Lou Novikoff Dizzier Than Dizzy Dean's Best

By TED MEIER
PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 24 (P)—Lou Novikoff, outfielder for the Chicago Cubs, is dizzier than was Dizzy Dean at his prime. That's what Jimmy Wilson, manager of the Cubs, said here on a visit. And he ought to know. For Wilson was a team-mate of Ole' Diz on the St. Louis Cardinals and last year managed Novikoff, known as the "Mad Russian."

Novikoff was the leading slugger in the Pacific Coast league in 1940. He came up to the Cubs with a lot of fanfare last spring. But his hitting was virtually nil and his fielding worse. He was farmed out to Milwaukee where his fielding worse. He was farmed out to Milwaukee where his clouting earned him another chance. "I don't know whether he will make the grade or not," Wilson declared. "He is still caught off stride and fooled by a change of pace outside, hits in front of the ball and beats it into the dirt, although on some days he knocks the pill out of the park without half trying."

"Still, he's quite a guy," Wilson went on. "He's given me a lot of laughs and I can't stay mad at him."

"During the spring (Novikoff was hitting a mere .190) when he was going bad I asked him have I hurt you in any way?" He thought a moment. 'Yes, you broke my heart.' What, I said in surprise! What did I do?' 'You took me out for a pinch hitter,' he replied."

Cleveland Named 1941 Disappointment

By ORLO ROBERTSON
NEW YORK, Dec. 24 (AP)—The doubtful honor of being dubbed the No. 1 disappointment of the year goes to the Cleve land Indians without much of an argument.

By a margin of almost two to one, the Indians beat out Lou Nova of the cosmic punch in the opinion of 85 sports writers participating in the Associated Press' annual poll. Thirty-one of the experts said the Tribe's slide into a tie for fourth place, 26 games back of the champion Yankees of the American league, after finishing only a game out of the top spot in 1940, was proof that Roger Peckinpaugh's boys deserve the distinction.

Lou Nova, who after a great buildup was knocked out in the sixth round by Champion Joe Louis last summer, received 16 votes. One writer split his ballot between Nova the Yogi and the Indians.

The remaining votes were scattered among 16 athletes and teams. Louis Norman Newsom, the big Detroit pitcher, better known as Bo Bo, was the No. 1 failure in the opinion of eight writers. Newsom won only 12 and lost 20 games and his earnedrun average slipped to 4.61 last season after he pitched the Tigers to the American league pennant in 1940 with a 21-5 record and an earned-run mark of 2.83.

Texas' football Longborns, already mentioned as one of the biggest surprises of the year either in winning, tying or los-ing, also were considered the top disappointment by seven writers. They based their discussion on the Longhorns' defeat by Texas Christian and tie by Baylor after being voted one of the nation's two top-ranking elevens.

Right behind the Longhorns with six votes trailed Stanford's football team, which lost three games after having gone unde-feated and winning the Rose bowl game the previous season. Lou Novikoff, the majors' most publicized rookie, who failed to make good with the Cubs, and
