Baby Born Here

On Christmas
Santa Claus and the stork collaborated on a Christmas present for the Earl Legault family, 2300 Union street, when they left a "bundle from heaven" at Hillside hospital Christmas day. A daughter, weighing six pounds five ounces, was born to Mrs. Legault and both are doing nicely.

The infant, their first child, has been named Patricia Ann. Legault is employed by the Algoma Lumber company.

Ship Cook Drowns

In Tillamook Bay
TILLAMOOK, Ore., Dec. 26 (AP)—William Purdon, 48, Aberdeen, Wash., fell from a logging boom and drowned in Tillamook bay, near Garibaldi, Christmas eve.

He was walking ashore with Merritt Richardson, also of Aberdeen, from the tug Kihyuan, on which Purdon was cook and Richardson a deck hand, when he slipped into the water.

Surviving are his widow and three children at Aberdeen.

Selective Service

Notice Hits Him
DENVER, Dec. 26 (UP)—Willie Chinn, 23, only Chinese employe at the Denver post-office, was having a hard time getting a pesky postal card into a cancelling machine and finally it flew up, hit him in the face and fluttered to the floor. Superintendent Tom Hill picked it up, looked at it and handed it to him with the remark that "it's all yours, Willie." It was a selective service notice ordering him to report for examination previous to induction.

SLIPPERY ROADS CAUSE MISHAPS

Snow-covered roads and slippery surfaces over Christmas caused several minor traffic collisions. A three-way crash involving J. A. Langtry of Ashland, Robert Charles Owens of Dorris and Henry Miksch occurred Wednesday afternoon on Highway 97, but no injuries were reported.

Slight injuries were reported for Wilma, Richard and Robert Schlosser, when the car in which they were riding with Julius C. Schlosser collided with a Greyhound bus on Highway 97.

Ether Lillian Dalrem of 2869 Ward and James O. McKeenan of route 2 were both injured slightly in a head-on collision Wednesday morning. The accident occurred near Altamont, where an icy surface was reported.

CAREFUL LAD
SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Superior Judge Gordon Thompson is beginning to wonder about his appearance.

Noticing the discomfort of soldiers on guard duty (the night was cold) the judge brewed a pot of coffee, heaped a plate with cup cakes and approached a sentry, stamping his feet to keep warm.

"No, thanks," he told the judge firmly. "I don't drink coffee or eat cake."
