NEW SNOW COVERS MOUNTAIN REGIONS

Snow blanketed the entire mountain section east of the Cascades and six inches of new snow brought the total to 32 inches according to the state highway department Tuesday morning. Motorists starting out over The Dalles-California highway were urged to use chains before attempting the mountain area, officials stated.

A light fall during the night coupled with a minimum temperature of 25 degrees, left a coat of white over the city to greet early Tuesday morning risers. Precipitation reached .08 of an inch, the US bureau of reclamation weatherman stated.

Motorists planning a trip over the Green Springs highway were advised the roadway was covered with snow over a slick base and caution was urged.

BOSTON WOOL
BOSTON, Dec. 23 (AP-USA)—The Boston wool market was mostly quiet today. Occasional sales of fine combing Ohio delaine were made at 45-47 cents in the grease. Good 12-month Texas wools had some demand at $1.10-15, scoured basis. Graded three-eighths bright combing territory wools sold in moderate quantities at 96-98 cents scoured basis, and graded one-quarter blood territory wools at mostly 92-93 cents scoured basis.

YOUNG PATRIOT
ATLANTA—Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Allen were amazed when their 11-year-old son, James, came home with a defense stamp album and a dollar's worth of stamps.

He bought them by saving half of his 10 cents a day allowance for a school lunch.

Arizona Picture Released by Navy

WASHINGTON, Dec. 23 (AP)—The navy released today a photograph of the ravaged battleship Arizona, hit by bombs and aerial torpedoes, showing that the dreadnaught sank to the bottom of Pearl harbor with flag flying and anti-aircraft guns turned aloft.

Although Secretary of the Navy Knox listed the 32,600-ton battle wagon as "destroyed" and therefore presumably beyond salvage, the photograph showed the deck was about one foot above the surface and much of the stern superstructure to outward appearances undamaged.

AIRMAN MAY COME HERE
MOTEMVIDEO, Uruguay, Dec. 23 (AP)—A subscription was launched today to equip and send 50 Uruguayan airmen to serve in the United States' air forces.

TRIAL ON MORALS CHARGE UNDERWAY

Trial of Alfred Marlon Richardson, 19, began in circuit court Tuesday with the selection of a jury. Indicted by the Klamath county grand jury, Richardson is facing a charge of statutory rape.

William F. B. Chase and U. S. Balentine are acting as Richardson's attorneys, with Clarence Humble, deputy district attorney, for the state.

Circuit Judge David R. Vandenberg dismissed the case against Gene Meacham, charged with forgery. Meacham's trial was begun Monday morning.

Swarms of butterflies have clustered about street lights of Benjaluka, Bosnia, thick enough to leave the streets dark.
