"Bill of Rights" Theme of Play

League of Women Voters Entertain New Members at Holiday Tea After Program

An interested and attentive audience witnessed the play which the Klamath League of Women Voters gave at the city library to commemorate the 150th anniversary of the adoption of the Bill of Rights.

The play, "Our Heritage," written by a league member, Mrs. Leo Sagehorn, was presented in costumes of the period. Interesting and amusing were the scenes which depicted men on the street, and women over their tea cups, discussing the rights of the people. More serious scenes portrayed meetings of congress, the presentation of the ten amendments, and finally, the reading of the American Bill of Rights. Mrs. Sagehorn, as narrator, bound the story together by developing the historical sequence.

Following the program a tea was held to honor the new members of the league. Under the able direction of Mrs. Ralph W. Stearns, the tea committee caught the patriotic theme in planning the tea table. Mrs. Fred Heilbronner, league president, and Mrs. E. R. Dennis, vice president, poured.

This was the regulation meeting of the League of Women Voters, a non-partisan organization, which invites all women to share in their study of governmental activities. Any woman who wishes to become a member may call the president, vice president, or Mrs. Robert Ross, who is chairman of the membership committee.

ANW CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. W. JONES

In spite of the all-day snow storm, members of the Art Needle Work club gathered for their regular bi-monthly meeting, Wednesday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Wilbur A. Jones, on High street. This club, the oldest social club in Klamath Falls, has on its membership roll many who have lived for years and years in this section, facing pioneer conditions during good times and bad. They are not easily frightened or disheartened.

On Wednesday they talked of blackouts, air raids, the job that lies ahead of America. Talked with calmness, determination, and a sense of being ready to meet whatever comes with chin up and eyes to the front. America can look to such women with confidence in their ability to face the future with courage.

Mrs. Charles Joseph Martin will be hostess to the club Wednesday afternoon, January the seventh.

Mrs. Paul W. Sharp, who has spent the past year at Fort Lewis, Washington, where Dr. Sharp is stationed with the United States medical corps, is spending the Christmas holidays here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Mueller of North Third street.

A college band directed by Bob MacFadden of the University of Oregon, has been engaged to play during the evening. The band has played in Portland and has had many campus engagements, according to committee members. A featured soloist will be with the orchestra.

Mr. and Mrs. Shoop have asked the following to serve on their committee: Mr. and Mrs. James Busch, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tarr, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hooker, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Reeves, Mr. and Mrs. Don Drury, Dr. and Mrs. T. F. Farley, and Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Peak.

In the receiving line there will be Mr. and Mrs. William Hagelstein, Dorris, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Blohm, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lamm, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Shive.
